PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 6672

November 12, 1947.

Re: Fukuhiro SUENAGA, Reg. No. 06981

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on April 27, 1942. He was evacuated on May 3, 1942.

HOUSE

Prior to his evacuation, SUENAGA was employed by the Deep Bay Logging Company, Fanny Bay. He stated he occupied a frame house valued at $400.00, which he had built on property belonging to Mrs. C. Tweedie, Fanny Bay. A copy of the lease is attached to the JP Form. The lease reveals that the property would be rented to SUENAGA as long as the Deep Bay Logging Co. was in operation through lot 48, Fanny Bay, and that the rent was to be $10.00 per annum and the rent to be paid in advance. On May 8, 1942, we wrote to Mrs. Tweedie asking her to advise us of the terms upon which SUENAGA occupied the land and if she claimed any interest in the house or other improvements made by him. No reply was received to this letter and no further mention of the house appears on file, with the exception of a note in Matt Brown's report of January 30, 1943, stating that the house was vacant and boarded up.

CHATELS

SUENAGA reported twenty-eight pieces of effects. Matt Brown's report of January 30, 1943 reveals that eight pieces were shipped to him on May 26, 1942, and the remainder were in storage at the Royston Community Hall. (One range, a kitchen table, and 2 heaters, not declared, were left in the house, these being of very little value.) Four pieces of effects were shipped to SUENAGA from the Hall and the remainder of the goods were sold at Cumberland Auction #1 for the net sum of $55.08, with the exception of one box of clothing which was shipped to Vancouver and sold at Vancouver Auction #61 for the net sum of $5.95. The shipments and sales account for all the chattels reported by SUENAGA to have been left in the protected area.

SPECIFIED ARTICLES

Radio

On March 12, 1942, Yoshitaki TAKASHIMA surrendered one 7-tube R.C.A. Victor Console Model Radio to the R.C.M.P., for the owner, Fukuchiro SUEANAGA. This radio was sold at auction for the net sum of $27.03. In answer to his letter of May 11, 1944, Shigeo SUNEAGA, son, was advised that the radio belonging to his father had been sold and the proceeds credited to his father's account. Fukuchiro SUENAGA was notified on July 7, 1944, that his radio had been sold for the net sum of $27.03.

Camera

At the same time the radio was surrendered, TAKASHIMA handed to the R.C.M.P. one box type Brownie Jr. 6-16 camera for SUENAGA. SUENAGA requested shipment of this camera on June 27, 1944, and a letter dated July 12, 1944, from the B. C. Security Commission states that they had arranged shipment of the camera through Mr. Wills.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

SUENAGA reported the following accounts receivable:

Kanichi SUEHIRO, File 3703 - $460.00
Jukichi NAKAMURA, File 3847 - $150.00
Shimanosuke YAMASAKI, File 5727 - $30.00

1. SUYEHIO was advised of the claim filed against him in letter of October 2, 1943, but no acknowledgement was received from him. SUENAGA was advised to deal direct on November 12, 1947.
2. SUENAGA was advised on March 12, 1943, that NAKAMURA had admitted the debt but was unable to pay. SUENAGA was given NAKAMURA's address and advised to deal direct.
3. SUENAGA's claim against YAMASAKI was settled in full on October 3, 1946.

MONIES OWING

On November 2, 1944, the sum of $2.97 was credited to SUENAGA's account. These funds represented refund of payment of one rural mail box.

BONDS

SUENAGA reported one $50.00 Victory Bond and $30.00 in War Savings Certificates. These were not brought under the control of the Custodian.

SHARES

SUENAGA reported $1,000.00 in shares in the Deep Bay Logging Company. As yet, no funds have been credited to his account from the liquidation of that Company. It is noted that SUENAGA's name does not appear on the list of shareholders in the Deep Bay Logging Company received from C. M. Stewart, Solicitor and Director of the Company. (List on Company File #13524.)

BANK ACCOUNT

On March 17, 1944, SUENAGA was sent Form Letter 137, advising him that his name appeared on the list of depositors of the Japan and Canada Trust Savings Company Limited. In answer to our request, he sent his pass book, and his account was credited with the sum of $17.32, this amount being the amount on deposit. The pass book showed a balance of $10.03, the difference of $7.29 being accumulated interest.

LIFE INSURANCE

SUENAGA reported a $1,000.00 policy with the Monarch Life Insurance Company and a $1,000.00 policy with the Sun Life Assurance Company. On September 15, 1943, he wrote to us enclosing three premium notices and asked that we try to obtain settlement from his creditors and transfer the funds to the Companies to cover the premiums due. No funds were obtained from his creditors to pay the premiums.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Dear Sir:

re: Accounts Receivable

In your J.P. form of information filed in this office you declared the following as owing you money:

- | | |
|----------------------|----------|
| 1. K. Suehero | $460.00 |
| 2. J. NAKAMURA | 150.00 |
| 3. S. YAMASAKI | 30.00. |

In your letter of the 15th Sept. just at hand you refer to No. 1 as "K. Suyehiro of Diamond City, Alberta", which is different from the name originally listed as above. We are notifying Kanichi SUYEHIRO regarding this claim.

*File
3703*

No. 2 - J. NAKAMURA $150.00, as of Magrath, Alberta. This one was reported to you on the 12th of March last as having admitted the claim, but was unable to pay. We gave you his address at that time and asked that you contact him direct. In the meantime we are taking no further action.

No. 3 - S. YAMASAKI $30.00. This you do not mention in your letter. Has it been settled? Please advise.

An early reply is requested.

May I call your attention to the mistake I made in spelling the name of Mr. K. Suehiro. when filing my claim. The correct spelling is K. SUYEHIRO 73703

As I do not know his address, I have not been able to settle the account with Mr. Yamasaki. Should you have his address ^{filed} please notify him and reach a settlement if possible.

If you should succeed in collecting any of the accounts receivable, please forward them to the Assurance companies as premiums now due.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of May 11th, we wish to advise that, while our records do not indicate that you are the owner of a radio or camera, there is a camera and a radio among the assets of Fukuichiro SUENAGA, your father. These are, no doubt, the articles about which you have asked.

The radio has been sold at auction, and the proceeds of the sale credited to the account of Fukuichiro SUENAGA.

The camera is being held to enable the owner to make arrangements for shipment. We suggest that you or your father (whichever is the owner) get in touch with the British Columbia Security Commission. The Commission handles these shipments. You should send the receipt received from the police, and make arrangements to pay the small packing and shipping charge, when you make the request for shipment.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.

Some time ago you filed a claim of $150.00 against the above Japanese. As Mr. Nakamura has insufficient funds at this office with which to make settlement of his debts in full, a pro rata distribution of 66.7% is being made to his creditors.
