Dear Sir:

re: Rinkichi TAGASHIRA
Reg. No. 07988

We have for acknowledgment your letter of the 22nd of May, 1944 regarding the claim lodged against you by the above named, amounting to $330.46.

As evidently this claim is outlawed and as there seems to be considerable difference of opinion as to whether the claim has been settled or not, we do not propose to take any further action and are closing our file in this connection. We are notifying TAGASHIRA to this effect.

Yours truly,

AMcA:ND

Dear Sir:

I have received your letter of the 2nd inst. stating that it is the Rinkichi TAGASHIRA & Company who has lodged a claim of $330.46 against me.

This matter dates back about twenty years ago when I owned a confectionery business in Vancouver, and had dealt with the above named concern.

When business slackened, I decided to sell my business and pay off my debts with the amount netted from the sale of it. I had store fixtures which cost me $175.00 and some stock left over so I figured I had enough to pay TAGASHIRA & Company my bill which, at that time, was not $330.46 as they claim now, but something a little over $100.00. The difference, of course, may be interest accumulated yearly since then.

However, before I could find anyone interested in buying my business, Tagashira came to my store one day and took away my store fixtures and what stock I had on hand at that time without consulting me and getting my consent and without having any legal warrant whatsoever to do so.

Naturally, I told him then I had every intention to pay him with the money realized from the sale of my business but I warned him that should he forcibly take my goods which he had no right nor warrant to do, I most certainly would not pay my debts to him. Notwithstanding this, he disregarded my warning, so I had no other course to take than the one I have taken.

Since then, the company's lawyer asked me to clear my debts with the firm but I refused giving him the same answer as I am giving you now cause I do not intend to pay this claim as you can clearly understand from my statement.

Yours truly,

J. Fukabori.
