Mr. Muneharu Heike,
Reg. No. 09326,
479 Plains Road,
Toronto 6, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your detailed reply to our letter of June 30th.

Enclosed is Custodian cheque for the sum of $101.46, which is the balance standing to your credit after payment of your acknowledged indebtedness. The payments made were as follows:

Dr. J. A. Smith	$13.00
M. Ebisuzaki & Co.	18.00
B. C. Telephone Co.	4.80
	$35.80

The receipts acknowledging these payments will be placed on your file in this office. This letter is your proof that the payments have been made.

We have already supplied details of the sales of your truck and radio. In regard to the household and personal effects which were found at 3203 West 10th Avenue, the items sold and the sale prices were as follows:

Sold December 14, 1944 at auction

Vases	$ 1.00
Glassware	3.10
Crockery	5.95

Net Credit	19.66

These two sales make up the total of $62.44 referred to in our letter of June 30th.

Mr. Muneharu Heike - Page 2

August 9, 1949

The Eastman Kodak Premoette Camera, which is in storage here, will be shipped to you. You will be notified when shipment is made.

The Jiffy Kodak Vest Pocket Camera, which you surrendered, is missing and is believed to have been stolen during a break-in at the storage warehouse.

We note your reference to gardener's supplies, plants, etc. left at 2345 West 8th. These were not reported by you previously and were not found by the Custodian.

You are, no doubt, aware that an opportunity was given by the Dominion Government to persons of Japanese origin to file claim for losses suffered in connection with property under the control of the Custodian. The deadline for the filing of such claims was January, 1948. The Commissioner, who has been dealing with the claims filed, has ruled that any money held by the Custodian from the sale of property may be received by the former owner without prejudice to any claim the former owner may have against the Dominion Government.

Although you did not request remittance, we are sending you herewith all the funds remaining in your account with the Custodian. Kindly acknowledge receipt of the enclosed cheque.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.

Mr. Muneharu HIKI,
 Reg. No. 09326,
 479 Plans Road,
 Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

On May 4, 1942, you reported to the Custodian ownership of the following property.

One 1930 International truck in custody. This truck as you were informed on January 14, 1943, was sold for $80.00, from which was deducted the sum of $27.23 to cover administrative expenses, leaving a balance of $52.77 to the credit of your account.

One Westinghouse table model radio, Ser. #122062. This radio was sold at auction for $26.00. Expenses in connection with this radio were $3.95, leaving $22.05 to the credit of your account.

In addition to the above, the Custodian found some household and personal effects, which we believe were your property. These goods have been sold and the net sum realized from the sale amounts to $62.44. This sum has been held for some proof of your ownership. If you left some goods, other than those you reported to the Custodian, in Vancouver, would you please let us know where these were left or give us the name of the person in whose house these articles were left, so that we will know whether or not the items which have been sold were your property.

The total amount of credit from the above sales (after deduction of expenses) is $137.26.

From funds credited to your account your acknowledged indebtedness of $13.00 to Dr. J. A. Smith was paid.

In addition to the account of Dr. Smith, the following companies have reported that you are indebted as follows:

M. Ebisusaki Company	-----	$18.00
B. C. Telephone Company	-----	4.80

Would you please let us know if it is correct that you do owe these two companies as has been reported? If we do not hear from you by June 30, 1949, we shall assume that you wish the Custodian to pay to M. Ebisusaki Co. and to the B. C. Telephone Company the monies they have reported are due from you.

If you are not indebted to these two companies please let us know as soon as possible.

7525

June 22, 1949

Mr. Muneharu Heike

If we do not hear from you by June 30, 1949, as we have stated, we will assume that you are indebted to M. Ebisuzaki Company in the amount of $18.00 and to the B. C. Telephone Company in the amount of $4.80, and that you wish the Custodian to pay these debts from your funds.

Payment of these accounts from the $61.82 remaining in your account would leave the sum of $39.02, which would be sent to you.

In addition to this there is the sum of $62.44 from the sale of the household effects which we believe belonged to you. If you did leave some household goods in Vancouver and will write and tell us where these were left, it will probably enable us to send you this $62.44.

We have gone to considerable trouble to get your present address. It is to your advantage to reply to our letter. Kindly let us have a reply to this letter.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.

P.S. In storage at Vancouver there is an Eastman Kodak Pramoette Camera, which we believe is your property. If you wish to have this camera shipped, let us know when you write.

Mr. & Mrs. Tomesuke TATEISHI,
Reg. Nos. 06502 & 05370,
Lillooet, B. C.

Dear Sir & Madam:

On April 12, 1946, we wrote to Mr. Tateishi informing him of the articles which had been found at 3203 West 10th identified with the name of Mr. Shigeru Tateishi. At that time we informed both Mr. Tomesuke Tateishi and Mr. Shigeru Tateishi that a bicycle found at 3203 West 10th without any identification had been sold and the proceeds of the sale credited to Mrs. Iye Tateishi. As we have received no word from the persons to whom we wrote, we have assumed that Mr. Shigeru Tateishi has no objection to the proceeds from the sale of this bicycle being sent to Mrs. Iye Tateishi.

In letter of December 20, 1945, Mr. Tateishi inquired about goods of Mr. Heike, which had been stored at 3203 West 10th. The following goods found at 3203 West 10th were identified as the property of Mr. Muneharu Heike:

Dresser	Vases	Spray Gun	Parking Meter
Chest of Drawers	Glassware	Plague	7 Pruners
Cabinet	Crockery	3 Pictures
Ice Box	Lacquervare	Lawnmower (in crate)
Slumber King spring	Toys and sundries	Lawnmower

The proceeds from the sale of these items have been credited to the account of Mr. Muneharu Heike, although Mr. Heike stated at the time of his declaration to the Custodian that he owned no goods of this nature. As you would be likely to have some knowledge of what goods belonging to Mr. Heike were stored at 3203 West 10th, we are giving you this information. If, to your knowledge, the goods listed are not the property of Mr. Muneharu Heike, would you kindly let us know. We will hold the funds from the sale of these goods until September 12, 1947, to give you time to write us, and if, by that time, no reply has been received, the funds will be sent to Mr. Muneharu Heike. A copy of this letter is being sent to Mr. Heike.

Mr. Tateishi inquired about a steam pressing machine belonging to a Mr. Yamamoto, but he did not tell us who Mr. Yamamoto was. The only steam press found at 3203 West 10th was that identified as the property of Mrs. Kiyoko Okano, who had declared ownership of this equipment.

All saleable goods found at 3203 West 10th have been sold. Any goods found at that address and not identified with the name of some other person have been considered to be the property of Mrs. Iye Tateishi. We will be sending to Mrs. Tateishi this week a cheque covering all the funds standing to her credit with this office.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,

Dear Sir:

Re: Mr. Muneharu HEIKE

In reply to your letter of April 20th, we wish to advise that in accord with the Custodian's policy, the truck in question was sold along with all other motor vehicles.

We would like to point out that, while this truck was appraised at $25.00, the proceeds from the sale netted $52.77, (which was credited to Mr. Heike's account) after deducting storage and insurance charges.

Re: Your File No. 7525.

I have been instructed by Mr. Muneharu Heike, formerly of the City of Vancouver, but now of Tashme, British Columbia, to protest to you most emphatically in regard to the disposal by you of his International Truck, Serial No. C X 41900, Engine No. 713644, without his consent.

Mr. Heike informs me that when this truck was turned in in compliance to an order of the Authorities, he was lead to believe it was for no other purpose but for safe-keeping.

He says that this truck was in the past essential to earning a livelihood for himself and his family and it would have been more so in the future had it not been sold by you, and he further says, that it will be utterly impossible to maintain himself, his wife and eight children, without a truck, simply working as a day labourer.

SPECIFIED ARTICLES SUMMARY

File No. 7525

August 12, 1947

Re: Muneharu HEIKE, Reg.No.09326

Motor Vehicle

Muneharu HEIKE declared ownership of a 1930 International Truck, Serial No. CX41900, Licence No. G213, in custody. This vehicle had been surrendered to the RCMP on March 10, 1942, and was listed by the RCMP as T-96. On September 9, 1942, this truck was sold by the Custodian for the sum of $80.00 to J. Skene. The truck had been appraised by McDermott Motors at $25.00. Expenses in connection with this truck amounted to $27.23, leaving a balance of $52.77, which was credited to the account of Muneharu HEIKE. HEIKE was informed of the sale of his truck on January 14, 1943. On April 20, 1943, Mr. Albert H. Young, Barrister & Solicitor, acting for HEIKE wrote this office protesting the sale of this truck.

Radio

This man declared ownership of a Westinghouse table model radio, Serial No. 122062, in custody. This radio had been surrendered to the RCMP on March 9, 1942. On January 27, 1944, the radio was turned over to the Custodian, and on January 27, 1944, the radio was sold for the total sum of $26.00. Expenses in connection with the handling of this radio amounted to $3.95, leaving a balance of $22.05, which was credited to the account of Muneharu HEIKE.

Cameras

Although not declared to the Custodian by HEIKE, the RCMP reported that two cameras were surrendered by Muneharu HEIKE on March 9, 1942. These cameras were handed to the Custodian on January 27, 1944, and were placed in Custodian warehouse at 992 Powell Street.

On March 15, 1946, it was discovered that the Jiffy Kodak Vest Pocket camera (valued for insurance purposes at $3.50) was missing. It is believed to have been stolen during a break-in at the warehouse. ~~_____~~

The other camera, an Eastman Kodak Premoette, Serial No. 4712 #1A, is now in the Custodian's office, having been brought from the warehouse on July 9, 1947. This camera was considered to have no value when appraised for insurance purposes.

Re: Chattels credited to Muneharu HEIKE, Reg.No.09326

The goods sold at Vancouver auctions of December 7 and 14, 1944, were removed from 3203 West 10th, and were identified at the time of removal and sale as being the property of Muneharu HEIKE. Apparently these goods carried the name of this man.

The premises at 3203 West 10th were owned by Tomesuke TATEISHI, File 9866, who on December 20, 1945, wrote asking about the furniture of his friend Mr. HEIKE, which had been stored in the basement of 3203 West 10th.

On February 25, 1946, we received from Tomesuke TATEISHI a letter which read in part as follows:

"Mr. HEIKE has been in boxed and named on the box when on the sale must be separated. Bed spring belong to HEIKE."

We judged that one of the bedsprings shown on auction sheets sent to Mr. TATEISHI must be the property of Mr. HEIKE and therefore we transferred from the account of Mrs. TATEISHI the proceeds of the sale of a Slumber King spring.
