RE - FUKUMURA, MRS. SATO,

521 E. Cordova Street, Vancouver, B. C., - 07663.

YOUR FILE NO. 6604.

1. The property of this Japanese consists mainly of household furniture and effects. The property was rented from Mrs. Shigejiro Edamura, Your File No. 4934. Actually Mrs. Edamura lived on these premises previously and the Fukumuras only rented part of the house, their rent being $12.50 per month. Mr. Jacobs advises me that there is two months' rent, totalling $25.00, owing by the Fukumuras to Mrs. Edamura.
2. This Japanese was evacuated to Greenwood on the 25th ultimo, and on her notification to me of this, I arranged for my representative to be on hand that day and had a list, which is enclosed herewith, signed by Mrs. Fukumura, of the furniture being left on the premises. This was duly tagged with her name and registration number.
3. In view of the fact that the owner of the property, Mrs. Shigejiro Edamura, had already stored her own furniture and effects in a rear upstairs room and intended to rent the house without the availability of this particular room to the tenant, I had the padlock broken off and found that there was sufficient storage space in the room for Mrs. Fukumura's furniture also. The Edamura furniture, which had not previously been listed, was inventoried and I have today reported thereon to your Office, under separate cover.
4. I therefore had this declarant's furniture moved into this room and placed a new padlock on the door. The key to this room has been handed to your Office, together with the report on the Edamura property.
5. As Mrs. Edamura had arranged for the listing of her property with George F. Jacobs & Co., their appointment as rental agents being approved by your Office, I have turned the keys to the premises themselves over to that Company, the receipt for same being on file with the Edamura case.
6. As this seems to be a satisfactory storage arrangement, without cost, I am closing my file in this case.
