Dear Sir:

We are informed that you have made enquiries through our representatives now in Tashme regarding four boxes marked in Japanese said to have been left at the Fairview Buddhist Temple, Vancouver.

An examination of your file discloses the fact that when you registered at the office of the Custodian on April 10th, 1942, you declared no property of any description in the protected area.

An examination of the file of your wife however, declares some chattels left at 715 West 7th Avenue. We presume you mean these articles, and if so, we would advise you that these chattels have been sold at auction in the name of your wife for the net sum of $6.99.
