RE - MIYAZAKI, GIROBI,

223 Gore Avenue,

216 Gore Avenue, Vancouver, B. C. - 01601

1. I have today inspected the property of the above and discussed the matter of his evacuation with him.
2. The declarant lived in a six room frame dwelling at 223 Gore Avenue and operated a poultry store at 216 Gore Avenue. Practically all the furniture from the house has been moved over to the store which has been all boarded up.
3. Miyazaki advises me that he had received definite instructions to leave on the 11th of May and that he had everything stored at 216 Gore Avenue, with his belongings packed ready to leave but at the last moment the instructions were cancelled. He is now awaiting new orders to depart.
4. Miyazaki advises me that he has made an arrangement with the Landlord at 216 Gore Avenue, a Mr. Ohori of 641 Powell Street, to store his furniture and effects, together with the equipment of the store itself, on the premises for the duration of the war.
5. I have not as yet been able to contact Mr. Ohori and verify this and ascertain whether the real property involved has been declared to your Office or not.
6. As the movable property is jammed up in such a limited space that it is impossible to check the inventory without moving the contents, I have deferred listing the goods until I was able to find out whether they would be left on the premises or moved to a storage warehouse controlled by your Office. If the latter is to be the case, it would very much simplify the taking of the inventory to have it done as the goods were moved. See subsequent report
7. I will report to your Office subsequently on obtaining necessary information with regard to the Landlord's property and your attitude towards the storage of the goods on the premises.

YOUR FILE NO. 8046

1. The above Japanese declarant was evacuated on June 6.

2. On the date of departure the inventory, included in the "JP" Declaration, was checked by my staff with the following result:

- (1) There was one sack of cracked wheat on the premises not listed in the inventory.
- (2) The following items were found to be missing and presumably were being taken with the evacuee or had been disposed of:

Japanese Boys' Festival Dolls
Japanese Girls' Festival Dolls
Christmas Tree Decorations
3 Knives
1 Steel Knife Sharpener
1 Wooden Water Tank
3 Carpets
1 Bamboo Book Shelf
1 Hand Saw

down letter

3. As soon as the Japanese was evacuated the back door and all points of entry were boarded up and the front door locked. The key to the premises is being deposited with your Office today. ✓

4. As stated in my preliminary report Miyazaki had made an arrangement with Mr. Ohori, the Landlord, for the storage of his goods on the premises on a rental basis. Mr. Ohori has since confirmed this. At the time of confirmation I asked him if he would give me, in detail, the exact arrangement made with Miyazaki. He promised to do this but to date has not done so and several attempts on the part of my staff to contact Mr. Ohori have been unsuccessful. However, there is no doubt that Mr. Ohori has agreed to the storage of the effects on the premises and in my opinion their security is satisfactory, in view of the type of goods and the small amount of money involved. For this reason I do not suggest that it is necessary to insure the contents.

5. As Miyazaki's plans with regard to the point to which he was being evacuated were altered at the last minute, I was unable to find out his present location. You can no doubt ascertain this information from the Security Commission.

6. If there is any further way in which I can serve your Office in this matter I will be pleased to do so, but as apparently the matter is disposed of I am closing my file in the case.

Dear Sir:

While I was at Tashme on a recent visit, the Committee submitted plans and estimated costs in connection with the manufacture of Soya Sauce and Miso Paste. Most of the equipment can be made at Tashme. However, it requires certain Cookers, Steam Boilers, etc., which will have to be purchased outside.

I was advised that there was a Japanese by the name of Miyazaki who was engaged in the manufacture of this product and that he might have some of his equipment stored with you.

I would appreciate if you would advise me if this is the case and if so, is this equipment available either for rent or purchase.

Yours very truly,

George Collins,
General Supervisor.

Attention Mr. George Collins

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 12th instant in which you informed us that you were advised that Miyazaki was engaged in the manufacture of Soya Sauce and that he might have some of his equipment stored with us.

There is not much indication of this on our file. Mr. Miyazaki was a Poultry store operator, operating a business at 216 Gore Avenue.

The following list of store equipment of miscellaneous effects is still stored at that address, but on the face of it there does not appear to be very much that might be equipment required for the manufacture of Soya Sauce. However, this will pass on to you what information we have.

Yours truly,

F. G. Shears,
Acting Director.
