CHATTEL SUMMARY

File 7705

Re: Kito (Mrs. Matasaku) HASHIMOTO - 08625. November 4/46.

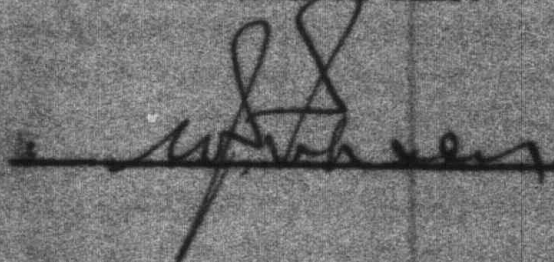

Kito HASHIMOTO declared that Barber shop equipment listed on the chattel schedule was left at 741 Front Street, New Westminster. On June 11th, 1942, Messrs. Coulthard & Sutherland, the Custodian's agents, moved all the effects from this address to Custodian storage, and an inventory of same by Belyea & Co., is on file. Mr. & Mrs. Hashimoto would not sign a copy of this inventory, claiming certain other things were missing.

Mrs. Kito Hashimoto's effects were taken from storage and sold at New Westminster auction of November 5th, 1943, realizing the net sum of $51.12 as per sales sheet on file. This was placed to her credit.

As Mrs. Hashimoto's small barber equipment was contained in boxes and cartons, it was sold in bulk lots as shown on the schedule.

Correspondence on this file referring to effects left by Matasaku HASHIMOTO is dealt with on File 7739, his file.

Dear Sir:

Re: ^KMrs. Hashimoto. n/v.

The above Japanese woman, proprietor of a Barber Shop at 741 Front Street in this city, was until her removal from this vicinity a tenant of mine at the same address. Some time last month the goods and chattels belonging to Mrs. Hashimoto were removed and I believe placed in storage pending disposal of same.

The rent of the premises for April, the last month of Mrs. Hashimoto's occupancy, in the amount of $20.00 is still unpaid. I am given to understand by Mr. Coulthard, your agent here, that you will take note of this rental claim when making final settlement of Mrs. Hashimoto's affairs. This letter can therefore be considered by you as a claim for $20.00, the unpaid rental.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Mr. and Mrs. Masasaku HASHIMOTO.
Reg. Nos: 08624 and 08625

Please refer to your letter of June 5th under File No. 7739. We have sent these people a list of chattels remaining in this area as covered by the inventory attached to your letter referred to above in connection with the goods stored at the Japanese School, and Belyea & Company's list of June 11th covering storage at the Buddhist Temple. The Japanese now write that a number of things are missing as follows:

Missing in the School Storage List:

3 more tables	2 wheelbarrows
5 more chairs	1 gas stove
1 kitchen stove	13 stove pipes including
1 electric fan	2 elbows
1-10 lb. hammer	1 small Buddhist shrine

Missing in the Buddhist Temple List:

1 sterilizing box	1 sink
3 dozen towels	1 more small barbers mirror

They have asked us to verify that these missing articles are there before they agree to sign a list of chattels left behind, and we would greatly appreciate it if you could make further investigations for us.

Re: Mr. and Mrs. Matasaku HASHIMOTO

We thank you for your letter of the 25th. The list which you sent enclosed with your letter agrees with the list we sent the Japanese covering storage at the Japanese School. As advised previously, we sent the Japanese a list of chattels stored at the Japanese School as well as a list covering storage in the Buddhist Temple copied from Belyea's list. The Japanese writes back claiming shortages at both Storage Companies as per copy of their letter attached hereto.

Re: HASHIMOTO, Matasaku
HASHIMOTO, Kito (Mrs. Matsaku)

Mr. Coulthard rang up yesterday about your letter of September 28th. As far as the barber shop equipment from Front Street, New Westminster, is concerned I think it is reasonable to assume that these are in the boxes, as the items with the exception possibly of the sink -- which looks like a fixture -- are small.

Turning to 233 Ewen Avenue, the list of things moved agrees with that actually given by the Japanese themselves to Mr. Coulthard before evacuation and a further search at Ewen Avenue reveals nothing. I feel that under these circumstances we cannot be held responsible for the other items but if the Japanese care to give us more particulars where they are stored, we could have a recheck made.

Dear Sir:

re Mrs. Hashimoto.

This is to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th instant in which you enclosed a cheque from the Custodian of Enemy Property in the amount of $20.00 in payment of rent due to me by Mrs. Hashimoto for April 1942 as per my letter of June 10th 1942.

I do not suppose that you have any knowledge of the present whereabouts of Mrs. Hashimoto. I knew how hard she was obliged to work to support an invalid husband and a small family, and I was sorry for her in the predicament in which she found herself at the time of the evacuation. Perhaps she may now be in need of help.

Yours very truly,

J. H. Morgan
