MEMORANDUM

File No. 9959
4893

May 23rd, 1945.

TO: The File

FROM: Mr. H. P. Green

RE: Koji TAKAHASHI, Reg. No. 04596
Koji TAKAHASHI, Reg. No. 08090

Koji TAKAHASHI, Reg. No. 04596, File No. 9959, was a boat builder at the Acme Cannery and declared no nets. He did not answer two requests (March 20th and May 27th, 1943) for particulars of any fishing equipment left in the protected area. This however was not unusual and proceeds of sales of equipment in the amount of $85.00 as per statement of February 12th, 1944, were credited to his account.

Claims Department summary of July 21st, 1944 bears a notation as to his credit balance as follows: "Spoke to Mr. Green re this credit. He says safe to assume it belongs to the above". The writer does not recall this but considers the assumption reasonable.

As a result of this claims totalling $63.03 have been paid from the net proceeds of $85.00.

It now appears that the owner of the nets is almost certainly Koji TAKAHASHI, Reg. No. 08090, File 4893, who declared himself to be a fisherman and farmer, but did not register any nets. The evidence on his file however indicates him as the more likely party. Incidentally the claim of $59.79 was first placed on File 4893 and removed therefrom on October 26th, 1943.

We are now writing to the B. C. Security Commission to investigate this matter further.

Re Koji TAKAHASHI #04596

In answer to your letters of May 25 and June 29, we have at last succeeded in getting this man into the office for an interview, but as his wife holds the money and at the present time she is in the hospital, he has definitely given us to understand that immediately she is out of the hospital he will take this matter up with her with a view to sending the $63.03 by money order.

We will keep this matter in mind so that immediately after we receive her discharge papers from the hospital, we will bring the matter up again with him.

Dear Sirs:

RE: Koji TAKAHASHI, #04596.

Your conversation August 25th:

Our file contains C.F.R. freight bill dated January 11th, 1943, showing the following goods shipped to above man at Slocan City:

1 crated sewing machine,	1 bundle Pipe vices
6 bxs. Household effects,	1 basket Effects.
1 sack Tools
Total 1,200#.

These goods were shipped for us by the Richmond Transfer and the bill of lading was dated December 31st, 1942, and they were apparently delivered to the Richmond Transfer by a Thomas Gordon, 233 Shannon Eburne, B. C., although name was understood to be in the telephone directory as Thomas Golding.

Our record also shows that 3 boxes of personal effects were shipped to this man in November, 1942, received from the SS. Southholm, of the Frank Waterhouse & Company, Pier H, Vancouver. These apparently came from the Consolidated Whaling Corporation Ltd., of Victoria, B. C.

Dear Sir:

RE: Jack Gillmore Limited and
Koji Takahashi
Judgment - $59.70

In answer to your letter of the 17th instant I beg to state that the claim against Takahashi is for the amount of the costs taxed against him in the case of Takahashi against John C. Gillmore. The circumstances are that Takahashi sued Gillmore for $70.00 in the Small Debts Court in Vancouver and won his action there. Gillmore appealed to the County Court of Vancouver and won the Appeal. I enclose a copy of the Judgment on Appeal. The costs therein mentioned were taxed by the Registrar at $ 59.70 on the 26th day of May, 1942. Takahashi had his own counsel present on all occasions and the time for Appeal from the County Court expired over two years ago so Takahashi has no excuses for not paying the costs for which Gillmore has obtained judgment.

In writing you I put in the claim for Jack Gillmore Limited but upon perusal of the documents find that the action was against Mr. Gillmore personally and he is therefor entitled to the Judgment personally although he has since incorporated his business.

Yours truly
