Dear Madam:

Re: Chattels.

Your letter of the 29th August has been passed on to this department for reply.

Our Chattels Department report that of the 3 items you mention, the first (1 box Clothing and miscellaneous goods) was duly shipped to you. There is no detailed record of the contents nor any mention of a "bear skin". A coal oil tin containing 50 Japanese gramophone records is stored in our Vancouver warehouse, but, we might add, no such records are being shipped at the present time. The third item (1 box kitchen utensils) has not been found but may come to light later as there is still considerable congestion in this warehouse.

Yours truly,

R. G. Bell,
Administration Department.

EVACUATION SECTION
Rec'd	SEP 1 1945
File No.	8956
Ass.	Rob.
Patent	Bull

Dear Sirs:

I am sorry to trouble you but on June 2, I filed a Custodian Release Form with the Department of Labour, Japanese Division at Slocan City for:

- 1 Wooden Box containing Clothing
1 " " " Kitchen Utensils & Carpenter Tools
1 Coal Oil Tin " 50 (approx.) Japanese Gramophone Records, which were originally at Ocean Falls, B. C. and then supposedly transferred to 992 Powell Street at Vancouver.

I deposited $10.00 with the Dept. of Labour for the above mentioned goods and only received - "1 only box of Clothing and Miscellaneous goods"; the balance of my money being returned to me. The "bear-skin", of which I feel sure I had packed in this box that was sent to me, was missing. Is it possible that it was sold?

I would very much like to know if the other box containing Kitchen Utensils, Carpenter Tools, etc. and the Tin of Records are still in your hands or possibly sold. Kindly let me have the information regarding this because in your letter of May 28, file #8956 I thought you had all the goods I asked to be sent. If the goods which I ask for are still in your hands, will you be kind enough to hold them until you hear from me again? If sold, have I any money coming to me?

Your earliest attention to the above matter is greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) Tome ISOZAKI, #11378

Attention Mr. Fisher

Dear Sir:-

Re: Mrs. Toyozo (Tome) ISOZAKI
Registration #11378

Kindly refer to copy of Custodian Release dated October 31st from Slocan City sent to us by you on November 11th with a request to confirm the existence at 314 Powell Street of two boxes of tools belonging to the above in order that you might make shipment to her. This lady did not declare anything left at 314 Powell Street nor can we find anything there. We recently sent her a list of three items moved from 313 Alexander Street and she asked us to add a tin can containing records which should have been found there. This was discovered packed in one of the boxes we had moved and we assume that she is now satisfied.

We are sending you this in duplicate in case you wish to forward one copy to her at Slocan for her information.
