The Edamura effects are covered by an inventory taken by Mr. Messenger and filed behind his letter of July 30th on file 4934. These are all padlocked in a room of the Edamura premises at 521 E. Cordova.

Also tagged and stored in the same room are the furniture and effects of Mrs. Sato Fukumura, file 6604. These are as per the inventory signed by this lady on July 25th and enclosed with Mr. Messenger's letter of July 31st on file 6604 though presumably the unit of sawdust mentioned therein has since been consumed and not stored with the effects. If it has been consumed, it is now too late to collect from the tenant and the owner should have made the necessary arrangements before evacuation.

Mr. & Mrs. Shigejiro EDAMURA,
Reg. Nos. 01011 & 01012,
Shaughnessy, Alta.

Dear Sir & Madam:-

As per your request through the Department of Labour, Japanese Division, of the 27th ultimo we are forwarding to you herewith our cheque for $1,000.00, being the major portion of your present credit balance of $1,241.65 on our books.

On receipt of the above mentioned request we reviewed your two files briefly. We find a claim of $12.70 lodged by the B.C. Purchasers Co-operative Assn. against you, which if an indebtedness of yours, should be taken care of from your remaining balance. Please advise in regard to this claim.

In respect to Chattels, we find that Mrs. Sato FUKUMURA left certain household effects at your former address 521 E. Cordova St. and these we understand, were placed in the same room as some that were left by you. Therefore before we can dispose of the proceeds of these chattels we shall require to make a further check, so as to make sure that proper credit has been given to the effects sold.

In the meantime we trust that the enclosed cheque will meet your present requirements.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of the enclosed cheque.

Dear Sir & Madam:-

We are in receipt of a letter dated the 21st ultimo from the Department of Labour, Japanese Division, in respect to certain matters affecting you.

No. 1. Certificate of 3 shares - West Coast Trading Co. Ltd., which we are placing in safe keeping in your behalf.

No. 2. Claim of $12.70 of B.C. Purchasers Co-operative Association which Mr. EDAMURA admits is correct and requests us to make payment. As the only funds on hand which he is interested are in your Joint account, we shall require that you jointly authorize payment.

We are also in receipt of a letter of the 26th ultimo from the same Department asking in regard to furniture left in a certain upstairs room at 521 E. Cordova St, when you were evacuated. This furniture has been disposed of as per auction sheets as follows enclosed:-

No. 6	$50.41
No. 35	.70

Some furniture of a Mrs. Sato FUKUMURA were placed in the same room and considerable confusion has resulted. Neither of you co-operated in supplying a list of your belongings at the time of evacuation. The foregoing auction sheets represent the total net proceeds from the sale of your belongings and assumably do not include any items belonging to Mrs. FUKUMURA.

Pending clarification in regard to chattels, we enclose to you herewith our cheque for $175.00 payable to your order.

We shall be obliged if you will let us hear further from you.

Dear Sir & Madam:-

In order that we may bring your file and account to a conclusion, we have brought forward your file for examination. In doing so we find that you have not replied to our letter of April 1st, 1946 about various matters in which you were concerned.

Item #2-therein- Claim of $12.70 of B.C. Purchasers Co-operative Association. We asked that you both sign the request that this be paid as the funds on hand are in your joint account. If you wish us to make this payment please sign a letter requesting us to do so.

Re Chattels - As these are somewhat confused we forwarded to you Auction Sheets No. 6 and #35(55) total $51.11. Please now advise if all of these items on the Auction sheets are identified by you as formerly your chattels.

If these two matters, namely the claim and these chattels can be satisfactorily cleared up we shall be in a position to dispose of your remaining balance of $67.35.
