Dear Sirs:-

Attention Mr. Shears -

Re - G. Sanmiya -

This is a matter which I have discussed on the telephone with your Mr. Shears.

The above named, who is a Japanese national, was evacuated on or about the 6th inst., and I am instructed that he was sent to Alberta.

Before he left he came in to see us with regard to an account owing to him of $428.04. This man carried on business at 640 East Cordova Street as a manufacturer, in a small way, of dresses. He supplied dresses to Pacific Maid Dress Company of 710 Mercantile Building, 318 Homer Street, Vancouver, and I believe that the materials were supplied by the customer. The balance owing is made up by three invoices dated March 16th, 1942 for $221.00, April 1st, 1942 - $178.09, April 13th, 1942 - $28.95, and we have a carbon copy of these three invoices, which are marked

*See Mr. ...

Japanese Evacuees Section.

O.K. by the customer, and initialled by James M. Cooper, the proprietor of Pacific Maid Dress Company.

The purchaser promised to pay this account at the rate of $25. per week just a few days before our client was evacuated, and then, no doubt when he heard of the evacuation, he repudiated liability on the ground that the Japanese had not accounted for all the materials that had been delivered to him or had used more materials than he should have done. We were informed by our client that there is no merit in this claim.

We understand that as a result of the evacuation of this man the property in this debt will be vested in the Custodian and that the Japanese will not have the right to sue to recover same in his own name. We would like to know, in the circumstances, whether or not the Custodian is prepared to authorize action being taken.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs:

Re: G. Samiya &
James M. Cooper

I have your letter of May 14th, addressed to the attention of Mr. Shears, which has been referred to me for reply.

The Custodian would not object to the continuation of the action but, in fact, would encourage same if no arrangement can be made with Mr. Cooper.

However, under the circumstances existing in this area at the present time, it is not desirable that court action by Japanese be brought to the attention of the public if such action can be avoided. I think that if Mr. Cooper understands the situation a settlement can be arranged and I am taking the liberty of writing him and a copy of my letter is enclosed for your information.

I will advise you of the reply received by this office in due course and if it is not satisfactory, the Custodian will arrange with you to take such proceedings as may be necessary.

Dear Sir:

Re: G. Sanniya

The above party has I am advised, been evacuated and his property, rights and interests in the protected area are vested in the Custodian and are subject to the Custodian's regulations.

My information is to the effect that you are indebted to this man to the amount of $428.04 and that the invoices admitting this indebtedness were marked by you personally as acceptable. I understand that you have now made a counter claim and I would appreciate receiving particulars as you see them as soon as possible.

I wish to point out that the Custodian will take such action as may be necessary to protect the interests of the Japanese race evacuated from this area and the debt having vested in him carries interest at the rate of 5%. I trust that unless you have a legal case in this matter you will arrange to pay the amount of the claim forthwith.

IN THE MATTER OF G. SANMIYA.

I, JAMES M. COOPER, manufacturer, of 3329 West 44th Avenue in the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, do solemnly declare:

1. That I am the proprietor of Pacific Maid Dress Company of 326 West Cordova Street, Vancouver, B. C., and as such have knowledge of the matters hereinafter declared.

2. That the said Pacific Maid Dress Company has a claim against G. Sanmiya in the sum of $3782.76 after making all just deductions. 97-

3. That now produced and shown to me and marked exhibit "A" to this my declaration is an account showing how the said $3782.76 is arrived at. 97-

4. That from 1936 until at or about the time the said G. Sanmiya left the City of Vancouver he was engaged in manufacturing dresses for the said Pacific Maid Dress Company at a remuneration per dress and the said Pacific Maid Dress Company supplied the goods wherewith to make up the said dresses.

5. That in the month of July, 1941, when the said Pacific Maid Dress Company had occasion to have additional dresses made by another manufacturer according to the same design as that in which the said Sanmiya was making dresses it became apparent that the said Sanmiya was calling for too much cloth per dress.

6. That shortly prior to the time that the said G. Sanmiya left the City of Vancouver this declarant took the matter up with him but he refused to make any adjustment.

7. That the amount of $426.04 given as credit against the total amount claimed on the attached account, exhibit "A" hereto, is evidenced by invoices or slips from the said G. Sanmiya which bear the "O.K." of this declarant. 97-

8. That according to the practice carried on at the premises of the said Pacific Maid Dress Company the "O.K." so placed on the said slips was merely an indication to the book-keeper that the number of dresses indicated on the said invoices had been duly received and bore no relation to the matter of payment.

And I make this solemn Declaration, conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the "Canada Evidence Act."

Sept. 2, 1942.

Dear Mickey,

Thanks a lot for your gifts & letters. They are lovely. I just received them last Sunday.

I am sending you some information regarding Mr. Cooper's account. We have four pattern or style books. They are all in the factory hanging under the windows on the West side. The number of yards required for each style & size is given on the back page of the style referred to. I must warn you of one thing. Some of the cotton dresses were cut $1\frac{1}{2}$ " longer than others. The longer ones begin with a "3" & the shorter ones with a "6". Thus the difference between style 3762 and 6762 would be that the former is $1\frac{1}{2}$ " longer. In the style books the yardage is for the number printed thereon. In other words 3762 would require at least 3" more material than 6762. The patterns itself are under the long table. We have no data on the amount of material supplied us by Mr. Cooper. As a matter of fact Mr. Cooper cannot prove that he has supplied us with any given amount of material as we have never signed for them when Jack (or anyone else) brought them. To tell the truth we never bothered to measure the bolts, but just took their word for it.

I'm also telling you that Jack (the chap who works for Mr. Cooper) took back all the scraps (odds & ends left after cutting out dresses) & short ends (the yards left at the end of each bolt that is insufficient for a whole dress) after the order in question was finished.

I must also tell you of an instance that occurred about a year or so ago. Mr. Cooper told us we were using too much material for "3762" so I asked for a sample dress made up by another manufacturer. I found out that this sample dress was about 2" shorter than ours and that they put in less gather in their sleeves, thus making the sleeves a little smaller. I notified Mr. Cooper at once but he told me to leave our patterns as it was & use the extra inches required. For one dress the difference is only 5" or so but for an order covering 7 or 8 dozen dresses the difference in the yardage required is 13 or 14 yds. This must have been happening in other styles as well.

I am enclosing two statements denying Mr. Cooper's charges Use either one. Thanks a lot for all the trouble you are taking.

Nobby.

P.S. I must tell you that in the patterns itself there is no piece for a belt & if there are pockets, they will be found in one size of a given style only. Belts are usually cut 3" wide and 5" longer than size of dress (size 34 dress requires a 39" belt). Thus for say style "6605" there would be no piece for a belt in any size & the pocket piece will be in one size only, perhaps a size 34.

I think Mr. Cooper has taken a few of my patterns. My mother-in-law said something to that effect.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Mrs. Gunji (Nobuko) SANMIYA

Thank you very much for your letter dated September 16. The Custodian's Office has no objection to your taking the necessary action to obtain payment of the amount claimed by your client, Mr. Sanmiya, from the Pacific Maid Dress Company. If you consider it necessary, the Custodian would be prepared to formally authorize you to take action and to file an approval of your action, but I am of the opinion that Mrs. Sanmiya should put up the money in advance to cover your expenses. It occurs to us that you may possibly be able to arrange a settlement with Mr. Cooper without taking court action.

We would appreciate your informing us in due course regarding the result of the action which you will be taking.

Re - Your file 6402 - Mrs. G. Sanmiya.

In this matter Mr. Cooper of the Pacific Maid Dress Company has written stating that he has decided to accept liability for this debt and would ask us to obtain the best possible terms regarding payment, and suggests monthly payments not exceeding $25 a month.

As this man promised to settle on this basis before the above named was evacuated and has had the benefit of many months delay, we think that he ought to pay at least $100.00 now and the balance by monthly payments as suggested. If you agree with this we do not think it will be necessary to take the instructions of Sanmiya.

Dear Sir:-

Re - Your file No. 6402 - Mrs. G. Sanmiya.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Sanmiya dated the 19th inst., advising that she has not received a remittance since February 19th last, and wondering whether Mr. Cooper has defaulted in his payments. As you are aware we sent you $50 less fee on collection, on the 12th inst., and no doubt by this time you have made a remittance to Mrs. Sanmiya.

Yours truly,

WALSH BULL HOUSSEY TUPPER RAY & CARROLL

Dear Mr. Alexander:

I wrote to Bekins Moving & Storage Company, Bender Street at Beatty, Vancouver, just two weeks ago and asked them to send out my household goods.

They replied that it is necessary to have written authority from you before they can release these goods. I would appreciate it very much if you can arrange to give this authority.

Thank you very much.

Yours truly,
