GENERAL SUMMARY

6th February, 1946

Re: SHIMOJI, Shizuo - Reg.No.09010

This file reveals no liabilities.

SHIMOJI declared the following personal property assets:

$160.00 War Savings Certificates.
Bank Account at the Royal Bank of Canada.
$1,000.00 North American Life Insurance policy.

These assets were however not brought under control by the Custodian although a premium on the Life Insurance was paid through this office from the account of his mother at her request.

It would appear from letters dated December 12th and 15th, 1945 that the Insurance policy might be cashed in however we have no record of further action at this date.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sir:

Re: my policy #329082.

I may have to repatriate in near future and in view of the fact that there is no means to continue this policy after I leave Canada.

Will you kindly send me a surrender policy form and let me know how much the amount of refund, also how long will it take to get refund.

Thanking you for your attention in anticipation,

Yours truly,

Dear Madam:

Re: North American Life
Pol. #329082-Shinobu SHIMOJI

We have received from the British Columbia Security Commission a letter dated June 29th with a copy of a letter dated June 22nd from their Welfare Manager, Mr. A. S. Young, at Yachse.

According to information contained therein it was apparently your desire to pay the premiums on your son's life insurance policy; and also the claim for $65.00 against you by Dr. Morse. This matter has been discussed with the Claims Department and they have requested that we hold back sufficient to settle Dr. Morse's claim.

This has been done and the balance in your account amounting to $78.63 has today been forwarded to be credited to your son's life insurance policy above numbered.

The balance still owing on this policy at the present time, being $20.45, can be paid to the Life Insurance Company by instalments from time to time as you are able.

Yours truly,

S. H. Gibson,
Insurance Department
