FOR VALUABLE CONSIDERATION the undersigned hereby absolutely and not by way of charge grants, assigns and sets over unto Traders Finance Corporation Limited the price, interest and all moneys due or to become due by the conditional purchaser under the provisions of the within conditional sale contract and the promissory note therein referred to together with all legal and other remedies available for the recovery and enforcement of payment of the same together with the power to give a discharge therefor without the concurrence of the undersigned. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for the purpose of enabling Traders Finance Corporation Limited to enforce payment of the said purchase price, interest and all moneys due or to become due as aforesaid, the undersigned grants, assigns and sets over unto Traders Finance Corporation Limited the benefit of all of the terms, covenants, agreements and provisions contained in the within conditional sale contract with full power and authority to take any action thereunder and to enforce the same in the name of the undersigned or in the name of Traders Finance Corporation Limited. For the purposes aforesaid and not by way of sale the undersigned grants, assigns and sets over unto Traders Finance Corporation Limited the property in the goods described in the within conditional sale contract subject however to all of the terms, covenants, agreements and provisions thereof.

The undersigned warrants that all the goods described in the within conditional sale contract are free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances whatsoever other than as created by the within contract. The undersigned warrants that the goods described in the within contract are new unless otherwise specified; that the cash payment specified in the within contract was actually received by undersigned in cash; that no part of the said cash payment was loaned to the Purchaser by undersigned. The undersigned unconditionally guarantees prompt payment of the principal and interest secured by the within contract and the said promissory note according to the tenor thereof and full performance of all the covenants and agreements of the Purchaser named in the within contract and in the event of repossession and resale the undersigned agrees that undersigned shall be jointly and severally liable with the Purchaser for any deficiency between the net amount actually received upon such resale and the amount secured by the said promissory note and contract. The undersigned agrees that all guarantees are continuing guarantees and that Traders Finance Corporation Limited may grant extensions of time for payment of the moneys secured by the said contract and note and may give and accept any renewals thereof and may make any changes with respect to times for payment and the amount of the payments therein provided for without notice to the undersigned and without discharging or affecting the liability of the undersigned. The undersigned certifies that a true copy of the within contract was duly registered in the proper registration office.

MEMORANDUM FOR FILE.

Re: Mr. Boden.

I wrote to Mr. Boden in connection with his interest in car No. 137.

At 10:30 Saturday Morning, May 16, 1942, Mr. Boden telephoned to say that this car was transferred to him by the Japanese in order to complete what Mr. Boden termed 'a deal' at that time. The deal fell through, and with it, all Boden's interest, therefore the car was then sent to Hastings Park.

Upon my asking Mr. Boden if he had a definite interest in this vehicle, he said "No I have no interest".

Dear Sir & Madam:-

On July 13th we wrote to Mrs. Yukiharu Tadokoro about her effects left behind in Vancouver and on July 20th to Mr. Yukiharu Tadokoro. We had an answer from Mrs. Yukiharu Tadokoro on August 4th giving us the following information.

(1) Things left at 6237 West Boulevard: Mrs. Magee tells us that nothing was left here except three bed springs which as you did not declare them to us and as they were worthless, have been disposed of by Mrs. Magee. She tells us that she tried to sell these bed springs for you but was unable to do so, the second-hand man eventually agreeing to take them away in the hope that later he might be able to recover cartage. With regard to the other things said to be left at 6237 West Boulevard, Mrs. Magee reports that Mr. Yukiharu Tadokoro, when calling at her house at 6608 Laburnum Street and leaving some things with her, had a truck piled with the rest of the furniture which he asked her to store. She said she could not do so and believes that he subsequently removed this to Steveston.

(2) Things left with Mr. C. A. Boden, 2194 W. 49th Avenue being gas range, automobile chains and jack: These are complete and we are getting Mr. Boden's acknowledgement.

(3) Things left with Mrs. C. W. Magee being a bureau, trunk and mirror: These are in order and we will likewise get Mrs. Magee's confirmation.

(4) Your sewing machine said to be left with Mrs. Jeans being the daughter of Mr. Adams left at 2255 West 49th Avenue: There is no such address so please give us more information in order that we may look after this piece of property.

Mrs. Yukiharu Tadokoro,
Registration Number 01872,
c/o G. E. Wilde,
Welling, Alta.

Dear Madam:

In your registration form of April 30 you declared a number of articles of furniture left at 6237 W Boulevard, Vancouver. We now understand from Mrs. Magee, your landlady, that a bureau together with a trunk and mirror have been stored with her for the duration; she says your electric sewing machine has been stored with some other white party whose name she does not know. The rest of your furniture cannot be traced.

For your own protection kindly give us the following information:

1. Have you made satisfactory arrangements for the disposal of your belongings other than those set out above?
2. Do you wish us to secure acknowledgment from the party with whom you have left the sewing machine? If so, please send us the name and address.

Please be sure to write and let us have the above information.

Yours truly,

HFG:MA

RECEIVED

JUL 9 1942

Attention Mr. G. D. Milson:

Dear Sirs:

Re- TADOKORO, Ayako (Mrs. Yukiharu),
6237 W. Boulevard,
Vancouver, B. C.,
Registration No. 01872.

On receipt of your letter of the 7th inst. this morning, in connection with the evacuation of the above Japanese, I contacted Mrs. Magee, the Landlady referred to.

When making my original investigation of this situation, I interviewed this Mrs. Magee after investigating and discussing the situation with Mrs. Tadokoro. In view of the apparent impossibility of explaining the Custodian's situation to Mr. and Mrs. Tadokoro, who do not understand English very well, I thought it advisable to see Mrs. Magee who appeared to be very willing to co-operate in any way possible. She promised to advise me as soon as she knew that these people had definite instructions to leave, in order that they could be contacted and any storage or removal arrangements could be checked and recorded. Just why she did not do this, and instead advised you direct after their evacuation, I do not know. However, I have obtained the following information from her, including the present address of the Tadokoros, which is "c/o G. E. Wilde, Welling, Alberta".

Mrs. Magee advises that one article listed in the Declaration, the bureau, together with a trunk and mirror which were not declared, have been stored at her house for the duration of the war. The electric sewing machine has been stored with some other white party whose name she does not know.

Mrs. Magee states that Tadokoro, when calling at her house and depositing the bureau, etc., had a truck piled with the rest of the furniture and urged her to store the whole lot, which she said she was unable to do. From what she says he apparently then left for Steveston with the rest of this furniture, etc., with a view to storing it with somebody in that neighbourhood.

File No. 7042.

July 8, 1942.

Under the circumstances, I suggest that you write to Tadokoro at the address given above, asking him for details as to where and with whom the different articles are stored.

I wish to apologize for not keeping aware of this situation, but was depending entirely on Mrs. Magee's promise to keep me posted on any developments, which she appeared only too willing to do.

If there is anything further I can do for your Office in this connection kindly advise me.

Yours very truly,

H. D. CAMPBELL.

P.S. Mrs. Magee advises me that she endeavoured to sell the three broken springs mentioned in your letter, but that the Second-hand man refused to make any offer for them and that eventually she persuaded him to take them away in the hope that he might be able to recover cartage by realizing something thereon.

RE: TADOKORO, AYAKO (MRS. YUKIHARU),

6237 West Boulevard, Vancouver, B. C. - 01872.

1. This Declarant is carrying on a Dressmaking Business in the above premises as stated in the Declaration.
2. The premises consist of the Shop in front and two living-rooms behind.
3. The property is rented at $15.00 a month from Mrs. G. W. Magee at 6608 Laburnum Street.
4. As Mrs. Tadokoro has not made any plans, as yet, with regard to her departure from the protected area I have not checked the inventory in full, but from casual observation it appears to be generally correct.
5. I have instructed Mrs. Tadokoro to keep me informed of her plans as they develop, and Mrs. Magee, the owner of the building, has volunteered to keep me posted and to obtain the keys of the premises when Mrs. Tadokoro leaves and hand them over to me.
6. I will therefore report to you subsequently as the situation surrounding Mrs. Tadokoro's evacuation is clarified.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 585, Mrs. Ayako Tadokoro.

(MRS.) AYAKO TADOKORO, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCKVALE:

Q Mrs. Tadokoro, what business were you in in Vancouver?

A: Dress

making and cleaning, dry cleaning.

Q And was that your own business?

10 A Yes.

Q How long had you been engaged in that business before you were evacuated?

A Something over 2 years.

Q Now with respect to that business, I want to show you this form (indicating); if you will look at it, please.

A: Yes.

Q Have you read that form over, or had it read over to you?

A: Yes,

my husband read it over to me.

20 Q In fact, you had it last night, didn't you?

A Yes.

Q Well are the particulars given in that form true and correct?

A: Yes.

Q Well, will you sign it, please?

A (Witness complies).

MR. HUCKVALE: I tender that as Exhibit 1, your Honour.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Now those chattels that you mention in that form were all practically brand new, were they not?

30

A: There were some

3

(Mrs.) A. Tadokoro,
In Chief.

older things amongst them.

Q Now you also had a motorcar, did you not, Mrs. Tadokoro?

A: Yes.

Q And, I take it, that motorcar was turned in by you to Hastings Park, was it?

A Yes.

Q Now with respect to that motor vehicle, will you take a look at that form, please?

A Yes.

10 Q You have read that form over or had it read over to you?

A: Yes.

Q Well are the particulars that you have given in that form true?

A: Yes.

Q Will you sign it, please?

A (Witness complies).

MR. HUCKVALE: Your Honour, I would like to point out one small error, and I don't think it matters a great deal, but you will notice when the form comes to you that the purchase price of the car was given as $700.00. Actually, and I am going to submit this contract in a minute, and that shows that the price was $696.50.

20

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I tender this form of personal chattels, sir,

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Do you recognise that document (indicating)? Well, is that the agreement under which you bought this motor vehicle?

30 A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I will tender that, sir.

(AGREEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q Now, did you do any work on that car or put any equipment on it after you bought it?

A I don't know very well. My husband was the one who was driving it and using it all the time.

Q Well the car was used in your business, wasn't it?

A Yes.

9 Q It was really part of the assets of your dry
10 cleaning and dressmaking establishment, wasn't it?

A Yes, the licence was taken in both our names and it was used in connection with it. The licence was taken out in my name but he was helping me to run the business and the car was being used for the business.

MR. HUCKVALE: Will my friend at this time file the analysis of personal property in this case on the Crown's behalf?

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

20 MR. HUCKVALE: Q: There is just one thing I would like to clear up with you, Mrs. Tadokoro. Is it 50 yards of linoleum that you are claiming for?

A Yes, about fifty yards.

Q Was that linoleum in the business premises?

A This was in the business and in the living quarters.

Q9 And was it rolled up or laid down?

A It was taken up and rolled up at the time that we left.

Q And left in the business premises, was it?

30 A It was left in a house on Selkirk Street as it is written on the document.

9

Cross-Exam.

Q Yes. All right. Will you answer my friend,
please.

MR. REED: I am submitting, your Honour, that the goods that were sold by the Custodian, including the automobile, sold for their fair market value.

10 I am submitting that part of the chattels declared by the claimant were turned over by the claimant to persons other than the Custodian, and the Custodian is not responsible for their loss.
And I am submitting that any property that the Custodian might be held responsible for, and claimed by the claimant, I say the claim is exorbitant. I also submit, your Honour, that the business was not taken over by the Custodian as a going concern for which the claimant is claiming the sum of $400,000.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. REED:

20 Q When you were evacuated, where did you leave your property?

A: Some of it was left in the house on Selkirk Street and some was left --

Q -- what number would that house be on Selkirk Street?

A: 8635 Selkirk
Street. And some was left with some white people, and some was left also at the place of business,
the business premises.

Q What was the address of the business premises?

30 MR. HUCKVALER: You have got that there.

A 6237 West Boulevard.

MR. REED Q: When you completed your J.P. form, you stated that you were leaving your chattels at 6237 West Boulevard, did you not?

A Yes.

Q Show that to her, if she wishes to see it. (Document to witness). You say "yes", do you?

A Yes, at that time.

Q In your J.P. form, you did not mention 8635
10 Selkirk Street, did you?

A No.

Q And then you left some property with Mrs. Magee, did you not?

A: Yes,

some.

Q And that was at 6237 Laburnum Street. No, I am sorry, at 6608 Laburnum Street?

A Yes, and she is still there.

Q Then you left some other goods with Mr. C.A. Boden?

A Yes.

20 Q You left them with him for sale?

A No.

Q Did you not leave a gas range, an automobile chair, and an automobile jack with Mr. Boden for sale?

MR. HUCKVALER We are not claiming any of these goods. I don't know what this has got to do with it.

A No, it was our understanding that he would just take care of them for us.

MR. REED Q Oh, I see. Did you leave a Singer
30 sewing machine with Mrs. Jeans at 2255 West 49th?

A Yes, I received that one here later.

Q And a radio, or is that claimed?

MR. HUCKVALE: None of these things that you have mentioned are claimed.

MR. RICE: The Singer sewing machine has been claimed. You have it valued on your claim, if that means anything.

MR. HUCKVALE: Read the claim.

MR. RICE: In your personal property form you have a 10 sewing machine valued at $140.00.

A I had two sewing machines.

Q And one you left with Mrs. Jeans?

MR. HUCKVALE: What did she say?

A I had two machines. I had two machines. One worth $180.00, and one $140.00, and the one I brought with me was the $140.00 machine.

MR. RICE: Q And the other one you left with Mrs. Jeans?

A: The other machine was left with a Mrs. Jeans and I received that 20 about four years ago.

Q And the other machine was left with Mrs. Magee, along with a lot of other articles?

A No, the two machines I received.

Q The two machines you received?

A Yes.

Q Oh, I see. And the claim for a sewing machine then here is wrong, is that it?

A No, there must be a mistake. I didn't intend to claim for a sewing machine. I have them both.

D Q You have them both? A: Yes.

(Mrs.) A. Tadokoro,
Cross-Exan.
Re-Direct Exan.

Q All right.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCKVALE:

Q Just one question. Mrs. Magee was the owner of the premises in which you conducted this business, am I right?

A Yes.

Q Now I only want to clear up item No. 2 in the analysis of personal property. That reads, 10 "50 yards Lann." Now, obviously that should have been linoleum. I think I straightened that out with the witness before, sir, and you will observe that it has been placed under the column "no record at my time". Well, if the Custodian had understood it to be linoleum, he most certainly had a record of it because it was declared as shown in the left-hand column of the personal property analysis.

Q That is all, thank you, Mrs. Tadokoro.
