Dear Sir:

Yours of the 18th instant to hand, and we note that you have no property remaining in the protected area. Under these circumstances we are sending you form "J", which please complete and return at your early convenience.

We find that there is a claim of $50.00 lodged in this office against you by Takazo Watanabe.

If you admit that this claim is correct kindly send us a cheque for the amount outstanding. The cheque should be made payable to G. W. McPherson, Deputy Custodian.

Thanking you in advance.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of October 18th informing us that you had no property remaining in the protected area, we sent you a yellow 'No Property' declaration card, requesting you to fill up the card and return it to us at your earliest convenience. So far we have had no reply to that letter which was dated October 30th. As you have probably mislaid the card, we are enclosing a second card herewith and would very much appreciate your returning it to this office as quickly as possible, to enable us to complete our records.

Yours truly,
