Dear Sir:

Please excuse our neglectfulness of not writing sooner.

By reading down that list of things on those 2 sheets I find you have left out some things we also left in Pettie Cannery. I am very sure we left a trunk full of things and lots of lumber etc.
We do not remember little things but if you refer to the list they took when we were in Van at Suji Chap Suzy. I am sure you will find that this list can still be added. Do you know what happen to our house in Pettie Cannery? We wish to know for that is where our lumber etc are.

Hope you will be able to find out those thing.

Yours Truly,

Tsuneyoshi Shintani

Dear Madam:

We have for reply your letter of December the 7th wherein you point out to us that you had chattels at the Celtic Cannery, in addition to those moved by us to 7857 Selkirk Street.

The items mentioned by us represent only those moved from the Cannery houses and we presume the rest of your things are in the school house which was not disturbed, as it was not required by the Cannery.

Yours truly,
