Dear Sir,

With reference to my conversation yesterday with Miss McArthur, I now enclose cheque of the British Columbia Mutual Benefit Association payable to Kenji Mukai who is resident at Lillooet, B.C. This cheque represents the amount payable to Kenji Mukai as beneficiary named in a Certificate issued by the above named Association to his father Yoshizo Mukai and payable upon his death to the said Kenji Mukai.

At the time of the contract between the father and the Association being made in the year 1932, the family was resident at Steveston which is within the protected area.

I have informed Mr. P.J. Wilson, Solicitor, Lillooet, who is the solicitor acting for Kenji Mukai and in the estate of his late father, that I have sent this cheque to you in pursuance of my advice to my clients the B.C. Mutual Benefit Association in this and in prior similar cases and have suggested that he communicate with you. Perhaps you will kindly communicate with him in connection with the matter.

Yours faithfully,

Geo. A. Grant

Dear Sir:

Re: Estate of Yoshizo Mukai
File No. 6658

Mr. George A. Grant, Solicitor for B. C. Mutual Benefit Association, has advised me that he has paid in to your office the sum of $2500.00, being the insurance on the life of Yoshizo Mukai the beneficiary being Kenji Mukai, son of the deceased.

So far as I can learn, there seems to be no regulation which would prevent this money from being paid over to the beneficiary or his assigns. If I am correct in this, will you please forward the cheque to me or to Kenji Mukai at Lillooet.

The Mukai family wish to remove to Midway, and expect to receive a permit to do so very shortly. The two boys are to go to work in a saw mill. They would like to get everything in connection with the estate settled, as far as possible, before leaving Lillooet. I should therefore like to hear from you in this matter just as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

P. J. Wilson
