Dear Sir:

Re Teru Keyanagi, Reg. No. 05271

When the Japanese were evacuated, a number of nets etc were left in my net house, some they had sold to white fishermen and they requested me to collect before the nets were taken and remit the money to them after they were settled.

Regarding Teru Keyanagi nets, he priced them too high so the fisherman turned them down.

When your Mr Harris was collecting the nets from this district I turned all the Japanese nets over to him and he sent them to Steveston for auction, giving me a receipt for the lot.

I have all the correspondence from the Japs on file perhaps you would like to examine it, I wish you could, before I go to England, then should anything else crop up you would be able to settle it without delay.

Yours truly,

John Gaudin

Monday mornings I would be free, other times I have to be out collecting fish.
