GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 6270

17th Sept. 1946.

Re: Masatoshi NAGAMORI - Reg. No. 12422

The above Japanese declared no assets with the Custodian with the exception of a radio and two cameras, which were surrendered to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The details of which are set out in the attached Specified Articles schedule.

The two cameras were released back to him through the B.C. Security Commission on the 4th May, 1943.

His radio was sold by public auction on the 27th January, 1944 for the net sum of $47.76, and upon receiving the receipt given to him, the funds were made available to him.

The only liability against this Japanese according to his file, was a claim for $120.50 filed by the Bonded Credit Adjusters, on behalf of Federal Schools, of Minneapolis.

This claim was referred to Masatoshi NAGAMORI, but he did not acknowledge it, and the collecting agency was therefore, advised that we were unable to help them in this matter, and that they would have to look to NAGAMORI direct for collection.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

In reply to yours of February 28th relative to above-noted Japanese radio and deposit now on hand with this Commission, we wish to advise you that we have today instructed the Treasury Department to return said deposit, namely $10.00.

Copies of Custodian Release form, which you enclosed in your letter, we will turn over to the Custodian as the Custodian was the party selling this radio and will have any monies coming to Nagamori in their office. We would suggest that Nagamori be told that he should advise the Custodian that he knows that the radio has been sold and request that they forward to him any and all monies obtained from the sale of same.

We would recommend also that Nagamori enclose the R.C.M.P. receipt in the letter he sends to the Custodian as this will serve as identification in connection with ownership of radio.

Dear Sir:

We wish to acknowledge your letter of the 18th February, asking for the remittance of your credit balance held at this office.

Your credit balance is derived from the sale of your radio, and before the funds are free for your use it is necessary that you remit to this office, the radio receipt given you at the time you surrendered the radio to the police.

We note on your file a claim lodged against you for $120.50 by the Federal Schools, Minneapolis, Minnesota. It would appear that you have received our previous inquiry regarding this claim, but we have not received your reply as to what you wish done regarding it. We request that you give this matter your attention.
