GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 11854

August 6, 1946.

Re: SURINA (Mrs. Kunio) SHIMOHARA, #09653

This woman signed a declaration to the Custodian on August 20, 1942. She had been evacuated on May 11, 1942.

In her declaration she reported a quantity of effects left at Britannia Beach, B.C. Of these effects a pair of skis were shipped to her son, File No. 7926, and 3 boxes of kitchenware were shipped to her husband, File No. 8196. The remainder of the chattels were sold at auction in Vancouver and the net proceeds of $47.60 were credited to the account of this woman. This has been remitted to her. Besides the chattels declared a cross-cut saw, a mattress, a McClary range and some records were sold but these were apparently identified as the property of this woman. The chattels are covered more particularly on the Chattel Schedule following.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This file reveals no liabilities of any kind.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Gentlemen:

Re: Your File No.11854

We have your communication of August 27th regarding "SINGER" Sewing Machine which, in our Inventory of May 7th, 1942 showed as Package No.10, under the property of K. Shinohara.

Due to the fact that she now does not include the Sewing Machine and we are unable to find it among the personal belongings stored here and know that it has not been shipped from here, we believe that the original inventory is in error so far as this article is concerned.

There is, of course, the possibility that they owned a Sewing Machine here and sold it locally just before they left and after the inventory was taken, but we doubt if this is so.

The only other explanation would be that it might be a small machine and boxed with some of the other items stored here.

Yours very truly,
