LIABILITY SUMMARY

File No. 6364

November 15th, 1946.

Re: Fusaichi OMOTANI
Reg. No. 00578.

The above named Japanese declared on our Form J card dated April 25th, 1942 that he had no personal or trade debts.

However, on May 21st, 1942, the B. C. Telephone Company filed a claim against the Bright Cleaners in the amount of $7.25. There is, however, no actual mention on file that he is actually the owner of this cleaners although on his J card he states his occupation as being a dry cleaner. We wrote Mr. OMOTANI re this claim and received the following reply dated February 26th, 1944: "Referring to your letter of Feb. 22nd stating that I have a deficit of $7.25 against me with the B.C. Telephone Co. I hereby claim that my account with the above Co. has been cleared completely prior to the evacuation, and at present I owe them nothing". We in turn wrote the B.C. Telephone Co., quoting OMOTANI'S letter and stated that as we had no funds in this office belonging to this Japanese we could do nothing further but suggested that they write to him direct.

to be in accordance with information on file.
