Re: 2124 Gravelly Street.

As Mr. Sannosuke ENNYU signed a Quit Claim to the property, we were obliged to remove all personal property to storage at 604 Cordova St.

The chattels were mixed without identification marks, and separation under individual ownership impossible.

All chattels were moved under the ENNYU'S name as per inventory No. 368, copy of which has been placed on three files concerned.

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of your letter of March 26th and are now able to inform you that we have removed all personal property found in the house at 2124 Gravelly Street to the Custodian Central Warehouse at 604 Cordova Street.

Please consult the B. C. Security Commission at Sloean City and request them to prepare Custodian release forms for whatever you require shipped to Sloean. This is the correct procedure.

As Mr. Shikatanis' chattels were stored in your house, and moved to storage with yours, it will be advisable for him to prepare release forms likewise if he wishes his things sent to Sloean.

Yours truly,

Mr. Hannonuke GOTO,
Reg. No. 02688,
Alloca, B. C.

Dear Sir:-

You will recall that the effects stored at 2124 Graveloy Street consisted of your own effects and those of your sons-in-law, Takayuki Shikatani and Michionosuke Ashikawa. We were not able to identify these as they were not tagged and have, therefore, sold them at auction and provisionally credited the proceeds to your account. These amount to $178.17 as per our enclosures.

Please discuss this with your sons-in-law, decide to whom the money should be sent or how it should be divided, and send us a letter jointly signed by all three of you advising us of your decision.

Finally, will Mr. Takayuki Shikatani note that he has not yet answered our letter of February 27th referring to him a claim of $60.50 from the Acme Importers of Prince Rupert and that we will require an answer before these funds can be disbursed.

RE: Takayuki SHIKATANI

A letter from the above noted person, on file, dated June 19th, 1945, states:-

"When I was in Slocan I had my personal belongings sent to me".

He does not claim any chattels removed from his uncle's place at 2124 Graveley St.

Please therefore transfer the proceeds of auction No. 40, $34.55, to his uncle's account, Mr. Sannosuke ENNYU, File No. 8558.
