PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 10641

Dec. 7/46

RE: Masako (Mrs. Fred Tokuhide) KOZUKI
Reg. No. 05793

This file reveals that Mrs. KOZUKI did not own any real property in any protected area of B. C. and did not carry any Fire Insurance.

CHATELS: Mrs. KOZUKI made her declaration to the Custodian on June 13/42 and was evacuated on June 15/42. She declared a bureau and a Singer sewing machine left at 19 E. King Edward Ave, in care of the tenant Mrs. Watson.

Her husband also declared these two articles along with a number of others left at 19 E. King Edward Ave. This property was owned by Otojiro KOZUKI, father of Fred Tokuhide KOZUKI, and the father's goods were also left at this house. Another son, Tetsuo, also had chattels stored there.

The tenant of this property, Mr. Watson, made certain shipments to the KOZUKI family, but none of these shipments apparently included the sewing machine or bureau declared by Mrs. KOZUKI. However Mr. Watson did state that numerous shipments had been made so it is more than likely that the sewing machine would be one of the first things the KOZUKI family would ask to have shipped. Mr. Watson has only given us one list which was presumably shipped at the one time, and no list of what goods were sent in other shipments.

The balance of the goods not shipped were removed to Willards auction. These were all sold in the name of the father, Mr. Otojiro KOZUKI, File 3331. There are a number of dressers sold in his goods and it is possible one might be the one declared by Mr. Fred KOZUKI, and the chest of drawers credited to the father might be the bureau declared by Mrs. KOZUKI. At any rate the father has been repatriated and was given all the funds standing to his credit with the Custodian prior to his departure.

STOCK: She declared one oil stock, royalty about $180.00. This was not brought under the control of the Custodian.

BANK

ACCOUNT: She declared a savings account in the Royal Bank of Canada in the sum of $800.00.

LIFE

INSURANCE: She declared a policy with the Monarch Life Co. in the sum of $1000.00 the beneficiary being her husband. This was not brought under the control of the Custodian.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Mr. Fred Tokuhide Kosuki,
Registration No. 05792,
Williams Lake, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of August 21st dealing with the claim from the Farmers' Products Distributing Company Limited. We have taken this up with the Solicitors concerned and will let you know in due course.

Turning to your request for your washing machine, this was not declared either by your father or your wife, but would, we presume, be stored in the locked room on the premises at 19 East King Edward Avenue. Please fill out the instructions given in our enclosed form letter #107 and send your application to the B. C. Security Commission. We consider that this application should also be signed by your father, as the premises belong to him and as you have not previously claimed the washing machine.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green,
Protection Department.
