This man declared ownership of a radio, Stewart Warner, left at the Catholic Japanese Mission, 385 Cordova Street.

Do you know anything about this radio?

J.M.

I called at 381 and 385 Cordova St., the priests at the former address and the nuns at the latter address had no record of KURISU'S radio.

Possibly he removed it prior to evacuation. He should be requested to enlighten us on the subject.

Dear Sir:

We have your letter of the 7th instant and would inform you that we have received payment for the piano and chesterfield suite.

In regard to a sewing machine, there are many in storage and no doubt many of them belong to Japanese in Greenwood. If you wish to purchase one, we would suggest that you make your wants known in your community. This will have the effect of discovering a seller in the quickest way possible.

We would not care to make recommendations although there are machines of every description.

We are in receipt of your two letters

Chesterfield Suite. The first payment has been made and we are enclosing cheque for $20.00 herewith. Mrs. Bettin states that the second payment is due on April 10th, but she expects to be in to see us and make her second deposit before that date.

Piano. We have examined this problem from different angles and in your best interests we are of the opinion that the piano should remain with Miss Clark where it will receive even temperature.
Of course, if you insist on the piano being moved to other quarters then we will arrange with some piano moving company to do the needful.

Mr. Hisakichi KURISU,
Registration No. 06689,

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of your letter of the sixth instant. In the meantime Mrs. Bettin has called at this office and has expressed a desire to purchase the chesterfield suite, but would like to acquire it in two payments. We have informed her that we are quite agreeable but the question of payments rests in your decision.

We would not advise the removal of chattels to warehouse if they can be conveniently disposed of otherwise.

Regarding the piano, we have not inspected same but here again we would not advise removal if it can be avoided.

The moving company demand $10.00 or so for truck hire for handling a piano, and if you wanted us to make a forced sale, we would have to let a piano dealer handle the transaction as we have no other medium through which the sale of such article could be effected. If transferred to a piano dealer, they would probably charge warehouse storage charges until sale is completed.

A few weeks ago I wrote to you regarding sale of my 3-pc. lounge set to Mrs. L. Bettin of 1260 Barclay St. Today I received a letter from her stating that at present she did not have the money to buy the suite until about March.

When I left Vancouver she was residing in a different place and she, having a chesterfield suite of her own I expected my suite to have good care and not as much use; but now I have found out that they have sold their old suite, due to limited space in their apartment and are now having full use of ours. Knowing these people as I do, they are great entertainers and the longer I leave it in their hands the greater the depreciation on the furniture. So since she does not seem to want to pay the sixty-five dollars in cash as long as she has the furniture in her own house, I would like to have the set removed from Mrs. Bettin's home by the Custodian and sold by you at the above mentioned price. The suite, when entrusted to Mrs. Bettin was only nine months old; bought from Woodward Stores at $95.00 (the receipt for which I still have in my possession) and so, it should really be sold at a better value. My piano, which was also in Mrs. Bettin's care, now seems to be in the home of a party by the name of Miss Clark. I would also like to sell the piano for $150.00 cash; and unless this Miss Clark or any other party wishes to buy it at the specified price, I would like to have you put away in your place of storage for the duration or until such time as a sale may be made by you.

I would like to emphathize the fact that I cannot afford to pay for my storage of the furniture so I am expecting you, as custodians of enemy property, to find an appropriate place for these. I do not wish to sell my furniture if lower than the said prices as I realize that it will be almost impossible to buy these goods after the war as the production of luxuries are practically out.

The following are the articles and furniture in charge of Mrs. L. Bettin:

- 1 studio lounge -- wine
- 2 matching chairs
- 2 round satin cushions
- 2 square silk and velvet cushions
- 1 end table (varnished)
- 1 Heintzman "Armand" piano (upright)

I will appreciate it very much if you will call on the above mentioned people as soon this letter reaches you, and let me know the results.

Yours very truly,

Sirs:

When evacuating here from Vancouver, I left a 3-piece studio lounge set in the care of Mr. & Mrs. L. Bettin of 1260 Barclay Street. Yesterday I received a letter from Mrs. Bettin saying that custodian officials had been in to see the suite, and that if I should want to sell it, I would have to let you know first.

As I have been making arrangements with Mrs. Bettin to sell them the suite for sixty-five dollars cash, will you please let me know as to what procedure I should take, and whether the full amount paid by her through you would be forwarded to me at once or not.

Please give this matter your very earliest attention as I would like to give her my final reply.
