Dear Madam:

In reply to your letter of November 24, 1946, regarding chattels declared by your late husband, Takashi SUGAWARA, we must advise that all saleable items were sold at public auction. The net amount realized from their sale, $29.46, was credited to your husband's account.

Takashi SUGAWARA also declared to the Custodian that he had a savings account in the Imperial Bank of Canada. The balance in this account, amounting to $17.98, was turned over to the Custodian by the Bank and credited to the account of Takashi SUGAWARA in this office.

A further credit of 29¢, being refund of security deposit for light was received from the B. C. Electric Railway Company Ltd. and placed in the account.

A claim was filed against the Estate of Takashi SUGAWARA in the amount of $50.00 to cover funeral expenses paid by the Department of Labour for your husband's burial. The total funds to the credit of the Estate, amounting to $47.73, were applied against this claim.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.
