Dear Sir: re Sea Life Pol. #653509

I am now in possession of your letter of September 7, Form letter #118, File no 9339.

I am sorry to say that I must let my policy go. In order to cover some of my expenses during the evacuation I was forced to obtain a policy loan, now I find it impossible for me to keep up my payments. I also regret to say that I do not think that the Custodian has any funds to my credit, so the only course open for me is to let the policy go.

Thank you for informing me about the policy but there is nothing I can do to keep it in force.
