MEMORANDUM

File No.: 9675

From: Mr. Green

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Tatsuji NAKAMURA

The wife declared no personal property but on May 18th, 1942, applied for one small box and two cans at the Buddhist Church, Port Essington.

The husband declared three cases of porcelain valued at approximately $50.00 stored in the same place.

On November 6th, 1942, the husband applied for some sauce and kitchen utensils left in Honkawa's house at Port Essington. The Security Commission reported on March 5th, 1943, that Mr. Brown, our Port Essington agent, reported nothing could be found at Honkawa's house belonging to these Japanese. An itemized list of what was supposed to be there was sent to Mr. Brown on March 18th.

On March 22nd, the Security Commission reported the shipment of a wash boiler of kitchen utensils, a box of the same and a box of Soy Sauce, all presumably coming from the Temple. It appears from letter of June 19th that a hamburgh grinder was also included.

It finally appears that a few things were found by Mr. Brown under a pile of lumber and bedding in the attic of Honkawa's house. If further applications are received, shipment can be made of what, if anything, now remains.

Re: Tatsuji NAKAMURA, Reg. No. 11207
Ishi NAKAMURA, Reg. No. 11214

Tatsuji NAKAMURA signed a declaration to the Custodian on March 21, 1942. He was evacuated on June 22, 1942. In his declaration he reported 3 cases of porcelain valued at approximately $50.00 stored in the Japanese Temple, Port Essington, B. C.

Ishi NAKAMURA, wife of Tatsuji, signed a declaration on April 27, 1942. She was evacuated on June 22, 1942. In her declaration Mrs. NAKAMURA reported no chattels.

In April, 1942, Mr. Dave Smith, of this office, inventoried the following items, identified as the property of Tatsuji NAKAMURA, stored in Japanese Hall, Port Essington in the care of the Provincial Police: 3 boxes, 2 cans, and one futsudan.

On May 18, 1942, Mrs. NAKAMURA requested release of one small box and 2 cans. There is nothing to indicate that this shipment was not made.

On November 6, 1942, Tatsuji NAKAMURA requested shipment of 15 or 16 bottles of Soy Sauce and kitchen utensils packed in cardboard and wooden boxes. All these items, according to the Release, were stored in the house of Mr. Honkawa, at Port Essington, and marked "Tatsuji NAKAMURA". On March 5, 1943, the B. C. Security Commission reported that Mr. H. J. Brown, of Port Essington had reported that none of these items, in fact nothing marked with the name "Tatsuji NAKAMURA", could be found in Honkawa's house. The B. C. Security Commission then sent in a list of the items supposed to be in Honkawa's house, as follows:

1 large Boiler, containing 15 bottles of Soya Sauce, 2 bottles of vinegar & 1 bottle of oil
1
2 large pans (1 aluminum)
2 cans of dishes & Jap. food
1 Box containing coffee, tea, etc. and kitchen utensils.
2 Hamburg Grinders
9 Bread Pans
2 Bx. empty bottles & preserved food
1 Bx. of canned goods
4 wooden tubs with lids (rice)
6 Japanese box trays
1 wooden box of Kitchen Utensils

Although NAKAMURA informed the B.C. Security Commission that his wife had reported these to the Custodian, there is no record that Mrs. NAKAMURA had reported these.

On June 19, 1943, the B.C. Security Commission reported that on March 19, 1943, shipment was made of a boiler, a hamburg grinder, a tub of rice and a box of kitchen utensils. This latter informed us that Mrs. NAKAMURA had said she had not reported these chattels to the Custodian as these had been marked with her husband's name and were not packed.

On July 20, 1943, NAKAMURA requested shipment of one Butsudan. The file does not reveal that shipment was made, but it is assumed that it was.

Your Custodian Release of November 6th and Fowler's letter of January 25th:

Have received the following information from Mr. H.J.Brown at Port Essington: These goods supposed to be in NOMAWA'S house in Port Essington could not be found. All boxes there were marked "SHIKATANI" and have been shipped. What remains is mostly furniture,tools and boat-building supplies. Constable Bell has now returned, and he does not remember seeing anything labelled "NAKAMURA" in this house. This house was broken into last year, but there is no record of what was stolen, if anything. Mr. Brown has asked the Custodian for the list of the articles made by the Custodian Agent, Mr. Smith, and will advise if anything is located.

Your file 9675 and 6565, letter of March 9th and March 22nd, and letter of March 19th to Mr. Brown stating unable to identify property account tags lost:

I now have a letter from Supervisor at Sandon stating that shipment made on March 19th of a boiler, a hamburg grinder and a tub of rice and box of kitchen utensils, still leaves 26 items belonging to this woman, of which she has received no word. Mrs. NAKAMURA claims she reported these goods to the Custodian at Hastings Park but did not list the articles as they were tagged"Tatsuji NAKAMURA"and were not packed. Please see the list of articles sent you with my letter of March 18th.

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Tetsuji NAKAMURA
Reg. Nos. 11207 & 11214

Thank you for your letter of June 19th copy of which we do not think worth while referring to Mr. Brown. The wife declared nothing as mentioned in ours of March 22nd and the husband only three cases of porcelain. When our Mr. Smith was at that end in May 1942, he could only find three boxes, two cans, and one futsulan in the Japanese Hall at Port Essington and your letter to Mr. Morrison of March 5th seems to indicate that Mr. Brown could find nothing else. We feel, therefore, that without further information and in view of these Japanese not making a fuller declaration, this matter should not be pursued further.

Subject NAKAMURA, Tetsuji, Ser. #11207, Custodian File Nos. 6585, 9675
Our File #8088

On March 19th last, Mr. R. O. Morrison wrote to you enclosing a list of goods stored at HONKAWA'S house at Fort Essington, B. C., which were the property of the above-mentioned. On March 22rd, you shipped 3 parcels of kitchen utensils.

On June 18th, Mr. Masterish wrote you with reference to the above shipment stating that there are 26 items that should be still at HONKAWA'S house. The only reply received to this letter of Mr. Masterish's was a letter dated July 3rd from the Custodian stating that he could only find 3 boxes, 2 cans and 1 butsudan in the Japanese Hall at Fort Essington.

We are enclosing, herewith, a list of articles which Nakamura claims he has not as yet received.

Did the Custodian mean to infer by that there was nothing left at HONKAWA'S house belonging to Nakamura or did they omit to look there? Your early attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.
