Gentlemen:

The above numbered policy was issued February 15, 1936. The insured listed Japan as the country of birth, his address as 74 Hastings St., West, Vancouver, B. C., and named his wife Misyo Kurushima as beneficiary.

We were informed early in 1944 that the insured had been interned in the Slocan City Camp but had been released from that camp in September 1943 and had been working in Winnipeg since October 1, 1943. The latest address we now have is 68 Kate St., Winnipeg, Manitoba.

The insured and beneficiary have signed an application for a cash loan of $300. If your permission is granted a check for this amount will be drawn to the joint order of the insured and beneficiary.

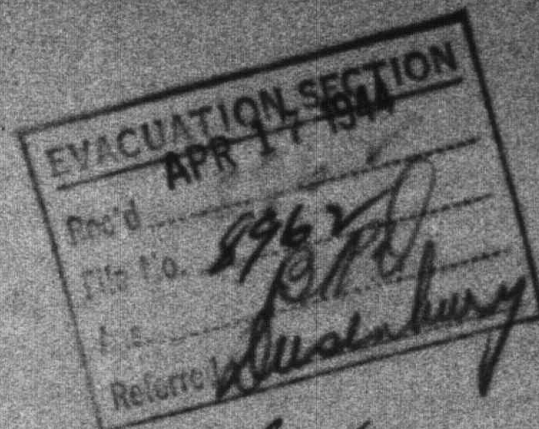

Will you kindly advise us if we may grant this loan and will you please address your reply for the attention of the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

J. J. Reingelder
Administrative Assistant.
