Re: Shichiro SAITO

Please refer to your written foot-note to my memorandum of September 18th. I wrote to Mr. Brager that we would not be interested in less than $80.00. He has taken this rather literally and given us a written offer of $80.00 as per his letter of September 25th. I have not put this up to you previously as there was some question as to whether we were free to sell these premises in view of the rental arrangement made with the previous tenant. This has now been settled and I have received an $80.00 deposit from Mr. Brager. I recommend that this be accepted in line with your foot-note referred to above.

If you will send us your cheque for $80.00 being the sum offered by you in your letter of September 25th, we will recommend acceptance of this sum as conveying title to you of these premises.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of October 29th. We have seen Mr. Teigen but unfortunately this was on Saturday morning when the writer was very busy and when we had not in any case received your letter under reply.

We appreciate your anxiety to get the deal closed and will do what we can to help you. So long as the good bed and spring are returned we will not for the time being press the matter of the remaining articles which we remember to have been of small value. We must, however, come to some understanding with Mr. Teigen and yourself about the question of rent, seeing that the premises are definitely rented to him up to the end of the year.

We will try and have Mr. Carlson come down early next week by which time we hope he will be back from the Gulf Islands and will have him call on you and Mr. Teigen and come to some arrangements. We believe it would be reasonable for Mr. Teigen to recover at least some of the $20.00 rental for the year paid to this office.

As soon, therefore, as Mr. Carlson has seen you and arranged matters to your mutual satisfaction we will do our best to have your offer accepted.

Re: Shichiro SAITO

Thank you for your letter of September 25th enclosing an offer for this float house and giving us some particulars of the chattels.

We cannot recommend acceptance of your offer until the matter of your chattels is cleared up. Messrs. Carlsen and Anderson will be away in the Gulf Islands for sometime and we see no prospect of having anyone come down and take this matter up. We suggest, therefore, in your own interests you take steps to secure the return to the property of any of the items missing from our enclosure. - was handed to SCC for checking

As soon as we hear from you that everything is in order in this connection, we will recommend the acceptance of your offer and have every reason to believe that this will be favorably considered. We will then try and arrange for one of our fieldmen to come and remove those items you do not require or write off anything that is considered valueless.

Re: SAITO, Shichiro
SUZUKI, Gennosuke

You will remember Mr. Brager who was to have lived in Gennosuke Suzuki's float-house and actually paid us a deposit for its rent. Anderson was never able to find him and he came into the office today to advise that he had never lived in the premises.

He is interested, however, in purchasing the float-house belonging to Shichiro Saito. This was rented for 1943 to Mr. E. M. Teigen, Box 1108, P. O. #1, New Westminster, for $30.00. Mr. Brager showed us a receipt from Teigen for one month's rent at $5.00.

I do not see why Teigen should get away with this and as this is a float-house, we might consider sale. Would you kindly call on Brager who is now living at Shichiro Saito's float-house, possibly on your way down from Mission Friday, but in any case, not before 4:30 p.m. as Brager is working in the Nelson Cannery until then. Would you give us a valuation for this float-house and see if Brager is willing to pay it?

I enclose an inventory for which Teigen is responsible though I gave him permission to move one bed and two floots to the place he has now bought from Mr. Lehti. Brager says that some of the items on the enclosed inventory are now not there and you might look into this at the same time.

Re: Shichiro SAITO

Further to ours of September 8th and your recent conversation with the writer, we have now to inform you that we are authorized to have a valuation put on these premises. While this valuation will not be disclosed to you, we shall indicate to you the approximate amount you will have to offer before your bid could be considered and if your bid is not less than the appraised price, we will put it before our Board here and secure acceptance or refusal of your offer.

In this way we shall be able to give you a definite answer one way or the other in the very near future. If your offer is not less than the appraisal, we shall recommend its acceptance on the grounds that these premises are built on somebody else's land and are of little general interest but we emphasize that our recommendation may not be accepted.

Re: Shichiro SAITO

Another float house case. The sub-tenant, Mr. Brager (see my memorandum July 20th) is anxious to buy this float house in order to get it fixed up for the winter. I feel that in view of the housing shortage, we should take all reasonable steps to assist him in this respect as the property is scarcely inhabitable at present and he naturally does not feel like spending money on making it so unless he can have a secure tenure.

This float house is pulled up on Mr. Peterson's land and any sale would, of course, carry with it no guarantee that it could remain in its present location which would, of course, be purely a matter between the tenant and land-owner.

May these premises be sold on a valuation or do you consider that we should call for tenders? In the latter case, it might be better to group all the float-houses together, advertise them, and offer them in a batch. Against this is the consideration that we may always be requested to remove them and I should, therefore, if possible, like to make a prompt sale of this building.

Dear Sir:

Re: Chattels

We enclose herewith in duplicate, list of your chattels left at River Road, as found by our inspector when he called there a short while ago. Will you kindly sign and return one copy to us as soon as possible. This list does not quite agree with what you mentioned in your registration form, and we presume that certain items have been disposed of. Also, according to your registration form, you mention 1 row-boat having been left at your address, but this was not found by our inspector. Will you kindly let us know if you disposed of same.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green
