Dear Sir:

re: Claims

We received your letter of the 9th inst. regarding two claims submitted by this office to you for payment.

re: $5.15 - B.C. Telephone Co.

We reported what you said to this company and now have a reply from them. In order that you will understand the situation we are quoting from their letter as follows:

"We note his remarks regarding the Three Dollar charge. This represents cost of installation of telephone instrument itself, and has no connection with cost of "box" and is not refundable.

We have no record of his having notified us to terminate his service, and the telephone was cancelled by ourselves for non-payment of the April account. However, as this party was evacuated April 7th we feel that under the circumstances it will be quite in order for him to pay seven days only April rental instead of thirty days as charged.

Corrected account is enclosed herewith in the amount of $2.25 representing seven days rental at $2.50 per month - $.60, plus long distance tolls $1.65. Trusting that the above explanation and adjustment will clear this matter satisfactorily with our former subscriber and that payment of $2.25 will be forthcoming in the near future."

Assuming that their statement is correct they have reduced the account to an amount that should meet with your approval. If you agree that this is correct please forward a remittance for $2.25 in settlement of this account.

re: $21.00 - Dr. Macmillan

We have reported your remarks to Dr. Macmillan and are awaiting his reply.

Yours truly,

B. R. Dusenbury,
