Dear Sir:

I beg to inform you that since March of the year 1944, as I have managed my family by self supporting plan, I could not earn enough money to support my family for last many months.

Also my son who was the policy holder of The Prudential Co. asked me to get enough school reference books as there was no library here and his bicycle and private teacher's fee.

Only way to make up these expenses and shortage, it was to receive the cash surrender for his policy.

So, I decided to write to the Ins. Co about two months ago.

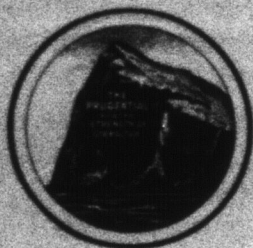

We waited for its answer for long time.

This morning I received a letter from Mr. R. A. Young of the Prudential Co. of America mentioning that he forwarded you the check for $107.85 on July 17th and advised me to ask you to send me the same.

I should be obliged if you would kindly favor me with a money order of the same amount to

Mrs. K. Takashima (my wife)
Orchard House No. 1 New Denver B.C.
as soon as possible. I am,

Yours sincerely,
J. Takashima.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of August 18th, I hasten to say that Orchard post office keeper Miss Nishikaze put several letters somewhere carelessly and she found your letter of Aug. 21st which contained cheque just now by my warning.

She used to be so idle and careless for which everybody has complained always.

Entreating your pardon for thus troubling you. I am

Yours sincerely,

J. Takashima
