Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of September 20th in regard to your radio and camera.

Dear Sir,

Thank you very much for sending me my camera. I received it in perfect condition on the 6th of this month.

In your previous letter you stated that you would send me the cheque for the sum realized from the sales of my radio and although it is over a week since the camera came, the cheque has not come yet.

Will you please check its disappearance with the postal authorities and trace its whereabouts.

I have enclosed a self addressed envelope. I will be grateful if you will write me telling me what happened to that cheque.

Very truly yours,

Kate Iguchi,

Mr. Katsu IGUCHI,
St. Peters Seminary,
London, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter advising that your camera had reached you in good condition.

Your cheque has gone forward. It was not sent as soon as the camera, because it was necessary to find out the cost of shipping the camera before requisitioning the cheque. The cheque should be in your hands by now. If you have not received it let us know and we will trace it.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.
