Further to our letter of November 9th, we now enclose copy of letter from the Prudential Life Insurance Company which gives the present standing of the above policies. You will note that both these policies require reinstatement before the company will accept payment of the outstanding premiums.

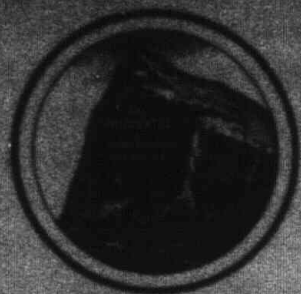

We have also been in touch with the local office of the company at 470 Granville Street. They advise that it will be necessary to pay the premiums up to date of reinstatement. From your account here we will be able to pay the further three weeks premiums over and above the sum of $33.50 shown in the copy of letter enclosed. This is computed at the rate of 25¢ per week on each policy. If you are in a position to furnish us with additional funds, we shall be glad to forward same to the insurance company.

We have asked the Prudential Insurance Company to forward the reinstatement forms direct to you for signature. They will communicate with us immediately the completed forms are received and we will forward to them the amount we are holding here.

Dear Mr. Gibson:

Premiums under these policies were paid to and including the week of August 17, 1942. In accordance with the terms of the policies, however, insurance protection is being continued for periods which will expire on the respective 20th policy anniversaries. If death occurs during the periods of protection, the amounts of insurance will become payable in full but if the insured is living at the end of the periods of protection, the insurance protection will terminate and cash settlements at maturity in the amounts shown will be paid.

Policy	Insurance Protection	Expiry Date	Cash Settlement at Maturity	Premiums in Arrears
109080484	$265.	March 8, 1957	$49.50	$16.75
110017455	265.	June 14, 1957	45.60	16.75

The policies may be reinstated at this time by the payment of the premiums in arrears of $16.75 under each contract, and the furnishing of evidence of insurability. After the payment of these amounts, the next premiums will become payable December 6, 1943. Application for reinstatement should be made through our office located at 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. When writing to the afore-mentioned office, the premium receipt book should be forwarded for the guidance of our representative. If the premium receipt book is no longer available, however, our representative should be notified that the policies were last in force in our Western Canada Office Account, Debit 508, and that premiums were last paid to and including the week of August 17, 1942.

Yours truly,

It will be necessary to pay these policies up to date in order to reinstate same.
