Dear Madam:

In your registration with the Custodian you declared certain chattels left at 130 West 1st Avenue.

Our representatives investigated the whereabouts of these chattels and were informed that you had sold them prior to your evacuation, or moved them to some other location.

Unless we hear from you to the contrary, we will assume that this information is correct.

Yours truly,

G. B. Spain

Received your letter concerning articles I have left in Vancouver.

I have left in 130 W. 1st. Ave., Vancouver, B.C.
before leaving for Tashme the following:

- 2 Double bed with springs
- 10 Chairs
- 1 Kitchen Stove
- And other small things.

I did not sold it or leave it somewhere place but at the above address.

Kindly look into this matter.

Yours truly,

(Mrs.) Kimi Tanaka

Dear Madam:

We have your letter of the 22nd instant with reference to chattels said to have been left at 130 West 1st Avenue.

Our representative when he visited this address was informed that the cabins at this address were demolished by the authorities and that no chattels were found at this address. The windows were all broken and thieves had removed the plumbing. Under the circumstances we regret being unable to be of service to you.

Yours truly,

In reply to your letter of January 10th 1946 re - chattels which I had left at 130 West 1st Avenue, I wish to state that just before coming to Vashme I have left all my chattels at 130 West 1st Avenue except for the one trunk which I brought with me. As for the other chattels which I left there I do not know what has happened to them.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Kimi TANAKA,
Reg. No. 09138,
TASHME, B.C.

Dear Madam:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 21st instant regarding some chattels said to have been left by you at 130 West 1st Ave., Vancouver.

In your registration with the Custodian you declared some chattels and mentioned that you would bring the room key to the Custodian at the time of your evacuation. We did not receive the key and we note you were evacuated on October 3rd, 1942.

This property was thoroughly ransacked by thieves and vandals and it would appear that your chattels were stolen.

We have taken all reasonable measures for the protection of personal goods, involving considerable expense in the employment of caretakers, watchmen and night patrol, but in spite of this a certain amount of breaking-in and vandalism has occurred in our storage from time to time resulting in some items being stolen.

Burglary and theft are, of course, circumstances which sometimes happen to the most careful property owners even when the owner is in residence and after taking every precaution against such possibilities.

The police have been made aware of this situation and if the missing articles should be recovered you will of course be advised.

Your request and a copy of this letter will remain on our files indicating the facts regarding this matter and be available for review at any future date.

Yours truly,

G. D. Spain
