discarded as of no value by Mr. Willard, auctioneer, in the presence of Mr. Wills, of this office, August 23, 1944. This couch might have been the bed declared.

The balance of the goods found by the Custodian and sold at auction in the name of Mrs. Nami YASUDA were not declared by her, but having been found with her goods were believed to have been her property. On February 29, 1945, Mrs. YASUDA was supplied with auction statement showing the individual items sold at Auctions 507, 508, & 509. She did not inform us that any of the items sold were not her property. At Auctions #58 and #59 some books, records and electrical goods were sold. These were the contents of some boxes which had not been included in the previous auctions.

The amount realized from the sale at auction of goods identified as the property of Mrs. YASUDA was as follows:

Auction	Total Proceeds	Disbursements	Net Proceeds
#507 - Aug. 24/44	437.70	124.69	313.01
508 - Aug. 31/44	43.35	5.55	37.80

58 - Dec. 21/45	1.75	.41	1.34
59 - Mar. 29/46	1.00	.27	.73
	$515.60	$135.02	$380.58

The five auctions were advertised and conducted as follows:

Each of the auctions was advertised in the Vancouver Province, Vancouver Sun and News-Herald on the dates shown.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 6514

April 11/47

RE: Nami (Mrs. Yuijiro) YASUDA, Reg.No.01233

This file reveals that Mrs. YASUDA owned no real property in any protected area of B.C. and did not carry any Fire Insurance.

CHATTELS:

Mrs. YASUDA made her declaration to the Custodian on April 28/42 and was evacuated on May 5/42. She declared chattels as shown on the Chattel Schedule on file at 238½ Main St. She lived at this address, but carried on a restaurant business at 258 Powell Street under the name of the Tsubame Restaurant. (sent inventory until later - info being given to Mrs. Yasuda after her return to Japan)
There is no inventory on file for goods sold at Vancouver auctions # 507, 508 and 509, but these were removed from 238½ Main Street. With the exception of a couch which was discarded, these chattels were sold for the total net sum of $378.51 and this sum credited to her account with the Custodian.

On Aug. 23/44 we inventoried chattels at 238½ Main St. as shown on Chatte Schedule on file. These were sold at Vancouver auctions #58 and 59 for the total net sum of $2.07 and this sum credited to her account with the Custodian.

It will be noted from the Schedule that we sold a great many more chattel than Mrs. YASUDA declared. However we sent her the originals auction sheets for Vancouver auctions #507, 508 and 509 on Feb. 28/45 and she did not deny ownership of any of these goods.

Mrs. Tsude YAMAMOTO, File 10985, owned all the real property from 238 1/2 Main St. to 242 Main St. She only declared chattels in a general way, but a large quantity have been sold and credited to her account, so it would not appear that any credited to Mrs. YASUDA belong to Mrs. YAMAMOTO.

Mr. Chikayoshi YAMADA, File 14151, declared a few chattels at 242 Main St. in care of Mrs. Tsude YAMAMOTO. These have been quite well accounted for. Mr. YAMADA has been advised of amount received from sale of his chattels, and his file has been summarized and closed. He appears to have been satisfied with the price for which his chattels were sold.

We have already used $350.00 from Mrs. YASUDA's account to buy bonds for her at her request, and these bonds are now in her possession. There is therefore only a balance of $29.68 in her account after paying an account of $.90 filed against her by the City of Vancouver Scavenging Dept. There does not seem to be much we can now do about this account even if she has been credited with some articles which do not appear to belong to her. However as previously stated, I cannot find anyone else to whom the goods might have belonged.

ACCOUNTS
RECEIVABLE:

She stated in her declaration that clients of the restaurant owed her money but did not give us the names and addresses of these debtors.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

CHATELS

On September 2, 1947, the following articles were shipped to Mrs. YASUDA by Canadian Pacific Express:

Coronation Edition of Tokyo Newspaper
Book containing pictures
Membership book of Club
Picture in Frame
Restaurant Licenses (2 frames)
Several studio portraits in folders
Several small photographs and snapshots
Small notebook
Rolled photographs of funerals.

Shipping charges amounting to $1.37 were charged to Mrs. YASUDA's account, leaving a balance of $28.31. This amount was remitted to her on September 5, 1947. Acknowledgment of receipt of cheque and articles shipped was received from Mrs. YASUDA on September 22, 1947.

There remains no credit to Mrs. YASUDA's account with this office.

This additional summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Re: 238 1/2 Main Street.

The within mentioned chattels are evidently stored in a padlocked room at this address.

The room is heavily congested with chattels and an inventory impossible without sorting expenses.

The key is in the possession of P. C. Gibbens & Co., and this storage is considered satisfactory.

SUMMARY

File N. 6514

December 2, 1947

Re: Nami YASUDA, Reg. No. 01233

Re: Teubane Cafe, 258 Powell Street, on which Mrs. Nami YASUDA has placed a value of $3,632.52, as a going concern, her file reveals that Mrs. YASUDA declared to the Custodian on April 28, 1942, that moneys were owing to her from Japanese clients of a restaurant operated by her. She did not at any time supply the Custodian with a list of her accounts receivable. Mrs. YASUDA did not, at any time, report this restaurant to the Custodian. The Custodian did not take under control Teubane Cafe, or any other business on behalf of Nami YASUDA.

Re: personal property, stated in claim to have been left at 231 1/2 Main Street, Mrs. Nami YASUDA, on April 28, 1942, reported that the following goods were being left by her at 238 1/2 Main Street:

1 Bureau	1 Heating Stove	3 Tables	China for 60 heads
1 Vanity Dresser	1 Cupboard	2 Double Beds	50 Plates
100 pcs. Glassware	12 pcs. Fancy Flower Pots	25 Cushions
Flower arrangement set and stand.

238-242 Main Street was a building with stores on the ground floor, living rooms above and a shed in the rear. The property was owned by Tsude YAMAMOTO, File 10985, who appointed P.C. Gibbons & Co. her agent. This rental agency subsequently acted as Custodian agent for the property. Mrs. YAMAMOTO rented the upper story to Mr. & Mrs. Henry Knudson. The upper story was subsequently rented by P.C. Gibbons to Miss Marsh and then to Mrs. Rosell. One store in the building was boarded up and, according to P.C. Gibbons & Co. letter of July 3, 1942, would not be occupied. This store & the shed were for storage of chattels. Report of Mr. G.B. Spain, of this office, May 25, 1943, states that the room was padlocked and so congested with chattels that an inventory would be difficult. The key, he stated, was in the possession of P.C. Gibbons & Co. Co., or around August 23, 1944, following the sale of the property, chattels from this building were removed to auction. No list of the goods removed was made. Goods identified as the property of Mrs. Nami YASUDA, removed from these premises were disposed of as follows:

1 Couch abandoned as of no value by W.C. Willard, auctioneer, in presence of William Wills, Custodian representative, August 23, 1944.

Goods sold at auction, August 24/44	-	Total proceeds	-	$437.70

In regard to the chattels for which Mrs. YASUDA is claiming, the file reveals the following:

Claim

2 Beds - $50.00

Disposition file

2 Double Beds declared - No value given by Mrs. Yasuda. One bed & spring sold at auction, Aug. 24/44, for total sum of $10.60. No record of any other bed, identified as belonging to Mrs. Yasuda having been removed from 238-242 Main St. or other premises.

Information on file

2 Heater Stoves - $20.00

One Heating Stove declared by Mrs. YASUDA, no value given by her. No record of more than one heater being found.
One Heater, sold for $7.00 at auction of August 23, 1944.
One Heater Board, sold for 60 cents at auction of Aug. 23, 1944.

3 Crocks - $12.00

No crocks declared by Mrs. Yasuda.
3 Crocks sold at total price of $3.95, auction of Aug. 23, 1944.

1 Barrel - $5.00

No barrel declared by Mrs. Yasuda.
No record of a barrel having been removed from 238-242 Main Street, identified as property of Mrs. Yasuda.

The auction held August 23, 1944, was advertised on August 23, 1944, in the Vancouver Daily Province, the Vancouver Sun and the New-Herald. The auctioneer was W.G. Willard. Auction was attended by Mr. D.A. Smith, Custodian representative.

Total Amount realized from sale at auction of goods identified as property of Mrs. Yasuda was $515.60. Expenses charged were $135.02. Net sum credited to her account from sale of goods at auction was $380.58.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Re: Nami YASUDA, Reg. No. 01233

Re: Tsubame Cafe, 258 Powell Street, Vancouver, on which Mrs. Nami YASUDA has placed a value of $3,632.52, as a going concern, her file reveals that Mrs. YASUDA did not at any time report this business to the Custodian, and that the Custodian did not deal with this business either as a going concern or as a noneoperating business. Mrs. YASUDA did refer in her JP to accounts receivable in connection with a restaurant which she had operated, but she did not at any time supply the Custodian with details of these accounts, and no action was taken by the Custodian in regard to these.

It is probable, however, that among the chattels sold by the Custodian were articles that had formed part of the equipment of a restaurant.

Re: Personal Property, stated in claim to have been left at 231 1/2 Main Street, Mrs. YASUDA, on April 28, 1942, declared the following, which have been disposed of by sale at auction:

1 Double Bed - Not found by Custodian. One couch (not declared) was found, but was discarded as of no value by Mr. Willard, auctioneer, in the presence of Mr. Wills of this office, August 23, 1944. This couch might have been the bed declared.

The balance of the goods found by the Custodian and sold at auction in the name of Mrs. Nami YASUDA were not declared by her, but having been found with her goods were believed to have been her property. On February 29, 1945, Mrs. YASUDA was supplied with auction statement showing the individual items sold at Auctions 507, 508 & 509. She did not inform us that any of the items sold were not her property. At Auctions #58 (December 21, 1945) and #59 (March 29, 1946) some books, records and electrical goods were sold. These were the contents of some boxes which had not been included in the previous auctions.

The amount realized from the sale at auction of goods identified as the property of Mrs. YASUDA was as follows:

SUMMARY

File No. 6514

December 2, 1947

Re: Nami YASUDA #01233

In her JP, Mrs. YASUDA stated that her chattels were left at 238½ Main Street. 238-242 Main Street was a building with stores on the ground floor, living rooms above and a shed in the rear. The property was owned by Tsude YAMAMOTO, File 10985, who appointed P. C. Gibbons & Co. her agent. This rental agency subsequently acted as Custodian agent for this real property. The upper story of the building was rented by P.C.Gibbons to tenants. One store in the building was boarded up, and according to R.C.Gibbons letter of July 3, 1942, would not be occupied. The store and the shed at the rear of the building were used for the storage of chattels. Although the file is not definite on this point, it would seem that 238½ Main Street is the shed at the rear of the building. Mr. G.B.Spain, of this office, on May 25, 1943, reported that the storage room was padlocked and so congested with chattels that an inventory would be difficult. Following the sale of the building the goods stored there were moved to auction. No list of the goods removed was made. The goods which were sold in the name of Mrs. Nami YASUDA were identified as her property at the time of sale. These goods covered a large quantity of goods which she had not declared.

The attached Analysis of Claim deals with each of the items referred to in her Claim.

The five auctions at which Mrs. YASUDA's goods were sold were advertised and conducted as follows:

- Auction #507 - August 24, 1944 - Advertised Vancouver Province, Vancouver Sun and News-Herald, August 23, 1944.
Auctioneer: W. G. Willard.
Custodian Representative Present: D. A. Smith.
- Auction #508 - August 31, 1944 - Advertised Vancouver Province, Vancouver Sun and News-Herald, August 30, 1944.

Dear Madam:

We wish to advise that on May 17, 1949, we shipped to you prepaid, via Canadian Pacific Express, one parcel containing goods which were in our storage.

When said parcel is received by you, please acknowledge receipt of same for our records.

In the event that one or more items of any value do not belong to you, please communicate with this office by mail as the Custodian is closing out his storage warehouse in Vancouver. It may be that you will find some means of identification on examination of the contents and in that case we should be advised in your letter. You might also advise us at the same time whether unidentifiable items are of little or no value and would not justify further shipping charges.

Yours truly,

W.J. Johnston,
Office of the Custodian.

Mrs. Yujiro YASUDA,
Reg. No. 01233,
EAST LILLOET, B.C.

Dear Madam:

This is to advise that an album and some photographs which appear to belong to you are in storage in our warehouse. Would you kindly let us know if you left any photographs in Vancouver with your other possessions at the time of your evacuation. If so, do you wish these shipped to you? You still have $29.68 in your account with this office and shipping charges could be deducted from this and the balance remitted to you. We would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson

Dear Sir:-

Re: Mrs. Nami YASUDA

Thank you for yours of April 23rd. We are quite ready to remit the balance of this evacuee's account to her after payment of the small claim of 90¢ but unless she is in urgent need of the money, will delay until we hear from her about the personal belongings still left with us.

Our warehouse man reports that these consist of the following but says that he fears she will be disappointed when she receives them. With Mrs. Yasuda's consent we will pick out anything that would be of value or use to her in our opinion and destroy the rest though, of course, she can have everything listed below if she wishes. This, however, would add to the expense of shipment.

- 2 Japanese banjos
- Photographs
- Books (paper and hard covers)
- Clothing - mostly moth eaten
- Rags
- 2 Wedding veils
- Few toys
- 2 Lots of records
- 2 Shrines (1 medium size, 1 small.
look like home-made)

As soon as we hear from you or her what she wishes done, we will arrange accordingly and remit the balance of funds. If Mrs. Yasuda is urgently in need of

Dear Madam:-

Mr. Esterbrook of Lillooet called on us the other day to enquire about what happened to your belongings. These have all been sold at auction as per our enclosures from which you will see that the net proceeds of $378.51 have been credited to your account. Additionally, we hold a few boxes and cartons of purely personal effects which will be available for shipment to you when we have reduced the present congestion in our warehouse. The money referred to above can be made available to you but we should first like your comments on a small claim from the City of Vancouver Scavenging Department for April and May 1942 in the amount of 90¢ registered against the Tsubame Cafe, 258 Powell Street which we believe was operated by you. Please advise if this small amount may be paid from your credit balance and what you wish done with the proceeds.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green

THE COMMISSIONER: We will go on with the first case on your list, Mr. Secretary.

MR. McMASTER: My lord, with respect to claim No. 1 on the list, I received a letter yesterday from the claimant advising me that due to illness that she is unable to attend this hearing, and asking me to present her claim. Obviously the claimant doesn't realize that it isn't possible for me to give her evidence, and I would ask in this case that she be given leave to file her evidence by affidavit, subject to the right of my learned friend to request that she be required to appear for cross-examination at some other point if it appears necessary that she should do so.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think I have ruled earlier that I would receive affidavit evidence, but claimants must appreciate that if the proof of their claims is sought to be made by affidavit it can have comparatively little value.

MR. McMASTER: I can see no other way, my lord, of dealing with the problem unless her health recovers.

THE COMMISSIONER: I appreciate the difficulty. Perhaps you will speak to the claim again before we conclude the Lytton sessions in which event it can be stood over to Kamloops or Vernon if you so desire.

MR. McMASTER: Very well, my lord.

THE SECRETARY: This will be case No. 22.

10 MR. McMASTER: My lord, with regard to the first case that was on the list, Nami Yasuda, you may recall I had a letter at the time advising that she was sick and unable to attend, and it was stood over on the list, I believe, to file an affidavit before the end of these hearings. I think your Lordship will appreciate I haven't had an opportunity to get in touch with her, and it would appear that the hearings will terminate sooner than anticipated. I would ask leave to communicate with her and possibly file the affidavit in Kamloops.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Very well. It may be advisable for you to serve a copy of the affidavit on Government counsel, so if he wants to make any reply to the affidavit he will be ready to meet it.

MR. McMASTER: Very well, my lord, I will do that.

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings herein.

CASE NO. 22

Lytton, B.C.,
January 12th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF HANI YASUDA.

Kamloops, B. C.,

February 10th, 1948.

(PROCEEDINGS RESUMED PURSUANT TO ADJOURNMENT).

10 MR. McMASTER: My lord, before we go on with the next case, speaking to the list, I would like to speak to the case of Mrs. Yasuda which originally came on at Lytton, Case No. 22. The claimant had advised me at that time, and I advised your Lordship, that she was in ill health and unable to attend the hearing, and leave was given for her to file her evidence by affidavit, subject to the usual penalties for so doing.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

20 MR. McMASTER: As your Lordship knows, when I returned to Vancouver I was engaged on an appeal, and I didn't get an opportunity to write to her until last week and I urged upon her that if her health looked as if it would permit it, that she endeavour to attend one of the sub-Commissioners' sessions. I would much sooner her evidence be given that way.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think it would be in her interest to do so.

MR. McMASTER: Therefore I would ask to have the matter stand over until perhaps the first sub-Commission meeting here at Kamloops and I might speak to it then.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Very well. That means, Mr. Secretary, that Case No. 22 on the Lytton list will stand to be heard before the sub-Commissioner at Kamloops at such time as he shall direct.
