Dear Sir: Re: J. and K. FUKUHARA-$190.00
 and R. Tagashira & Co.

We have written you on two or three occasions regarding the above but cannot trace having received any reply from you.

As you are aware Kisaburo Fukuhara claims that this debt is not for his account and Jenichiro Fukuhara has admitted that the debt is his, and now that the property of Kisaburo Fukuhara has been sold will you please note that unless we hear from you by the 15th instant we shall assume that the debt is not owing by Kisaburo Fukuhara and that we need not retain funds in his account for the possible payment of this debt.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs:

Re: Crown Life Policy #196268
Jenichiro FUKUHARA

In answer to yours of April 17th and further to our reply of April 24th, we wish to advise as follows:

The matter of allowing your policy-holder above named to change the beneficiary on this policy from his wife, in Japan, to his brother, in this country, has been dealt with and it has been decided that we will not sanction a change such as this, where it would be from a preferred beneficiary to a non-preferred beneficiary, unless the policyholder can present to us very strong grounds for requesting the change to be made. You might please advise your policy-holder to this effect.

Yours truly,

S. M. Gibson,

Dear Sirs:

Re: Crown Life Policy #196268
Jenichiro FUKUHARA

In answer to yours of April 17th and confirming our telephone conversation of a few days ago.

The matter of allowing the above named to change his beneficiary from his wife, in Japan, to his brother, in this country, in connection with the above numbered policy is being considered.
Until a decision is reached, the matter will have to stand in abeyance and we will instruct you in connection with this matter just as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

MEMORANDUM

File 8115

To: Mr. Wright

From: Mr. Gibson

Re: Crown Life Policy #196268
Jenichiro FUKUHARA

The above numbered policy covers for $2,000.00 on the life of Jenichiro FUKUHARA and the named beneficiary is his wife, Kazu, reported to be in Japan.

The premium amounting to $8.12 a month has been paid up with the exception of the last four monthly premiums which now stand as a loan against the policy. The approximate cash value is $250.00.

The policyholder has applied to the Crown Life Insurance Company to have the beneficiary changed from his wife in Japan to his brother in this country. As the wife is a preferred beneficiary, it would require her signature (or ours in this case, in lieu of hers) in order to make this change because a brother is not on the preferred list of beneficiaries.

I would appreciate, please, if you would consider this case and let me have your instructions. In the meantime, I have both telephoned and written to the Crown Life Insurance Company telling them that the case was being considered and that they would receive our instructions as soon as possible.

*Mr. Gibson
I have discussed this matter with Mr. Wright & he advises that it is not the policy of the Customs to consent to change due to change of class of beneficiary.
The applicant is required to present strong grounds before his request is entertained. Pls app to me about this

Gentlemen:

Re: Policy #196,268 - on the life
of Jenichiro Fukuhara

Our above named policyholder has written us from Tappen, B.C. and has asked us whether it will be possible for him to change the beneficiary from his present wife, who is resident in Japan, to his brother.

We were never previously advised that the wife was in Japan, and believe that in view of this information your Department may wish a special designation to be made on our records in respect to this case, and you may also wish Form "D" to be filed. For our protection, therefore, we would appreciate it if you would advise us what your requirements are and also authorize us in writing to reply direct to our policyholder's letter.

We shall look for your advice in due course.

We wish to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 17th inst. regarding the above claim filed with us against you and K. FUKUHARA, with enclosure of remittance of $5.00 to apply, for which we thank you. We enclose our official receipt No. 4904 for like amount in your name.

We are writing Geo. E. McCrossan, Barrister, representative of R. Tagashira and Co. in Vancouver, advising him that we have received your $5.00 remittance and that we have credited it to the account of R. Tagashira and Co. on our books.

We are also informing him of what you say, namely, that you admit the claim as against you and asking that K. FUKUHARA be released from liability.

On receipt of his reply we shall inform you.

Dear Sir:

re: J. and K. FUKUHARA - $190.00
R. Tagashira & Co.

We have had considerable correspondence regarding the above claim because of a statement of K. (Kisaburo) FUKUHARA that he is not liable for the payment of this account, but that it is the responsibility of J. (Jenichiro) FUKUHARA.

We have a letter just at hand from J. FUKUHARA stating that the account is his, and that he assumes responsibility for the payment of it and desires that K. FUKUHARA be advised that he is not held liable. This we can only do if you so advise.

In the meantime J. (Jenichiro) FUKUHARA has forwarded $5.00, apparently as an evidence of good faith, to apply on this claim. This amount has been placed to the credit of R. Tagashira and Co. on our books. We are enclosing quotation from his letter as follows:

"However I wish to inform you that there is a verbal understanding with Mr. R. Tagashira and myself that owing to the circumstances I agreed to pay him after the war and that I would not be bothered for the duration and have had the knowledge that Mr. Tagashira would keep his promise.

But it seems to me he is doing the very opposite to what I expected of him, he is trying to alter the debtor to K. Fuku-hara, which I think is not correct. By doing so K. Fuku-hara has been disturbed so would you please inform him to clear him of the above claim. I would like to have this done as soon as possible.

Furthermore, although I had not expected to do this, subject to our verbal agreement, I shall endeavor to pay the debt owing when possible. At the present moment I am severely handicapped as I am physically unfit for any hard work after suffering pile complications in the logging industry this last winter. However, I am able to forward the sum of five dollars ($5.00) towards the claim."

Please acknowledge receipt, advising us as to whether or not K. MUKUMARA is released from responsibility in this connection.

Yours truly,

V. McAllister,
Claims Department.

Dear Sirs,

I have been advised by K. Fukuhara re. R. Tagashira & Co. claim. May I inform you that this debt should be filed against me & not to K. Fukuhara. You may check this up with R. Tagashira & Co's account sales.

However I wish to inform you that there is a ^{verbal} ~~mutual~~ understanding with Mr. R. Tagashira and myself that owing to the circumstances I agreed to pay him after the war & that I would not be bothered for the duration and have had the knowledge that Mr. Tagashira would keep his promise.

This is to advise that FUKUHARA now admits that he owes you the above amount but that he cannot pay the same now.

We quote from his letter as follows:

"At the present moment my job is such that I cannot find my way around to clear any back accounts."

Under the circumstances we can do no more, we will keep the claim on file against him.
