Mr. Ryuichi MINAMIMAYE,
Registration No. 02149,
Tappen, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Re: Purported wrongful credit to Hideichi MINAMIMAYE (Reg. No. 02142) in the amount of $30.00.

A review of your file and the file of the marginally-noted indicates the following:

- (a) Your letter of November 21, 1947, to this office states
" . . . 3 goods are incorrect. The . . . 150 fathoms cork line for $15.00; 300 fathom cork lines for $15.00 and 1400 Dogfish hooks for $10.00 do not belong to me
. . . "
- (b) This office transferred the sum of $30.00 from your account to the credit of Hideichi MINAMIMAYE upon learning that the 450 fathoms of cork line above-mentioned did not belong to you.
- (c) Upon writing to Hideichi MINAMIMAYE after your visit to this office on April 11, 1949, he noted in his acknowledgment of April 18, 1949, that he had declared cork lines when supplying this office with information re nets, and presumably considers the $30.00 in question rightly belongs to him.

In view of the fact that in November 1947 you were quite confident that these funds did not belong to you and evidently held this belief until April of this year, coupled with the fact that Hideichi MINA-MIMAYE did declare items of this nature, it is considered by the writer that this office cannot adjudicate in your favour at this late date.

A copy of this letter is being forwarded to Hideichi MINAMIMAYE under separate cover, and it is suggested that as you both live in the same village, discussion between yourselves would most likely result in a more adequate settlement of the ownership of these funds than could be obtained through the efforts of this office.

Mr. Hideichi MINAMIMAYE,
Reg. No. 02142,
Box 404,
Kamloops, B. C.

Dear Sir:

On December 20th, 1948, we sent to you a cheque for $183.47 from the sale of fishing gear and chattels. This amount included $30.00 transferred from the account of Ryuichi MINAMIMAYE, from the sale of 150 fathoms cork line and 300 fathoms cork line.

Ryuichi MINAMIMAYE called on us today and now states that the cork line rightly belonged to him, and he has requested us to write to you and ask you to return to us the $30.00 included in the above cheque.

Our statement to you of December 5th, 1947, will indicate that an additional $30.00 had been added to your account. If you agree that this $30.00 rightly belongs to Ryuichi MINAMIMAYE, please forward to us your cheque for this amount.

Yours truly,

C. H. Reed,
Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

Re: Claim of Hideichi MINAMIMAYE, Reg. No. 02142.

I am acting for the Dominion Government in connection with the Japanese Property Claims Commission. Pursuant to the instructions of the Hon. Mr. Justice Henry I. Bird, Commissioner, I beg to advise you that the grounds upon which I am basing my reply to this claim, in so far as I am able to determine at the present time, will be the following contentions:

1. The claimant's chattels were so inadequately segregated from the chattels of other persons of the Japanese race that, in most cases, it has been impossible to allocate the proceeds of the sale to the individual owner. There are certain funds in Suspense Account and, if the claimant can sufficiently identify his chattels, any of those for which there is money in the Suspense Account will be allowed to the claimant.
2. The fishing vessel, having been sold through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee, does not come within the terms of reference.
3. All items sold were sold at a fair market value.

Yours truly,

John W. G. Hunter.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

Re: Hideichi MINAMIMAYE,
Registration No. 02142

Chattels:

Hideichi MINAMIMAYE did not file his JP Form until Nov. 19th, 1943 at which time he declared:

In Vancouver Cannery Warehouse, B.C. Packers Ltd.:

Gramophone & records	1 table
1 bed	cooking utensils
cups and saucers	dishes
plate	cupboard
closet	crockery
stove	manila rope
chairs	cloths
tools.

Please refer to the Chattel Schedule for disposition of these. The net proceeds from the sale of these goods at auction amounted to $85.23.

There were quite a few MINAMIMAYEs living at the Vancouver Cannery, therefore the chattels and nets were rather difficult to distinguish. Chattels which sold for $15.74 have been credited to the Suspense Account and transferred from the account of the above-named Japanese as it was indefinite to whom they belonged.

Hideichi declared on his JP Form various nets. These are dealt with in a Net Statement. Two cork lines belonging to Hideichi were sold and the funds were credited and remitted to Ryuichi MINAMIMAYE, also living at Tappen, B.C. On Nov. 21/47 Ryuichi wrote to this office stating that these two lines did not belong to him (copy of letter on file). This will have to be settled between the two Japanese. Both are living in Tappen, B.C.

See Specialists of Feb 25, 1948, with few exceptions goods moved to storage were sold. Unaccounted for goods (missing) were not found. By Custodian.

Specified Articles:

Hideichi MINAMIMAYE owned a boat, the "Nawa" which was sold by the Japanese through the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee. This boat was valued by the owner at $1500.00, there is no appraisal on this boat; it was sold for $950.00. The funds from the sale of this boat were paid directly to H. MINAMIMAYE on Sept. 19/42 by the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee.

There was no other property declared by this Japanese, and no other property of any kind is revealed on this file.

Chattels which sold for $15.74 have been credited to the Suspense Account and transferred from the account of the above-named Japanese as it was impossible to establish the identity of the owner at this date.

Hideichi declared on his JP Form various nets. These are dealt with in a Net Statement. Two cork lines belonging to Hideichi MINAMIMAYE were sold and the funds were credited and remitted to Ryuichi MINAMIMAYE, also living at Tappen, B.C. On Nov. 21/47 Ryuichi wrote to this office stating that these two lines did not belong to him (copy of this letter on file). This will have to be settled between the two Japanese.

Specified Articles: Hideichi MINAMIMAYE owned a boat, the "Nawa" which was sold by this Japanese through the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee. This boat was valued by the owner at $1500.00, there is no appraisal on file; it was sold for $950.00. These funds were paid directly to H. MINAMIMAYE on Sept. 19/42 by the J.F.V.D.C.

There was no other property declared by this Japanese, and no other property of any kind is revealed on this file.

The above Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file:

DEFENCE BRIEF

Hideichi MINAMIMAYE

File No. 12148

Case No. 6

Kamloops
9 Dec. 1947

PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM

(All claims shown are Gross)

Claim for Fishing Vessel $1,300. withdrawn, sold by J.F.D.B.
(Trans. Page 2)

Claim 1 Household Goods

$547.10

Goods value	$468.10	sold by auction for $167.85 no record
"	79.
	$547.10

J. P. Form was signed 6 months after evacuation.

No chattels were declared until 1943.

Claimant stated that all his goods were left in a locked room at the Vancouver Cannery as he had no suitable place to store them and the key was left with the Cannery. He admits that no arrangements were made with them as he expected to be returning very soon.

The Manager, Mr. Gillespie, gave him permission to do this and said they would be looked after.

It is submitted that all articles sold were sold for a fair market value.

Claim 2 Nets & Lines

$900.

Goods value	$430.	sold for $227.50 abandoned, of no value missing. no record at any time.
"	80.00 95.
"	170.00 190.
"	63.99 185.
	$900.

Claimant stated that he made the nets himself and the value given is what he considers they were worth after allowing for depreciation.

Nets value $190., which were appraised at $100., were lost.

Nets and lines value $70. were sold for $30. This amount was credited to a relative named RYIUCHI MINAMIMAYE, who stated that they did not belong to him. The Custodian wrote asking for the return of this amount but no refund has been made.

*30.00 returned
+ credited to 21 Minamimaye
- 22 correspondence
Kas 4/47, Jan 8/48
2.6 4/48, 4/49*

It is submitted that it was not the Custodian's mistake, the mistake, if any, arose from the manner in which the goods were stored at the cannery and in the manner in which the Japanese collectively stored their goods.

Custodian did neither admit nor deny responsibility. If this property sold did belong to claimant and the money has been given to the wrong person, then a mistake has been made.

Kanagawa, N. C.,
December 9th, 1947.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF HIROSHI MIYAMOTO

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

J.V.G. HENDER, Esq.,

appearing for the Dominion Government.

J.A. MacLENNAN, Esq.,

appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,

Secretary.

G.H.R. WYTON, Esq.,

T.P. HARRISON, Esq.,

Official Reporter.

H. Nishimura,
In Chief.

MR. MACLENNAN: The next claim is No. 10, my lord, on the list, if it meets with your Lordship's approval, the claim of Hideoichi Nishimura.

MR. HUTTON: Excuse me, my lord, but before we go on with this case I should like to move that the fishing vessel be struck from the claim, as it was sold by the Japanese Fishing Disposal Committee.

MR. MACLENNAN: My lord, I was going to speak to it myself. I have verified that. My original information was it had been sold by the Custodian, but it was disposed of prior to it coming into the hands of the Custodian, so I am abandoning the claim in connection with the fishing vessel.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is the ($1500.00 claim)?

MR. MACLENNAN: That is right, my lord. My lord, in abandoning a claim for a fishing vessel like the present claim, I take it if the reference is withdrawn, and I believe representations are being made to Ottawa to have it extended, that this claim may be revived. They are abandoned, only subject to that.

THE COMMISSIONER: Only in light of the terms of reference as they now stand.

MR. MACLENNAN: Yes, my lord.

HIDEOICHI NISHIMURA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. MACLENNAN:

Q Witness, you were a fisherman at San Island

R. Hinchey,
In Chief.

Before the evacuation?

At Yes.

Q Were you evacuated in May of 1942?

A Yes, the 9th of May.

Q And did you leave some furniture and tools at San Island at the time of evacuation?

A Yes.

Q And fishing nets?

At Yes.

Q Where were these articles left?

A Vancouver Cannery, the B. C. Packers.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Does this take into account all the articles enumerated in 1 to 9?

MR. MACLENNAN: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: All chattels left at the Vancouver Cannery?

MR. MACLENNAN: Yes, my lord.

Q Where exactly in the B.C. Packers' cannery was the furniture left?

A He says he left it in the cannery.

Q In a room?

At He left it

20 in a room.

Q Was the room locked?

At Yes, it

Q Who had the key?

At The

watchman of the cannery.

Q Percy Dickson?

At Something

of that nature.

Q That is according to his form.

THE COMMISSIONER: By the way, what was the date of his evacuation again?

30 MR. HUNTER: The 9th of May, my lord.

H. Himmelmayer,
In Chief.

THE COMMISSIONER: The 9th of May, 19--

MR. MEYER: 1942, my lord.

MR. HAZLEMAN: O witness, I am showing you what has been called the J.P. form, on which appears the signature of Hideochi Himmelmayer. Is that your signature? At Yes, he wrote that.

MR. HAZLEMAN: The date of that J.P. declaration, my lord, is the 19th of November, 1943, and it bears the stamp of the Custodian of the evacuation section, November 23rd, 1943.

THE COMMISSIONER: The date of the form is the 19th of November, is it?

MR. HAZLEMAN: The 19th of November, 1943, that is the date of it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HAZLEMAN: And the Custodian's office stamp bears date November 23rd, 1943. My lord, I would like to read out the statement of the personal property owned contained in that J.P. declaration form. In Vancouver Cannery warehouse, B.C. Packers Limited, gramophone records, one table, bed, cooking utensils, cups and saucers, dishes, cupboard, chest, crockery, stove, Manila rope, shoes, clothes, tools. In Vancouver Cannery net-house (all tagged) six sockeye nets fathom length 200, 400, 400, 100, 70, 200. Silk net, fathom length 150. 4 lead-lines, 100, 150, 200, 150. 3 cork-lines, fathom length 150, 75, 300. Dogfish hooks and lines and dogfish winch.

9
H. Himmelfarb,
in Chief.

Q Witness, you apparently didn't complete that declaration form until November, 1943, and you left Vancouver in May of 1942. How did you happen to make the claim, or at least file the declaration in 1943?

A You wish to know why he filed it in 1943, is that it?

Q Yes, instead of 1942.

10 A When he left, he left his stove in the custody of the packing company.

Q We will get it this way --

A He has some papers here.

Q All right. I don't think we can get the answer to that. I thought he had a document showing that, my lord, but he doesn't have. At any rate, the evidence is he didn't file this declaration until November of the following year, after evacuation.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, but he said on evacuation his chattels were left in the custody of the B.C. Packers.

MR. HEDDERLEY: That is right, my lord.

Q Witness, will you look at this list which I am producing to you? Did you prepare this list of furniture and kitchen utensils and carpenter's tools?

At Yes.

Q You have shown certain prices opposite, dealing with the furniture?

At Yes.

30 Q Now, what are these prices? Are those the costs, or your idea of the value at the time of

6
R. Nimsingye,
In Chief.

evacuation?

THE COMMISSIONER: Just one moment. Are you proposing to put in this list as an exhibit?

MR. MacLENNAN: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Why not do so now, then we have something on record that we can use?

MR. MacLENNAN: I tender this as Exhibit 1.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

THE COMMISSIONER: Is this a list of all the chattels?

10 MR. MacLENNAN: That is all the furniture. The fishing gear is on a separate list.

Q Witness, referring to Exhibit 1, would you tell what those figures opposite the items of furniture at the top represent; whether they are the cost or value at the time of evacuation, or what?

A He said that he has put those prices there, making a reduction for depreciation.

Q Is that your idea of the fair value at the time of evacuation?

10 A Yes.

Q That applies to all the figures? The same thing applies to all the figures on that list?

A Yes, that is right, yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: When he said earlier on that this is the price, less depreciation, does he mean cost less depreciation, or what was he referring to?

A It was the cost price less that.

MR. MacLENNAN: Q: The cost price less depreciation?

20 A Yes.

H. Himmingsway,
In Chief.

Q Can you give us the cost price of some of these articles? Just one minute, Mr. Interpreter, what is he saying?

A I am trying to get him to give me the cost price of some of these things, and I asked him what, for instance, was the price on the Manila rope, and he said the Manila rope was new and he hadn't drawn anything from that item.

10 Q I think we are getting nowhere that way. Try this; do you know what the two bed sets cost you? Do you know what they cost you -- the two bed sets? Just ask him to answer yes or no. Do you know what they cost you?

THE INTERPRETER: Perhaps your friend could assist in this matter.

(Question Interpreted by Mr. Himmingsway).

THE INTERPRETER: A: He doesn't know. He has forgotten.

20 Q How did you arrive at $58.00 for the two bed sets? How did you arrive at that figure?

A He says that is cheaper than the cost price, and it is an estimate on his part of the cost of these beds.

Q Is the $58.00 an estimate of the cost of the beds?

A Yes, he said so.

Q Ask him again, because he said something different before.

A: He says that that is his estimate of the price.

Q The cost price?

30 A: Not the cost price. Not the cost price, the price after

H. Himmelfarb,
in Chief.

they have been used.

Q I see. Then we will get it this way. Is it his idea of the value or the price at the time of the execution?

A Yes.

Q What kind of bad sets were they? Describe them. Are they iron or what?

A Double beds.

Q Iron or wood?

A Ordinary iron.

20 Q Double beds. He has made an illustration of what they are.

Q All right, ordinary iron double beds. When did you get the specimens?

A 1935.

Q What did you pay for it?

A Around $75.00.

Q How many Japanese records did you have?

A He had about one hundred, but some of them were cracked.

Q How many perfect ones, not cracked?

20 A About twenty or thirty good ones.

Q How many English records -- good ones?

A He said he had about forty, but because they were English records he wasn't able to know whether they were good or bad.

Q I mean were they cracked or not?

A No, he didn't have any.

Q They were not cracked?

A They were not cracked.

Q What was in the aluminum pot set for which you are claiming $25,000?

20

H. Hinnimayo,
In Chief.

A What was in 109

Q Yes, how many pieces? What did it consist of?
It was a set? A He says he doesn't know.

Q How many pie plates did you have?

A He had twelve and one was broken so he had eleven.

Q How many hammers did you have?

A Two.

Q How many crushers? A Three.

20 Q When did you buy the microscope? How long did you have it? A 1939. He bought it in 1939.

Q Do you recall what you paid for it?

A $27.00.

Q For what kind of a heater are you claiming $30.00? Is it a stove or an electric heater?

A Well, it looks like a kitchen range to me.
That is what he has written down there.

Q He has a picture there that looks like a small stove. A With two rings.

Q Do you know what that heater cost you?

A He says $24.00.

Q It cost you $24.00? A Yes.

Q How do you arrive at a claim for $30.00 here?

A There are two heaters down here, Mr. MacLennan, and he is muddled up between them. You see,
there is a heater here for $3.00 and another heater here for $30.00 and I think he has got muddled up between those two heaters.

H. Hinnimayo,
In Chief.

Q Witness, the heater which cost you $25.00, you valued at $3.00 here, is that right?

A He says he thinks so, but his son made that up.

Q I see. What was the other kind of a heater you had that you are claiming $30.00 for?

A He says it was a large four-ring stove.

Q A large four-ring stove, burning coal and wood, I suppose?

At Yes.

10 Q Is that right? At Yes.

Q How much Manila rope was there?

A He says it was a new coil which he hadn't used at all. He doesn't know exactly.

Q What did it cost you?

A He says he has put it down. It is correct, the price he has put down here.

Q It cost you $10.00? At Yes.

MR. HUGHESMAN: I think, my lord, I will leave that part of it.

20 Q You are also claiming for nets and lines, are you, according to this list?

A Yes.

Q You made up that list?

A Yes.

MR. HUGHESMAN: I will mark it as Exhibit 2, my lord.
(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

THE COMMISSIONER: Q When was this list made up?

A He says do you mean this actual list or what? I think somebody has typed that list out. Do you mean this actual list?

30 MR. HUGHESMAN: Q When you first saw me the other

H. Himmelfarb,
In Chief.

day, you had a handwritten list which I asked you to have typed out. Would you tell him that?

A Yes.

Q When did you make up the handwritten list you first showed me? A: When he was executed.

Q Now, referring to Exhibit 2, there are descriptions of notes and figures opposite. What do these figures represent, the cost or the evacuation value, or what?

A The price at the time of evacuation.

THE COMMISSIONER: He means the cost at that time, does he?

MR. MACLENNAN: Q: Do you mean what it cost you at that time, or what you thought you could get for it if you were willing to sell it?

A He said that those prices were based on the length of time for which the note had been used. Otherwise he had made a discount after use.

Q I see. The first note on the list you have in brackets there that you have used is four days. Is that true? A: Yes.

Q Now, did you buy these notes now at one time, or did you make them? A: Do you mean this one note or the whole lot?

Q We will deal with the one.

A He made it himself.

Q Did you make all these notes?

A Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: How many were there? How many are

H. Himmelfarb,
In Chief.

we concerned with?

MR. HADLUM: We are concerned with six, my lord.
The Custodian probably will say we are concerned with only three, because he has unaccounted for three.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is to say three have disappeared?

MR. HADLUM: Yes, my lord.

Q How old were the other notes? How long had they been used -- the not marked opposite No. 2?
I will get at it this way; the first not you mentioned was only used four days.

A One year -- one season.

Q Is he referring to the other not? That is not
No. 2? At That is not
No. 2.

Q And what about not No. 3?

A One season.

Q And No. 4?

At No. 4, one

season.

Q One season?

At Yes, one

season.

Q And No. 5?

At That isn't

a silk line, is it -- No. 5, Mr. Hadlum?

Q I don't know whether it is the silk line or not. How long was the silk one used?

A The silk line he used for one season.

THE COMMISSIONER: We are away from notes, are we?
Is this a line or a not?

MR. HADLUM: A silk not, but apparently he can't identify which is the silk net.

THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, I see.

THE INTERPRETER: There is nothing down here called a silk net.

MR. HASKINIAN: There was a silk net that your Lordship will recall was mentioned in the J.P. declaration.

MR. HAYES: Will your Lordship just find out whether there was a silk line as well?

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, please that, will you? He refers to a silk line at one time and a silk net at another. I want to be sure he is talking about the same thing.

MR. HASKINIAN: Q: Did you have a silk net?

A Yes, he did.

Q And it is on this list, Exhibit 27

A He says he thinks it is, but he doesn't know where.

Q Did you have a silk line?

A Yes.

20 Q Now, is the silk line on the list?

A He says he thinks that it is on the list, but he doesn't know where it is.

Q You are talking about a silk net and a silk line. What is the difference? Mr. Interpreter, you might ask him if he is using the terms meaning the same thing, a silk line and silk net.

A He doesn't understand what I am saying.

30 MR. HASKINIAN: My lord, probably my friend won't object, my instructions are that the witness

14

H. Hinchanga,
In Chief.

means by 'silk line' the same as 'silk net'. There is only the one and I think that the Interpreter has been using the same word for both interchangeably and that is possibly the explanation that the witness is confused as to what is meant by the word "line".

THE COMMISSIONER: Can your Interpreter clear it up for me?

MR. HEDLIAN: Just the net itself, but the lines aren't.

THE COMMISSIONER: By "line", you mean a fishing line?

MR. HEDLIAN: No, when you speak of "line" that is the lead-line and the cork-line.

THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, I follow you.

MR. HEDLIAN: Q: On Exhibit 2, are those figures that you have placed opposite the items your idea of the value at the time of the conviction?

THE INTERPRETER: A: He says if anything he thinks they are a little cheap.

THE COMMISSIONER: You have not had the list of fishing gear marked as an exhibit yet, have you?

MR. HEDLIAN: I believe it is Exhibit 2, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: Yes, Exhibit 2, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is that included in it?

MR. HEDLIAN: The furniture is Exhibit 1, and nets with lines Exhibit 2.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well. I missed it apparently.

MR. HEDLIAN: Q: Did you receive this document from the Custodian, dated February 4th, 1944, headed "Net Statement"?

R. Himmelfarb,
In Chief.

A Yes, I did.

MR. MacLENNAN: With your Lordship's approval, I will put in a copy so it will be exactly in accordance with the copy I have supplied my friend, because I notice there is no date on the copy which I have supplied my friend. This came from the Custodian's office. I probably better put the exact statement in as it is.

THE COMMISSIONER: What is the date of it?

10 MR. MacLENNAN: February 4th, 1944. We will mark that as Exhibit J, my Lord.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. J).

Q How did you get this Exhibit J? Did it come in the mail, or did someone give it to you, or what? At It came by post.

MR. MacLENNAN: My Lord, I am producing that. This purports to be a net statement from the Custodian showing in part the description of the goods -- the note -- the Japanese value and the purchase price, making a total sales of 225.00, and then below that unaccounted for are three notes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Do you concede, Mr. MacLENNAN, that this does account for everything the man left, with the exception of the three notes?

MR. MacLENNAN: No, my Lord. Some of the goods, such as the carb-line and lead-line, are missing, but the Custodian there apparently is only referring to the note. He has accounted

H. Ninomiya,
In Chief.

for three notes and he has unaccounted for three. Mr. Hunter, may I have the Custodian's statement of September 4th, 1947. My lord, my friend has produced a statement headed "Not Statement" from the Custodian's office dated December 4th, 1947, not September 4th, in which it appears that a cork-line, 150 fathoms, valued by the Japanese at $25.00, was sold for $15.00, and that a cork-line of 300 fathoms, valued by the Japanese at $45.00, was sold for $15.00, but that money was credited to one Ryinchi Ninomiya, and sent to him, and the note is, "These funds will have to be sent to Hideochi by Ryinchi", a refund of $30.00 to this man. I had better find out who Ryinchi is, if I can.

Q Do you know a man with your own last name whose first name is Ryinchi?

A Yes, he knows him. He was in the same block.

Q Is he any relation of yours? Is he related to you?

A Yes, he is a relative of some sort.

Q Is he a close relative? Is he a son?

A He says that he is a relative.

Q A distant relative, isn't that the expression?

A Yes.

Q Did Ryinchi ever give you any money for those cork-lines for which you are claiming?

A No.

MR. HASKINIAN: My lord, on the same statement of December 4th, 1947, under the heading,

H. Himmelmayer,
In Chief.

"Unaccounted For" appears a description of this note: "Package 5/30 x 7 x 60, 200 Satsuma, Japanese value $150.00, Appraised $100.00, Lost after taken into Custodian's possession".

THE COMMISSIONER: Now, just one moment. Let us dispose of these remittances apparently made in error. What position does the Government take in that regard? Does it acknowledge an error on the part of the Custodian?

13 MR. HERTZ: Well, my lord, if it is an error if we sent money to somebody who wasn't entitled to it and should have sent it to someone else, then I don't see how we can refuse liability or responsibility for it.

THE COMMISSIONER: You are not yet conceding it was an error, is that it?

MR. HERTZ: At this point I am not sure that it was an error. I don't wish to go into our defense here, but these things were left at a caddy with many other Japanese' possessions and they were all mixed up and there was no way of knowing who they belonged to. There would be perhaps just a rumour on them. There were perhaps fifteen Himmelmayer's out there, so I don't know if it is an error. I think they were lucky to have anything accounted for the way they left them.

MR. HAZLEMAN: My lord, in these circumstances I would ask for leave to file this statement of December 4th, 1947, and my friend could remove

H. Himmelfarb,
In Chief.

it from the file.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes I think you ought to do that.
The record is going to be very difficult to follow if you do not do it that way.

MR. HALLIDAY: I believe that statement is fully marked Exhibit 4.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. HALLIDAY: As witness, you have mentioned on your statement, Exhibit 2 --

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Just before you put your question,
I would like to have this clear for the record,
Mr. Hunter says there was no error by the Custodian. The mistake, if any error, was from the manner in which the goods were stored at the customs by the numerous Japanese fishermen.

MR. HUNTER: That is not quite what I mean, my lord. There may have been a mistake. All I am saying is it isn't the Custodian's mistake.
That is, obviously if this property did belong 20 to this claimant and we have sent money to the wrong person, the person other than the claimant for the sale of the property, then a mistake has been made. I merely state I don't believe it is the Custodian's or the Government's mistake.

THE COMMISSIONER: Then it arose through the manner in which the Japanese collectively stored their goods?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: I want to get that quite clear in 20

H. Himmelfarb,
in Chief.

once it should get into the press. I am sorry to interrupt you, Mr. MacLennan.

MR. MACLENNAN: That is quite all right, my lord.

Q Witness, Exhibit 2 refers to an item "Vineh (dogfish)", $62.00.

A Yes.

Q Where did you leave that?

A I left that at the Vancouver Cannery.

Q Was it under lock and key when you left?

20 A Yes.

Q With this same man, Percy Dickson?

A Yes.

Q Were your packages marked in any way, that is your articles?

A Yes.

Q How were they marked?

A There was a tag on one side. His name was written in English, and on the other side in Japanese.

Q Was there any other mark or brand of any kind?

A They were in a box and there was a brand written 20 on the outside of the box -- a brand or
"mark" they call it -- a mark.

THE COMMISSIONER: Do I understand you to say that all his goods were put in a box? That includes net, gear, and everything else?

MR. MACLENNAN: Q: Were the nets and fishing gear put in boxes?

A: No, the nets were hung up. He is getting away from the fact and going on to these things here in this list (indicating). The nets were hung up and tagged.

20
H. Hinnimayo,

Cross-Exam.

- Q And what was in the box with this brand on it?
A The things on this list here (indicating).
Q On Exhibit 1. That is the kitchen utensils.
All right, fine. Your witness, Mr. Hunter.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

- Q Mr. Hinnimayo, what arrangement did you make with the B.C. Packers for the storage of this furniture and fishing equipment?
10 A He made no arrangement at all because he thought that he was coming back very shortly.
Q Why did he leave it there if he made no arrangement?
A1 He thought he would be able to go fishing again, and he left it in a convenient place.
Q Why was that convenient? Had he been using that place?
A2 No. He had kept it at his own place before.
Q Well, why did you suddenly go over and leave your equipment at a cannery? What reason was behind it?
20 A3 He had no suitable place of his own where he was staying and for that reason he left it at the B. C. Packers because there was room there where it could be left in safe custody.
Q Did they know you were leaving it there?
A Yes, they understood perfectly.
Q Did they agree to have it left there?
A They said it was all right and that it would be looked after.
30

MR. HENRY: Q How was this arrangement made? Did he talk to some individuals?

Q And did the manager give him permission to leave his equipment and furniture there?

Q And did the manager tell him it would be safe there? What is the answer?

Q That it would be shared first?

A Your question was, did the B. C. Packers' man say it would be safe for him to leave it there?

Q Yes. Did he say it would be locked after?

20 A Yes, he would look after it.

Q And with whom did he make the arrangement to put it in a locked room?

A. You are not referring, sir, to the note now, are you?

Q Yes, I am referring to the furniture and notes.

A. Bentley Gentry.

Q Did Charley Orsby tell him his equipment and furniture would be kept in a locked room?

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Would you mind clearing up the

H. Hinningsyde,
Crown Counsel.

Perry Dicknell is? That is the name in the chain form. Is he confusing it with Charley Crisby?

MR. HUNTER: I thought he was the janitor or something.

THE COMMISSIONER: Are there two different men?

MR. HUNTER: I will try and find out.

Q Are there two separate people in the B.C. Packers? Do you know one called Perry Dicknell and the other called Charley Crisby?

10 A He knows them both, yes. They are two separate people.

MR. MacLENNAN: My lord, to assist in this matter my understanding is that the Charley Crisby he is mentioning is Charles Gillespie, who is the manager, I understand, of the B.C. Packers. He means by Crisby a man named Gillespie.

THE COMMISSIONER: I am glad you are here to interpret.

MR. MacLENNAN: I had assistance, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: Q: Why did you send the Custodian a J.P. form?

A: Have you got a J.P. statement so I can show him? He wouldn't understand it. Because he received a letter from the Custodian, and also he received a letter from the B.C. Packers.

Q Yes. Is that the letter there (indicating)? I don't know whether this has much significance, my lord. I would suggest it be filed as Exhibit 5.

THE COMMISSIONER: Let us have a look at it for a moment, we might read it into the record. I under if it would not be wise, Mr. Himmelsberg question the witness as to how this letter came to be written to him. It appears from the contents that he had made some inquiries of the R.O. Packard.

MR. HUSTON: My lord, that is one reason why I wanted to put it in as an exhibit.

THE COMMISSIONER: We will mark it as Exhibit 5.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

20 MR. HUSTON: Q: Mr. Himmelsberg, this letter was written on March 28th, 1944, and it is in reply to a letter which you had written to R.O.
Packard. Will you tell us what you had written to R.O. Packard?

A He says he doesn't think this is a reply to a letter he sent to the R.O. Packard.

Q Will he explain why they say, "Replying to your letter inquiring about note and twine?"

A Well, he said he sent two letters to the R.O.
20 Packard, but he doesn't think that is a reply to it.

Q Why do you not think it is a reply when you sent two letters?

A I don't understand what he is saying.

Q What subject were you concerned with when you wrote the R.O. Packard? "But were your letters about?"

A: I am afraid

I can't understand this.

THE COMMISSIONER: Can you get any help from your 30 Interpreter, Mr. MacLennan?

24
H. Himmelfarb,
Crown-News.

MR. MORLAHNE: It seems he wrote a letter to Charley Gillespie as a friend, not as the manager of the B.C. Packers. He was just inquiring how things were back there generally. He wasn't asking particularly about his own stuff but how the conditions were back there -- not those rats and stuff.

THE COMMISSIONER: No particular inquiry regarding rats or stuff?

20 MR. MORLAHNE: No. He wrote to Charley Gillespie, not to the B.C. Packers, and this letter is from the B.C. Packers and he doesn't seem to understand it is signed by Charley Gillespie and is therefore a reply to his inquiry.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is it signed by Mr. Gillespie, Mr. Secretary?

THE SECRETARY: It is signed by Mr. Gillespie, my lord, "Production Department".

MR. MORLAHNE: But I believe he has written a letter and he thinks this is from the B.C. Packers.

MR. HESTER: 25 When did you write to the B.C. Packers or to Mr. Gillespie?

THE INTERPRETER: A: He says he can't recall exactly at the moment.

Q How long before receiving that letter?

A About two months.

Q When you wrote to Mr. Gillespie, you assumed that your property was still in the custody of his company?

30 A Yes.

Q Mr. Himmelsberg, what is the life of a fishing net?
Let us take it in different stages. First of all, what is the life of a fishing net which is hung up to dry and dried and just left hanging?
How long is that fishing net good for?

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: What is his answer, that he does not know?

A No, he does not understand what I mean. He says about three months, but he hasn't got what I mean.

MR. HUNTER: Q: I will accept that answer. Perhaps you might ask him how many seasons.

THE INTERPRETER: I think I must call for assistance again, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well. Mr. MacLennan, can you assist with your interpreter?

(Mr. Kobiaschi to witness).

MR. MACLENNAN: Now then, Mr. Kobiaschi might tell what he asked the witness and the answer he got.

MR. KOBIASCHI: I am asking him how many seasons he could use a new net, and he hasn't answered
yet. He says it depends on what kind of a net it is because the length of the season differs.

MR. MACLENNAN: I don't think he would qualify as an expert, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: Q: I think we can probably find out something about this. Let's take the type of nets he had. Can you tell me from that whether he could fish a certain type of fish -- salmon or something?

26
H. Hinnimaya,
Cross-Exam.

MR. HERRASHER: They are all salmon, but it is sockeye, coho and spring. The only ones I can identify are sockeye, coho and spring.

Q Perhaps you could tell us what those are and I will ask him.

MR. HERRASHER: Well, the seven inch would be spring, and six and a half -- six and six and a half would be coho, and five and three-quarters and five and seven-eighths, sockeye. That is, to the best of my knowledge.

Q Ask him the life of these types of fish.

THE COMMISSIONER: I wonder if we would not be safer to have a witness who at the same time speaks English and also has a knowledge of fishing. For instance, this country man, Ollaspie, would be able to give you the information you are seeking.

MR. HERRASHER: What I am particularly interested in and I am sure you are, my lord, is how long they had just sitting there, because they were sold quite late. The point is at that time what is the fair market value -- what was the fair market value at that time?

THE COMMISSIONER: You are perfectly free to go on as you choose, but it appears to me that in ten minutes I may get all the information you are seeking now from someone else, where it would take much longer to get it from this witness and we might not be sure of it. I do not mean to disparage the witness, but he is having as much difficulty as the interpreters are. Perhaps I could ask you to call, say, Mr. Gillespie at some stage of our inquiry.

H. Himmelfarb,
Cross-Exam.

MR. HUNTER: Possibly, my lord, before we start putting in our individual specific defenses, we will be calling a certain number of witnesses who will give evidence of a general nature that will be applicable to many cases.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Is that suggestion satisfactory to counsel for the claimant?

MR. MacLENNAN: That is quite satisfactory, my lord, but at each time we would want to produce the Custodian's file again. They made certain appraisals at the time.

THE COMMISSIONER: There will be no question about that. All I am attempting to do now is to avoid a protracted examination of a witness who does not speak English that might be entirely unproductive.

20 MR. HUNTER: I don't think there is anything else, my lord, I can get from this witness.

MR. MacLENNAN: Arising out of the cross-examination, my lord, I would ask my friend to produce for me, so I can file it, the Custodian's statement of November 18th, 1947, showing the goods which were taken from the cannery and what was done with them.

MR. HUNTER: Do you want it now?

MR. MacLENNAN: Yes, I would like to file it.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: If it is going to take a little time

H. Hinchey,
(Witness).

to get those out, I propose to take check now. Perhaps it would be convenient to put them in immediately afterwards. Is there anything further you want from the witness while he is here?

MR. MACKINNON: There is nothing as far as I am concerned, my lord.

MR. HENDER: I don't think so, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Then, Mr. Secretary, we will recess for a short time.

(Witness aside)

(PROCEEDINGS RESUMED AFTER A SHORT RECESS).

THE COMMISSIONER: What did you find, Mr. Mackinnon?

MR. MACKINNON: My lord, rather than extract the statement from the Custodian's file, I have agreed with my learned friend that he will produce it at a later date. It is a statement of November 18th, 1947, in respect of the claim of this claimant Hinchey, and it covers the goods which he declared and left in the Vancouver Customs warehouse, pursuant to that statutory declaration of November 19th, 1943, and it shows what goods actually came into the possession of the Custodian.

MR. HENDER: The date of the statement?

MR. MACKINNON: The date of the statement is November 18th, 1947, and it refers to those goods moved from the Vancouver Customs to No. 5 Auction on February 22nd, 1948, and June 11th, 1948.

29 (Discussion).

THE COMMISSIONER: That is, all the goods that were stored in this warehouse that has been referred to by the witness, is that it?

MR. MACKINNON: It contains two pages, my lord. I believe there are some articles not even referred to by the claimant, but these are the goods which the Custodian said he took belonging to this claimant, which the Custodian took from the warehouse.

30 MR. MACKINNON: That is what it is, my lord, just an inventory of what we got and sold.

THE COMMISSIONER: But does it necessarily relate to the goods of this claimant?

MR. MACKINNON: Yes, it does, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Hideshi Nishimura.

MR. MACKINNON: Yes, my lord, registered number 62342.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, all right.

MR. MACKINNON: I have agreed with my friend it
35 won't be marked as an exhibit. He would like to keep it on the Custodian's file for the time being, but he will produce it at a later date, my lord.

(Claimant's case concluded).

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings herein.
