Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Re: Credit in the sum of $177.35 for chattels left at 500-508 Cordova Street

I have received a communication from the National Japanese Canadian Citizens Association advising that it has received a request from Mr. Tadayoshi Sakamoto to assist him in determining the wishes of the following named persons whose chattel properties were stored on the property of Tadayoshi Sakamoto at 500-508 Cordova Street, Vancouver, B. C.

Since no identification is possible as to the ownership of the aforementioned chattel properties sold for which there is a credit of $177.35 in the Custodian's books, the undersigned find Mr. Sakamoto's proposal for the division of the said sum acceptable, believing that he has made every effort to be as fair as possible to all concerned respecting their properties.

I hereby agree to the proposal to payment and authorize you to pay to the following named persons the amounts indicated so as to close your books in respect of this account.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 11821

July 31, 1946.

Re: Seizen HIGA, Reg. No. 09453

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on July 18, 1942. As his declaration was signed at Hastings Park, it would appear that he must have returned to the city after his first evacuation in March, 1942, and possibly he finally left the protected area at the same time as his wife, September 8, 1942.

In his declaration he reported 3 boxes of dishes, pots & pans, 4 chairs, one trunk of clothes, 1 Singer sewing machine, a gramophone and about 60 records, all stored at 306 Jackson Avenue, Vancouver, B. C. in the basement of the house. On March 23, 1943, Mr. Wills, of this office visited this address and found a compartment in the basement secured by two locks, which he considered safe storage. On May 28, 1945, HIGA requested shipment of his and his wife's books, stored at 306 Jackson Avenue. On May 31st, 1945, this office informed Mr. HIGA that none of his chattels were found in these premises, that thieves had broken into the basement and had ransacked boxes stored there. Unless HIGA disposed of some of the reported chattels before his evacuation (how this office is to find evidence of this is difficult to see), it would seem that all the chattels declared may be considered as missing.

He declared 15 $10.00 War Savings Certificates in his own possession. These did not come under the control of this office.

The account of Seizen HIGA was credited with $6.20 as refund of 1½ wage deductions for 1941. This sum is being remitted to him today.

This file reveals no other property. The file of Mrs. Seizen HIGA reveals no other property.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.
