LIABILITY SUMMARY

File No. 10636

June 4, 1947.

RE: Sasaki IWASAKI, Reg. No. 04241

IWASAKI:

The following claims have been filed against Mr. and Mrs.

Vancouver General Hospital written	$100.35
Komura Bros.	19.00
Dr. C. E. Brown written	7.50
Prov. Board of Health written	954.00
	1080.85

We wrote to Mr. and Mrs. IWASAKI regarding these claims on June 5/44 but have received no reply to our letter. As the only credit they have with the Custodian is the sum of $29.52 in the account of Mr. IWASAKI, representing net proceeds from sale of his radio, we are taking no further action with regard to these claims. The creditors will be advised to deal direct. Supplied with address July 12/47 Jm

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 10636

July 19, 1947

Re: IWASAKI, Sosaku, Reg. No. 04241

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on July 13, 1942. He had first been evacuated on March 15, 1942, but apparently returned to the city, as his declaration was signed at the Powell Street Bureau. It is probable that he finally was evacuated on September 8, 1942, as that is the date on which his wife was evacuated.

Of the chattels reported by this man in his declaration or at later dates, all may have been shipped to him. We have no evidence of shipment of the following apart from the fact that he has made no further requests for shipment of these:

1 Vacuum Cleaner
1 Set of Dolls

1 Set of Encyclopedia
1 Black Leather case containing 50 records.

When the shipping records requested from the Department of Labour have been received, those records can be checked for evidence of shipments made to this man. In the meantime the matter will be left as it is. A detailed report on his chattels is given in the Chattel Summary.

The radio surrendered by IWASAKI to the RCMP was sold by the Custodian on May 2, 1944, for the total sum of $35.00. Expenses were $5.48. The net credit of $29.52 was placed in his account. This money has been remitted to him upon receipt of a declaration of ownership.

An extract from the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association paper of June 18, 1942, shows that the household effects of the Powell Rooms, 556 Powell Street, were sold by Sosaku IWASAKI for the sum of $900.00. IWASAKI did not report ownership of these effects and the sale was not made through this office.

IWASAKI reported a debt due him from K. SHIMIZU, formerly of 556 Powell Street, in the amount of $125.00. The file reveals that this creditor was not identified by this office and no settlement of this reported indebtedness was made through this office.

The file of Tokino IWASAKI, file 8506, wife of Sosaku IWASAKI, reveals no property of any kind.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This summary is certified to be
in accordance with information
on file.

CHATTEL SUMMARY

File No. 10636

July 19, 1947

Re: IWASAKI, Sosaku, Reg.No.04241

On July 13, 1942, IWASAKI declared 2 trunks, containing one gramophone, records, carpenters tools and kitchen utensils left in the care of Mr. Nagasaki, House #1, Strawberry Hill, New Westminster.

On August 5, 1942, IWASAKI by Custodian Release requested shipment of one suit of clothes and trunk, one gas stove and Singer Sewing Machine. This file gives no indication of the shipment of these goods except that in letter received on January 7, 1943, IWASAKI stated that he had only one trunk remaining at the house of Kamakichi NAGASAKA (File 5599), the other trunk having been brought to Slocan by permission of the Custodian. From this we assume that the articles requested on August 5, 1942, were all shipped to him.

On January 27, 1943, IWASAKI requested shipment, by Custodian Release, of a Westinghouse Radio, Mantel Size, a wooden trunk containing kitchen utensils, a butter box and a record box of Japanese records. All items, except the radio, were stated to be at the home of K. NAGASAKA, New Westminster. Carbon copy of Custodian letter to the B. C. Security Commission, dated February 10, 1943, carries a notation in the writing of Mr. Green, that the goods had been shipped the week ending 23-10. Filed behind this letter is the copy of the Custodian Release, with notation that the radio was not shipped. In the absence of further information, we are assuming that the articles requested were shipped, except for the radio.

On June 4, 1943, a memorandum from Mr. Spain states that in the basement of 269 Powell Street (Komura Bros.) there had been notices the following items bearing the name "S.IWASAKI", one box marked dolls, 2 cartons contents unknown. This information, or some information regarding goods found in these premises appears to have been sent to Mr. IWASAKI on March 9, 1944, as he replied on March 14, 1944, to our letter of March 9, 1944, and he stated that a vacuum cleaner, a set of dolls and a set of Encyclopedia were his property. He asked that these be shipped to him. He was asked to refer to the B.C. Security Commission for the shipment. There is no evidence on file to show that this shipment was made. It is possible that shipment was made. None of these goods are shown by this file to have been sold.

On April 22, 1944, IWASAKI requested by Custodian Release shipment of a leather case containing 50 records, giving the location as the house of K. Nagasaka. This request for shipment was referred to Mr. S.C. Carlsen, Custodian Agent, by the B.C. Security Commission. There is no evidence on file to show that this shipment was made. In the absence of evidence to the contrary it is assumed that the goods were shipped. It is noted that a pencilled memo attached to the letter of February 10, 1943, states that Mr. Howel of B. & K., has canary cages and one record box for education of canaries. It may be that this is the box of records referred to in the Releases of January 27, 1943 and of April 22, 1944.

The radio referred to was surrendered to the RCMP. This was sold by the Custodian on May 2, 1944, for the net sum of $29.52. This sum has been remitted to IWASAKI.

This summary is certified to be
in accordance with information
on file.

DECLARATION AS TO LOST RADIO RECEIPT

I, Sosaku IWASAKI, of London, Ontario, do hereby declare:

That I owned a Westinghouse table model radio, Serial number 150997, and that I delivered this radio to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police on the 9th day of March, 1942, and obtained a receipt therefor.

That I have made a most diligent search for the said receipt. I have not found the same and the sole reason for the non-production of the receipt is that it has been lost or accidentally destroyed.

That I, Sosaku IWASAKI, the owner, am therefore now entitled to the proceeds of the sale of my radio.

Attached is Custodian please requesting the shipment of a case of records from a farm, R.R.#1, Strawberry Hill. Possibly you can pick this up on one of your inspection trips or when you are picking up other goods for auction, as it is not important enough to warrant a special trip. If the weight is 30 lbs. or less, it should go by express and it should be consigned to the B.C. Security Commission so as not to be delivered until all charges are paid. We have no deposit, and we do not pay transportation on such goods.

Please note his request for a radio in the possession of the R.C.M.P. Presume this has been sold, and that you will advise him direct. If not, advise this office, and shipment will be considered. Will not guarantee.
