PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 6511

August 2, 1946.

RE: Misao Mary (Mrs. Shuji) NONOMURA
Reg. No. 08256

CHATELS: The above, who made her declaration to the Custodian on April 28/42 and was evacuated on June 5/42, declared the following goods:

4 carpets	}	located at 1372 West 7th Ave., Vancouver, B.C.
2 beds with springs
2 bureaus
1 heater
		and

1 counter	}	located at 2122 Granville St., formerly "Couver Cleaners."
1 table
1 garment rack

When removing the goods from 1372 West 7th Ave. only goods identified as those of Mr. EDAMURA, the owner of this house, could be found. None were found which could be identified as belonging to Mrs. NONOMURA, and she was so advised in our letter of April 3, 1945. We also stated in this letter that we assumed she had therefore sold or otherwise disposed of these goods prior to her evacuation. No reply was received to this letter so it seems safe to assume this is what happened.

With regard to the goods declared at 2122 Granville St., we found the counter and the garment rack. These two articles were appraised by Willard's Auction room for the sum of $4.00 and sold to the tenant for this sum. We had to pay Willard's the sum of $1.00 appraisal fee, and the remaining $3.00 was credited to the account of the above. The table was not found, and may have been discarded as worthless.

BANK ACCOUNT:

The above declared a savings account in the Fairview Branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the sum of $140.00. This did not come under the control of the Custodian.

LIFE
INSURANCE:

The above declared a life insurance policy in the sum of $1000.00 with the Prudential Insurance Co., her husband being the beneficiary. The cash surrender value of this policy in the sum of $333.90 was received in this office and remitted to the above on Oct. 14/43. This cheque apparently covered the cash surrender value of four policies. Another cash surrender value cheque in the sum of $355.30 was mailed to the above on Oct. 14/43, covering another policy.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

File No. 6511

TO: Mr. Dourt

FROM: Protection Department

RE: 1372 West 7th Ave.

Without any means of identifying the chattels, or separating them under correct ownership, we were obliged to move and sell everything under the name of the house owner, H. EDAMURA (File 12408).

It would appear to be necessary to send the lists showing auction proceeds to both Mr. EDAMURA and Mrs. NONOMURA and request them to identify their own chattels.

Proceeds of auction could then be correctly apportioned to the rightful owners.

RE: 2122 Granville St.

Mrs. NONOMURA declared at her address:

1 Counter
1 Table
1 Garment rack

The first and last mentioned items were discovered and sold to the tenants for $4.00 on the basis of appraisal as their value did not warrant removal and auction expenses.

The tenant stated that he had never seen a table on the premises, and judging by the quality of the other articles left there, it is probable that it was discarded.

Reg. No. 08256,
c/o Mr. V. Vaclav,
KIPP, Alta.

Dear Madam:

Your file has been reviewed and the following is noted.

When you made your declaration to the Custodian you declared chattels at 1372 West 7th Avenue, Vancouver, but when we removed the chattels of Mr. EDAMURA from this address, we were unable to find anything listed in your name. You were advised of this in our letter of April 3rd, 1945, and since we received no reply to this letter we assume you either sold or otherwise disposed of your chattels at that address prior to your evacuation.

You also declared one counter and one garment rack at 2122 Granville Street. These were sold to the tenant for the sum of $3.00 on the basis of an independent appraisal, and this sum credited to your account with the Custodian. We now enclose Custodian cheque for this sum.

You declared a savings account in the Fairview Branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the sum of $140.00. This did not come under the control of the Custodian.

The Prudential Life Insurance Company sent us cash surrender cheques in your favour in the sum of $333.90 and $355.30 respectively covering five policies and these cheques were remitted to you on October 14th, 1943.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian and in order that you may confirm this and acknowledge the cheque, we are enclosing a stamped addressed envelope for convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

Dear Madam:

When we moved the chattels from 1372 W. 7th Avenue, we also removed the chattels belonging to the house owner, Mr. H. Edamura and everything was sold at public auction. We did not discover any articles bearing your name and therefore assume that between the date of your registration and the date of your evacuation, you sold or otherwise disposed of the chattels.

If we are incorrect in this assumption, please inform us promptly to enable us to discuss the matter with Mr. Edamura.

out to you

Gentlemen: Attention: Mr. S. M. Gibson, Insurance Department.

We have received a request for surrender of this policy.

Our records indicate that the insured, Misao Nonomura, of Japanese ancestry, was born in the Province of British Columbia. It appears that the present address of the insured is Coalhurst, Alberta, Canada.

The policy, according to our records, was allowed to lapse for non-payment of the premium due June 1942. The cash surrender value as of September 7, 1943 would amount to $355.30.

We would appreciate a reply from you as to whether there is any objection to our continuing with the surrender transaction. The cash proceeds of the policy would be made payable to the insured, Misao Nonomura, and the beneficiary, Shunji Nonomura, husband of the insured.

Yours truly,

Re: Chattels.

On a visit to 1372 West 7th Avenue, the tenant Mrs. H. Waines informed us that there is a locked attic.

The chattels declared are probably here, and as Nonomura considered this storage sufficient for his purpose, we are allowing this place to remain undisturbed.

Dear Madam:

The enclosed notice from the Prudential Insurance Company of America has been forwarded to us by our Agent, Messrs. Macaulay, Nicolls, Maitland & Co., Ltd. who are looking after the property at 1372 West 7th Avenue, Vancouver, where we believe you formerly resided.

You will observe from this Notice that it concerns a policy in the name of your son, Kiyoshi, and that this policy has now lapsed unless you can make arrangements for re-instating same.

As you may be aware, the matter of Life Insurance policies does not come under the control of the Custodian's office so we are sending it to you for your attention.
