As you have already signed for the custody of the gramophone and records belonging to the above, it is correct for you to refer this matter to us. However, there is no objection to your sending Mr. Horibe these articles if he wishes for them and is willing to pay freight or shipping charges, for which the Custodian assumes no responsibility.

To clear our file of this matter, would you please, when you have shipped these articles, send us Mr. Horibe's letter of request for them?
