RE: Koto (Mrs. Totaro) KOYANAGI
Reg. No. 06821

Will you please transfer from Mrs. Koto KOYANAGI, File 10239, to Chattel Suspense Account, the following:

1 Wash stand	$ .25	Steveston Auction #8 - 10/3/44
1 Kitchen cabinet	[illegible]	Steveston Auction #8 - 10/3/44
1 Blackboard	1.25	Steveston Auction #9 - 17/3/44
1 Arm chair	.35	Steveston Auction #10- 31/3/44
2 Lanterns	4.00	Steveston Auction #17- 14/7/44

The reason for this transfer is that none of these goods were declared by the above, so the proceeds will be held in Suspense Account until the owner is identified.

Transfered June 21, 1946.

Sukesaburo SUZUKI, Reg. No. 11768

Will you please transfer the following from the account of Sukesaburo SUZUKI, File 7285, to Mrs. Koto KOYANAGI, File 10239:

2 Kitchen chairs $ .50

These were sold at Steveston auction #11 on 11/4/44.

The reason for this transfer is that SUZUKI only declared 11 chairs and inventory List of March 30/44, item 11, 2 kitchen chairs are listed and item 19, 12 kitchen chairs are listed. Mrs. Koto KOYANAGI declares 16 chairs and only 10 are listed on her inventory list #468 of March 6/44.

Carpenter's square	.75
Sledge and double axe	2.00 -
	11.90

These were sold at Steveston auction #10, on 31/3/44.

The reason for this transfer is that Mrs. NEGORO declared only 6 chairs and on her inventory List #471 of March 16/44, 10 are listed, while Mrs. KOYANAGI declares 16 chairs and her inventory List #468 of March 6/44 shows only 10 are listed. Chattels of both the above were taken from House #17, Terra Nova Cannery and may have become mixed.

Dear Sir,

I have written to you on two others occasions concerning my household furnitures & other goods, which were stored at Terra Nova Kenney house, before my evacuation, from Lemon Creek, Slocan B.C..

Disappointed I am, that they are sold off by auction & to this day I have been waiting to have my cheque forwarded to me.

Will you kindly review my file & forward the entire credit balance in my name to my above new address. Also will you please let me know, if any goods are still left.

I am an aged widow and have no income. As the weather is so much colder already out here, I must get my badly need necessities. So will you please forward

My cheque at your earliest, & I will appreciate it. Thanking you for the trouble.

Sincerely,
Koto Koyanagi

CASE NO. 1096

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

Toronto, Ontario,

October 5, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MRS. KOKO KOYAMAGI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

K.A. Christie, Esq., K.C.

K. Koyanagi,
In chf.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BRECKEN:

A. Yarra Nova Cemetry.

Q. And when did your husband die? A. 25 years ago.

Q. And did you live there with three children who are A. Yes.

HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J. A. McGIBBON, SUB-COMMISSIONER,

Q. Now, I [illegible] Toronto, Ontario, [illegible] in this case an Analysis of the [illegible] October 5, 1948. Claim.

(ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM, MARKED EXHIBIT No. 1)

Q. Under the heading "Details of Claim" there are a number of different items totalling $987.50?

A. Yes.

Q. And those were all items of personal property at the house you occupied when you were evacuated?

A. Yes.

Q. And you left a list of those with the Custodian? A. Yes.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

MRS. KOTO KOYANAGI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

K.A. CHRISTIE, ESQ., K.C., appearing for the Dominion Government.

F. A. BRECKEN, ESQ., appearing for the Claimant.

Q. A. SMITH, ESQ. Secretary,

C.J.R. UPTON, ESQ., Official Interpreter.

J.B.McGREGOR, ESQ. Official Reporter.

Q. [illegible] that the [illegible] had also a series of figures, apparently showing the values that you claim for those properties? A. Yes.

Q. [illegible] the time [illegible] the Custodian [illegible] of the items [illegible] this. I don't understand English very well and I think my daughter has it so.

Q. Not on your instructions? A. Yes.

Q. And were the values you put on those things a fair value? A. Yes.

Q. How did you arrive at those values? A. I put the prices down a little cheaper than I thought.

Q. Did you put down the price that you paid for them or less than that? A. It was cheaper than the price I paid.

Q. I think it is clear those are the values you estimated at the time? A. I didn't have much time to figure out the prices and one thing and another like that and I put them down roughly.

Q. I am showing you a document under the heading "Personal Chattels". Was this been prepared on your instructions? A. Yes.

Q. I see you haven't signed it. Is the information contained in it correct? A. Yes.

Q. Would you sign it and we will file it as an exhibit.

(PERSONAL CHATTELS FORM, MARKED EXHIBIT 8)

Q. Now, you left those things in the house, No. 17, at the Cannery, belonging to the Cannery, did you? A. Yes.

Q. And you informed the custodian that they were there? A. I sent him a letter to that effect.

Q. And did you pack up the things? A. No, I left them in the house.

Q. Now, looking at Exhibit 1, which is an Analysis of Personal Property Claim, I see it indicates that the Custodian sent to U.N.R.R.A. clothes which you value at $100. He didn't sell them apparently. How did you arrive at a value of $100. for the clothes?

A. That was a rough estimate for the overcoats and dresses, and one thing and another that belonged to the children.

Q. Q. And to the claimant herself? A. Yes, and my clothes too.

Q. Then, I notice on Exhibit 1, the Personal Property Claim Analysis, there are quite a number of items which were declared and were not found. For instance there were records -- were they there when you left? A. Yes, they were all there.

Q. Everything there? A. Yes.

Q. Then I see that the Custodian mentioned as not being saleable, 4 boxes of Japanese novels. They were in the Japanese language were they, these books?

A. There were some Japanese books and some English books.

Q. And were the Japanese books of a type that other Japanese might be interested in buying?

A. Yes, I brought them from Japan.

Q. And if you had had them with you and wanted to sell them, do you think you could have sold them?

A. I cannot answer with regard to that.

Q. Do I understand that they were sets of books? A. The Japanese books were in sets; I don't know about the English books.

Q. I see there is an item of two mattresses, of which it was said that there was no record at any time. Did you have two mattresses? A. They were left there when I was evacuated.

Q. They apparently weren't listed in the original inventory; do you know why? A. Those were included in the letter to the Custodian.

Q. They don't seem to be. By the way, was she asked by the Custodian whether she wished to have the clothes sent to [redacted]? A. No, they said nothing to me at all.

Q. Were the clothes such as could have been used by the claimant and her family if they had been sent to her? A. Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. CHRISTIE:

Q. I produce a J.P. Form; is that your signature? A. Yes.

(J.P. FORM, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

Q. I notice in the Analysis of Personal Property Claim you put in 10 cartons of dishes and kitchen utensils at $100.00? A. Yes.

Q. Then later six boxes were valued by you at $57.00 and sold at auction for $19.15. Now, what became of the other four. I want to know what became of the other four boxes, or were the whole ten sold?

A. I don't know what happened to them; I left them there.

Q. I am filing the Control Schedule as Exhibit 4.

(CONTROL SCHEDULE, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

Q. How many records were there? You declare the records were Japanese and English under the column "Declared Not Found". How many records would there be?

K. Koyanagi,
ex. cr.

A. I think there were about sixty altogether.

Q. About sixty records altogether? A. Yes.

Q. Then with reference to the item of $60., that is four boxes of books. How many books would there be? A. There were 12 sets of Japanese -- there were about fifty Japanese books and about thirty English books. She isn't at all certain.

Q. That is about 80 books altogether?

A. I think around that.

Q. Then the item of $30. in the column "Not Accounted for" -- would that be frames or garden tools? There is just one item of $30. Ask her what that is for? I find it hard to follow her.

A. I cannot explain that.

Q. No explanation? A. No.

Q. Then in regard to the clothing item of $130.25 -- how many persons would that represent the clothing of? A. For six persons.

Q. How many adults and how many children?

A. I had six children but one was married so there were five and with myself it was six. I had six children and one was married, so there were five and add myself and that makes six in all.

Q. This represents clothing for five children and one adult?

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: According to the form she hasn't any children at all.

MR. MEWETT: We have often found these forms are very inaccurate.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: They should not be filed if they are not correct.

MR. BROWN: The fact is that this woman had six children. I am just telling your honour my experience in dealing with hundreds of these cases. These J.P. forms are filled in by somebody asking questions and they have found it very difficult to get information and they are very often inaccurate.

MR. GUERIN: I suppose all these items were bought over a period of years? They are mostly used items? A. They were mostly things that had been used with the exception of some dishes and chinaware.

Q. What make of gramophone was it? A. It was a Victor machine with a handle.

Q. The winding type? A. Yes.

Q. When when did you buy the dining room set?

A. I don't know because my son bought it in Vancouver.

Q. How old is it? A. Four years before the evacuation.

RE-EXAMINATION BY MR. BROWN:

Q. I just want to point out for the record, on Exhibit 4 there is a list of articles not found, including four cartons of dishes and kitchen utensils, a dresser, kitchen chairs, a kitchen stove, three heater stoves. There is a note too of "Not found" an iron stand, one congoleum rug not found, one Coleman gas stove, three window screens, a box of carpenter's tools, five pairs of rubber boots, and silverware not found, or there seems to have been, according to the Custodian's own investigation, quite a number of things that were listed at the time that were later not found. I don't know if my friend has any explanation of that.

MR. CHRISTIE: What bothered me when I saw 10 cartons of dishes and only six accounted for, I couldn't find any explanation in the other columns.

MR. BREWIN: The reason I am raising the point now is that sometime on the Custodian's files there appears a statement that somebody broke in and stole something, but there doesn't appear to be anything here.

MR. CHRISTIE: That is all.

It is submitted your honour, that the personal property that was sold was sold at its fair market value, and it is submitted with reference to the other personal chattels that the amount claimed for them is exorbitant.

I am filing as Exhibit 5 the Personal Property Summary.

(PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

MR. BREWIN: I don't know what this means on the Exhibit as just filed: "The file reveals that the above named as specified articles".

MR. CHRISTIE: I don't know either, your honour. I was bothered by it too; I don't know what it means.

Your honour, there is a document here which tells about the trunks and personal belongings being opened and inspected, and I think that might be of some help.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That may be filed.

MR. BRUNN: It is apparently a memorandum from the Quetalan's office as a result of their inspections.

(MEMORANDUM OF INSPECTION RE FRUITS, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6)

MR. GUERRIN: I think that is all, your honor, by way of defense.

MR. BRUNN: May I point out for the benefit of the record, your honor, that Exhibit 6, filed by my friend, was compiled by Mr. R. B. Hendrix, of the Quetalan's office and purports to be a description of various things found in these trunks, and the disposition of them. It shows some went to WACS and some were destroyed and some articles were sold by auction. I notice that various boxes had apparently been opened. Whether that means they had been opened by somebody before the inspection was made is not perhaps clear.

MR. CHEESMAN: Your honour, yesterday in the last case on the list, No. 1095, I rimd that there is another document to file, a chattel summary, and I spoke to Mr. Erwin about it and he is quite satisfied that it should be filed.
