However the funds to the credit of FUKUSHIMA were not sufficient to pay his Creditors in full and on submission to KURIYAMA he agreed to accept 59.64¢ on the dollar in full settlement. Dear Sir

Thank you very much for sending me a note against my claim on Angus Hinkshaw. I was supposed to answer sooner, but for the past 2 weeks I was away in Leithbridge to get a treatment on my leg which I broke this winter at the bush, and I just got back to Pelham Butte yesterday.

On your letter it says I get $9,64⁰⁰ to each dollar I loaned to Angus Hinkshaw, which I loaned him $150.00 before evacuation. I really am in a luff spot right now because I can't work for 4 or 5 months yet.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to inform you that I have loaned
One hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) to Mrs. Kazuo Fukushima, formerly of Powell St., Van., B.C.
If this man has any money to his credit at your office, I would like to have the money sent to me.
I forgot to make the necessary report before leaving B.C. so I am sending you the details.

Fukushima borrowed the money from me on November 10, 1941 at 313 Alexander St. At that time Fukushima owned a Confectionary store on Powell St. corner, opposite the Powell Baseball grounds. And as a side business used to deliver milk on a half ton delivery truck.

I do not know where Fukushima is at present located for I have no ways of getting in touch with him. But please kindly look him up and if he has any money, I would like it sent to me as soon as possible.

I am in great need of money at present so kindly endeavor to get the money for me in closing, thanking you for the kind favor and to hear from you by return mail.

Yours very truly,
Maggie Thompson
