LIABILITY SUMMARY

File No. 10926

February 19, 1947

Re: Koryo TANAKA - Reg. #10150

The above Japanese person declared on his Form J card signed under date of June 19, 1942, that he had no liabilities but the following claims were lodged against him:

Oct. 24, 1942:	Workmen's Compensation Board	$ 5.25
Oct. 31, 1942:	B.C. Electric Railway Company	$ 3.29
Nov. 18, 1942:	B.C. Security Commission	$50.00
(funeral expenses in connection with burial of 6 year old daughter)

1. The Workmen's Compensation Board claim of $5.25 was submitted to Koryo TANAKA through the Camp Commandant on November 12th, 1942 and was later paid from funds remitted by Japanese through the Camp Commandant from Koryo Tanaka's Canteen Fund. Inadvertently this claim was also paid from funds in Yoshio Tanaka's (brother) account No. 12452 and in accordance with a memo to the Accounting Department dated March 6, 1943, when the second cheque was returned, namely that from account No. 12452, and in order to adjust the matter, Koryo Tanaka's account was credited with $2.87 (charging Yoshio Tanaka's account) and a cheque for $2.87 was issued to Yoshio Tanaka, thus clearing his account. (This assessment was levied in connection with the TANAKA Service Station and Garage at 375 Gore Avenue, operated by Yoshio and Koryo TANAKA).

2. The B.C. Electric Railway Company claim of $3.29 was submitted to Koryo Tanaka on January 10, 1943 and he replied under date of January 30th, 1943 that this was supposed to have been cleared up before the family moved from Vancouver. He advised the B. C. Electric on February 6, 1943 that as this Japanese had insufficient funds in his account to settle their claim they should get in touch with him direct. No further reference was made to this account until April 26, 1943 when Mr. Doust wrote to the B. C. Electric Company to ascertain if the account had been settled and they replied on May 4, 1943 that the account still remained unpaid. Another letter is being written to Tanaka now regarding settlement of this account. (Bal. of funds in expense $2.87 applied on this account)

3. The claim of $50.00 by the B.C. Security Commission was referred to Koryo Tanaka through the Camp Commandant on November 18, 1942 and on December 11th, 1942 a cheque was forwarded to us through the Camp Commandant in the above amount which we in turn paid to the B.C. Security Commission on December 15th, 1942. These funds were taken from Koryo Tanaka's Canteen Fund at Angler, Ontario, as agreed by him.

NO OTHER CLAIMS WERE LODGED OR FILE AGAINST THE ABOVE JAPANESE PERSON.

Registration No. 10169

No chattels were declared by either of the above Japanese persons but according to a letter on file dated December 17, 1942 from Mr. Fisher of the B. C. Security Commission, fifteen or more cases of tools were stored in Johnston's Storage either under the name of TANAGAR Auto Works, Y. TANAKA or K. TANAKA. Mr. Fisher stated that Slocan advised these tools were needed urgently for use in repairing their trucks.

The Custodian advised the B. C. Security Commission under date of January 18, 1943 that they had no objection to these tools being shipped to Slocan provided (1) a release was obtained from Mr. Yoshio TANAKA, (2) as neither of the above Japanese declared tools we were not sure of the rightful owner, therefore pending decision as to ownership we wished the tools to be released to the Slocan Supervisor to be held under his control for Japanese use at Slocan.

On January 29, 1943 (File 12452) the B. C. Security Commission stated their Supervisor at Slocan accepted the conditions laid down by the Custodian, that these tools be held under his control for the use of the Japanese, and they attached Custodian Release form signed by Yoshio Tanaka releasing the above-mentioned tools for use of the B. C. Security Commission Garage. The B.C. Security Commission also advised that Yoshio Tanaka claimed that "these tools belong to his brother and himself on a fifty-fifty basis". A note on our letter of February 10, 1943 on file 12452 states shipment of 15 boxes of garage tools was made on January 30th.

Agreement to use of tools by B.C. Security Commission garage at Slocan was given by Koryo Tanaka in a letter on his file dated March 4, 1943.

No further reference to these tools is made on either of the above files.

A review of these files does not reveal any other chattels belonging to the above Japanese person in the protected area.

re: Yoshio TANAKA.

Would you kindly note the Security Commission's letter of December 17th, a copy of which I have placed on your Interns File No. 1071 herewith. From this you will see that the Security Commission are anxious to have shipped to them the truck repairing tools now stored in Vancouver. for Shonan

Neither the intern in question nor his brother declared these tools, and there is, therefore, some doubt as to the exact ownership. May we suggest that to oblige the Commission prompt shipment be agreed to, with the proviso that pending further investigation these tools should be under the care of the Slocan supervisor and should not be removed from Slocan. Then, on determination by you of the exact share of the intern in this equipment, we could decide what further action should be taken.

Re: P/N A-326 - TANAKA, Koryo

Dear Sir:

The Workmen's Compensation Board has filed with us a claim for $5.25, representing adjustment of assessment for 1942, against the Tanaka Service Station and Garage. If this claim is in order, would you kindly advise us. This internee has no funds here but, according to the October list of bank balances at the Camp, he has $73.45 to his credit. Would you kindly ask the internee if he wishes to remit to us in payment of this claim.

You might advise him that we are also communicating with his brother, Yeshio Tanaka, and would appreciate it if you would ask Koryo Tanaka if this is the responsibility of his brother, or partly his responsibility.

Yours truly,

K.W. WRIGHT.
