We sent Mrs. KIMURA the list of goods inventoried above and she confirmed that these were all the goods she had left at 2129 Pine St. It would therefore appear that she took these three articles with her or disposed of them prior to her evacuation.

The table and chairs were sold at auction for the net sum of $4.03 and this sum credited to the account of Mrs. KIMURA. Her son, who owned the real property at 2129 Pine St., confirmed that his mother owned the chattels at this address. It would appear that she took most of the goods with her that were of any value, or sold them, and the goods left at 2129 Pine Street were those that had very little value.

The above Schedule is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sir:

Re: Iwao KIMURA, #06666

We thank you for your letter of the 1st, listing chattels which Mrs. Kimura has left behind. It is our custom to have Japanese sign an inventory of chattels of what remains in this area stating definitely that they have no further chattels remaining in the restricted area of British Columbia. We think it well to have Mrs. Kimura or Iwao Kimura sign a list to this effect and if you could do this and keep the list with a copy for us, we think the question of chattels can be considered closed. Thanking you.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green
