Report of

ADACHI, Kunajiro - Reg. No. 14298.

REAL ESTATE & PERSONAL PROPERTY.

LOCATION: Port Moody, B.C. (Waterfront street)

NATURE OF PROPERTY: Dwelling.

DESCRIPTION OF LAND: The land on which this dwelling is situated is owned by the C.P.R. to whom Mr. Adachi pays $5.00 per year rent and also $1.00 per year to the City of Port Moody. Both these rents are paid up to date.

BUILDINGS: A seven room house built on piles on the waterfront.

INVENTORY: Attached to JP form. A further inventory of what will be left in the house will be given to Mr. Harrison, Manager of the Royal Bank, Port Moody, when they leave.

INSURANCE: None.

LIABILITIES: None.

REMARKS: Mr. & Mrs. Adachi declare that they do not want to rent this house and also that they wish to leave their furniture locked up in the house. We do not think this is a good idea on account of the close proximity to the railway tracks where there would be a great danger of transients breaking in. We, therefore, intend to move these things into storage here at New Westminster after these people move away. They have agreed to leave the key with Mr. Harrison of the Royal Bank and he will notify us immediately they have departed.

REAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File 7251

Re: Kunajiro ADACHI - Reg. 14298 November 14/46.

Kunajiro ADACHI declared that he owned a 5 room house located on C.P.R. land at Port Moody. Coulthard, Sutherland, agents for the Custodian reported on May 20th, 1942, that the house was built on piles on the waterfront, and that ADACHI paid $5.00 per year rental to C.P.R. and $1.00 per year to City of Port Moody.

Chattel

The C.P.R. on May 20th, 1942, advised the Custodian that they had no agreement with ADACHI nor could they find any record of any rental being paid.

The C.P.R. subsequently advised the Custodian that the house referred to and other Japanese houses on the waterfront constituted a nuisance and a bad fire hazzard. They were advised therefore that the Custodian had no objection to these houses being demolished without any expense to this office.

CHATTEL SUMMARY

File 7251

Re: Kunajiro ADACHI - Reg. 14298

November 14/46.

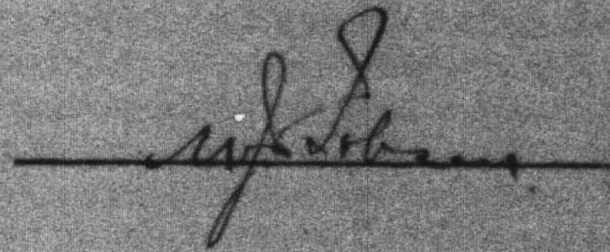

Kunajiro ADACHI declared his household effects which he had left in a dwelling on the waterfront in Port Moody. Owing to the possibility of vandalism, the effects were removed by the Custodian agents, Coulthard & Sutherland, to Custodian storage, Buddhist Temple, New Westminster. An inventory of these effects was submitted to ADACHI and confirmed by him. This is on file.

These effects were subsequently taken to New Westminster auctions of November 5th and 17th, December 10th, 1943 and Surrey auction September 27th, 1944, and sold, realizing the net sum of $63.52 as per sales sheets on file. This was credited to his account.

The file reveals that a stove and linoleum were also removed from Port Moody to Custodian Storage at 815 Agnes Street, New Westminster, but these were missing when this storage place was liquidated.

A rowboat referred to by Coulthard & Sutherland on July 17th, 1943 was not found.

Dear Sirs:-

re ADACHI, Kunaiiro

We have before us your report of the 20th of May in connection with the above. We note that Mr. and Mrs. Adachi state that they do not wish to rent their house. As you are aware, this house is built on land leased from the C.P.R. Is it the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Adachi to provide funds to keep the lease in effect?

We presume there are no Municipal taxes, or other charges, so that if it is their wish and they are prepared to keep the lease in effect (or run the risk of losing their title to the building) we will offer no objection to their wishes.

We suggest, however, that it would be desirable to board up the house and placard it with our notice regarding trespassers. If these people are still here, and you can get their consent to the movement of their household goods, it would be desirable, but failing this we agree that your judgment as to the best method of safeguarding these effects should be followed.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Adachi:-

Although we believe it was your wish to leave your furniture locked up in your house at Port Moody, our Agent at New Westminster felt that there was a risk of the house being broken into by burglars.

We have therefore had your chattels removed to storage at the Buddhist Temple, New Westminster, and enclose a list in duplicate.

Please check the list and if it is correct, will you kindly sign one copy and return it to us. The other copy may be kept for your record.

We thank you for your co-operation.

MEMORANDUM

February 19, 1943.

Files Nos. 3379, 11462 & 7251

To: Mr. Alexander

From: H. F. Green

Would you please run through the correspondence on File No. 3379 herewith, from which I think it appears that the C. P. R. have a good case for the destruction of the buildings. In view of the penultimate paragraph of their letter of February 9th, however, I visited Port Moody on Tuesday and have the following to report:

There are altogether four buildings, apart from sundry shacks and outhouses obviously pertaining to them.

The first belongs to Kunajiro ADACHI (our File No. 7251) and is that referred to in the C. P. R. letter of February 9th as being locked. Everything had been moved from here by Messrs. Coulthard & Sutherland, as per list on File No. 7251, but on further investigation we noticed a stove and a piece of linoleum, which we thought would be worth moving and Mr. Coulthard is arranging this.

The second house, being the one "well nailed up", contains nothing and is some sort of Community House or school. I cannot trace this on our files.

The third house is that belonging to Sadaki SHIMODA and has, like all the others, been broken into. From the file, you will see that everything of value has already been moved to storage.

Finally, there is a floathouse which, from an envelope found therein, appears to belong to Tsuneki HIRANO (our File No. 11462). This also had been ransacked, but the Japanese had not declared any chattels.

Files Nos. 3379, 11462 & 7251

24th February, 1943.

MEMO - MR. GREEN

Thanks for your memo dated February 19th. The three files are attached.

This matter was discussed at the Board meeting on February 23rd. If, as I presume, all chattels have been removed we should advise the C.P.R. that we have no objection to their arranging themselves for the removal of the three houses on their property, particularly so because the City Clerk at Port Moody declares that they constitute a bad fire hazard and has requested that said houses be removed.

When writing to the C.P.R. on each individual file please tell the C.P.R. that as far as the Custodian's Office is concerned they are free to demolish relative houses in any manner they may see fit, but remind them also that we look to them for a refund covering adjustment of rentals paid in advance from January 1st to May 31st, 1943, as stated in their letter of October 14th, 1942.

May I see your letters on these three files before they are mailed.

Re: ADACHI, Kunajiro

Further to our letter of today's date in answer to yours of February 9th and dealing with Sadaki Shimoda, this office will similarly raise no objection to the demolition of the house belonging to the above, being the next but one to Shimoda's. We would, however, mention that we have asked Mr. Coulthard of Messrs. Coulthard and Sutherland at New Westminster, to remove from this house one or two items of furniture left behind in error when the contents were previously removed to storage. Before actually proceeding with the demolition, would you kindly confirm with him that these items have been removed?

Dear Sirs:

Re: Sadaki SHIMODA

Thank you very much for your letter of March 11th and for the information contained therein. We notice that Mr. Shimoda originally purchased four buildings from your company and that one was subsequently destroyed. You have no information on what disposition he made of the two buildings he himself did not occupy.

We note that you will be destroying the buildings in due course and will advise us of the cost of this. While we shall be interested in this item, we quite understand from the information at our disposal as to the terms of your lease that you are not laying a claim against the Japanese for this work.

Referring to your letter of July 15th.
re the above. The writer remembers seeing an old flat bottom boat close to this man's house. It was apparently being used by the local children and what eventually happened to it we do not know, however, it was certainly not worth money for storage, probably

Dear Sir:

Re: Chattels.

Our records show that Sadaki SHIMODA, Ukichi OGURA and yourself were living in premises near to one another and the following effects taken off the various premises are unidentified. Will you kindly advise this office whether any of the items appear to be your property.

Vase
Tea set
Plates, pots and pens
3 Oil stoves
Square
Dishes and glass
2 Lacquer boxes
2 " trays
3 pcs. Lacquer-ware
Grocery and tray.

As the Custodian desires to remit the balance of funds at your credit, we shall appreciate an immediate reply to this letter.

Yours truly,

W.J. Iverson
Protection Department.
