Dear Sir:

Re: Estate of Kim Murakami (or Inouye), Deceased,
Registration No. 12730.

On October 9, 1948, we enquired concerning progress in administering the Estate of Kim Murakami. As already advised, we have a credit balance of $459.25 in the account of the deceased which we would like to be able to dispose of.

In your letter to this office dated January 12, 1948, you stated that you were writing for information as to next of kin but since that time we do not appear to have heard from you.

In order to clear up the matter of relationship, we would suggest writing to the following:

Shine Inoue, born June 28, 1883, who was reported by the R.C.M.P. in 1942 to be a single Japanese National, but who declared on his Custodian Registration form at the same time that his wife was Kim (no other name given). Mrs. Tyler of the Department of Labour, Japanese Division, Vancouver, has informed us that Mrs. Murakami (Inouye) stated to the R.C.M.P. that she was married in Japan twice prior to her arrival in Canada and that in each instance it was a Tokki Marriage and that the husband in each case married into her family, taking her family name of Murakami, the first husband being Kosuke (surname unknown) and the second being Shine Inouye. Shine Inouye's last known address is New Denver, B.C. as reported March 23, 1945.

Shinichi (Art) Murakami, male, born in Canada June 12, 1914, who was reported by the Department of Labour on December 22, 1947, to be living at 2827 Mason Boulevard, Montreal, Quebec.

Kenzo Murakami, male, born in Canada May 26, 1916, reported to be married and now living at 63 Metcalfe Street, Toronto, as at January 6, 1948.

Miss Kiyoko Inouye, born in Canada June 6, 1921. Her last known address is New Denver, B. C. as reported March 23, 1945.

Of the three children, the report on Masako and Sokichi Murakami shows Kima Murakami as their mother and Susuke Murakami, deceased, as their father. The report on the younger child, Kiyoko Inouye, shows Kima Murakami as her mother and Tikanori Inouye (also known as Shine Inouye) as her father. Kima Murakami states in her declaration that her husband is Shine Inouye, although she signs herself "Kima Murakami". It is to be noted that the Murakamis and Inouyes all lived at 803 Campbell Avenue in Vancouver and Mrs. Murakami died in New Denver on December 20, 1947.

It is likely that any or all of the four persons listed above will be able to give you concrete information concerning the relationship and if Inouye cannot produce evidence of his marriage, the children will no doubt request you to make application for administration of their mother's estate.

The Department of Labour states that they questioned Kima Murakami about a marriage certificate and she said that it was not brought from Japan. It is understood that Susuke, the father of the two boys, is dead.

Would you kindly let us know what action you are taking in this matter.

Yours very truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.
