Re: Hiroji TAKEDA.

Hiroji TAKEDA declared household furniture and farm implements left in the house of his brother, Fusajiro TAKEDA, File 3953, at R. R. #1, Coghlan, B.C. These chattels are dealt with fully on the chattel schedule and summary. Saleable effects were sold to the tenant on the property (L. Accarias) and the proceeds - $10.00 credited to the account of Hiroji TAKEDA.

The declarant, on his JP form states that crops of strawberries, loganberries, were sold to the Dominion Cannery for the sum of $600.00, and that he received this sum from them.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on the file.

CHATTEL SUMMARY

File No. 8651

December 6th, 1945.

Re: Hiroji TAKEDA, Reg. 12803

Hiroji TAKEDA made his declaration to the Custodian on May 7th, 1942 and was evacuated on February 24th, 1942. He declared that he owned and had left in the house of his brother Fusajiro TAKEDA, R. R. #1, Otter Road, Coghlan, B. C. (File 3953) certain household furniture and farm implements.

Under date of June 25th, 1942, an inventory of chattels was prepared by our representative. A copy was sent to Hiroji Takeda who confirmed it on September 27th, 1942.

The Otter Road farm was owned by Fusajiro Takeda, brother of Hiroji. It was leased together with his other farm at 1003 Coghlan Road to Canadian Cannery Ltd.

During the term of their lease Canadian Cannery reported that the Otter Road property had been broken into (Memo of July 4th, 1944, File 3953). The property was empty after the lease expired.

On October 6th, 1945 our representative ^{was present} called at the farm for the purpose of recovering chattels but very little of value was found. A number of articles were left on the property, as being unsaleable and would not have repaid the cost of removal.

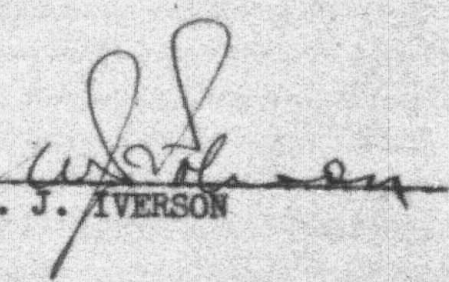

A few effects were sold to the present tenant Mr. F. Accarias for the sum of $10.00 as per sales sheet on file, the amount was credited to this account.

The cost of removing them to auction would have been prohibitive. (See report of Oct 6/45)
Efforts were made to contact the caretaker who looked after the property while under lease to the Canadian Cannery but this person could not be found. We have written to him but we've had no reply.

The locked room in which goods were said to be stored according to the inventory taken by the Custodian's representative, was still closed with a padlock on October 6th, 1945 but it had every evidence of having been opened on several occasions. Cartons were opened and empty, and the only effects left were two beds and springs. These were among the goods sold to the tenant, Mr. Accarias.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Re: Chattels Coghlan Rd Farm

The position of chattel liquidation is as follows:

- A. Chattels removed from property and sold at auction as per sales sheets.
- B. Effects abandoned as of no value and left on property.
- C. Effects missing as per list.
- D. Effects missing during tenancy of Canadian Cannery.
- E. Reports on file from Canadian Cannery that building had been broken into and effects evidently stolen Nov. 23/43, May 3/43, March 4/43 and Jan. 21/43.
- F. The list of chattels dated Oct. 7/42 embraces a large number of items unaccounted for and it may well be that the articles assumed as stolen are amongst these. On the other hand a number of articles were sold under the heading of "Miscellaneous" and this may account for a large part.

The J.P. on files state that a Beatty Washer Range, Sewing Machine etc. were left in the care of Mr. J. Forsman, Coghlan Rd.

RE: Hiroji and Fusajiro TAKEDA

Dear Sirs:

Perhaps you would be so kind as to give us any information you have relative to the tenancy of the house on the Otter Road farm which formerly belonged to Mr. Fusajiro Takeda.

You may remember that your Company had a lease on this property up to, we believe, the latter part of 1943. In several of your letters to us you reported that the premises had been broken into on various occasions but you thought that only small items, which were easily removable, had been taken. We find however that several valuable things were left in the house, such as a bicycle, tool chest, kitchen range, etc. You reported through your Solicitors on Nov. 23, 1943, that the tenant in the house had left the chattels there at the request of Mr. McKay, but our representatives seem to have looked the place over in November or December and found nothing there. (We are not sure of this, but the writer has seen the place on various occasions since that time and the house is quite empty).

Your letter of November 6, 1942, states that you had a watchman there, an old man and his wife, and if you have any idea where we could address these people, we might get some information that would help us to find out what happened there.

Thanking you for your co-operation,

Yours truly,

W. J. Iverson

Dear Sirs: Attention Mr. W. J. Iverson

We have your letter of July 5th under your file 8651 and 3953 with reference to the farm we operated belonging to Mr. Fusajiro Takeda in the years 1942 and 1943.

The writer personally handled this whole transaction from the start to the finish and has a very clear recollection when we gave up this property at the end of 1943, we substantiated the inventory that had been taken in conjunction with your representatives when we first took over the farm in 1942 and at the finish, the recheck of the inventory showed a few tools, that were missing, and as we remember we paid for these an agreed price of say $10.00 or $15.00. Did not apply to the property Coughlan Rd. Farm

Aside from this, everything was on the place that was there when we first took the farm over.

We can recollect reporting the premises being broken into and we think you had someone, at that time, go out and check things over and we also remember that there was a lot of personal goods and perhaps the bicycle was located there, looked up in a section of the house to which we did not have any entry at all. He's mixing up other R. Coughlan Rd. farm just a shack so this even funny

We are sorry, but at this late date, we of course are not involved ourselves and unfortunately we are unable to help you out as to what became of the articles which apparently are now missing. After all, this is 1945, two years after we vacated the premises.

As we remember, the farm was leased to someone else and as to whether or not it has been continuously occupied or what has happened in the interval, we have absolutely no knowledge.

Very truly yours,

Re: Hiroki TAKEDA.

The writer visited the Otter Road farm of Fusajiro TAKEDA prior to this occasion and found the tenant away. The dwelling was of the shack type and the hired man there suggested I see Lewis ACCARIAS, the tenant, (also an occupant of the Nagasaki farm, file 5599) re chattels. The place was almost inaccessible, the road being full of pot holes, in one of which my car was stuck, two hours being taken to get it out. The present visit, by arrangement with Mr. ACCARIAS, disclosed that it would not realize the cartage to remove the few items of inferior furniture left there and they were accordingly sold to the tenant. A bicycle inventoried by our fieldman on June 25th, 1942 was not found, and a quantity of cartons emptied of their contents. Several stoves were found burnt out and these with some homemade furniture etc. were left there.

After questioning Mr. ACCARIAS I am convinced that the place was pilfered prior to his tenancy.
