Dear Sir:

re: Kenji YOKOTA

We wrote to you on the 8th of February last regarding your claim of $303.55 against YOKOTA, advising you that he definitely disputed your claim. We have not heard from you in reply, and are, therefore, unable to do more regarding this claim. It would seem, from his reply, that you may have the first name incorrect, but you will be the best judge of that.

If you desire us to do more in regard to the claim, please answer our letters, giving such additional information as you may have.

Yours truly,

A. McAllister,

Dear Sir:

re: Sadao NISHIZAWA

We acknowledge with thanks your letter of the 27th of January regarding claim of $303.55 by NISHIZAWA against you, and we have reported your reply to him.

It is true that the report filed by you on the 5th of May last with this office made no mention of any amount as outstanding against you, but it is also true that many similar reports filed with us by other Japanese have not mentioned any outstanding indebtedness against them, and later we have had various claims filed which they had failed to include in their reports.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,

Dear Sir: —

Received your letter enclosed requesting for immediate reply.

In regards to this claim placed against me by Sadajiro Mishigawa, amounting to $303.55, I do not know of any such debt to him as stated in your letter. If you will investigate into the report I made out to the Custodian before I evacuated from Vancouver, you will find I did not have any such debt
filed or any other debts filed in that report.

The above claim is not only incorrect,
but I have no such thing against me. I am very sorry I did not receive your first letter to give this matter my attention
 sooner.

Yours truly
F. White
