Mr. Gango OKUI,
Registration No. 06190,
PYRAMID, B. C.

Dear Sir:

This is to inform you that your credit balance in Custodian Trust Account, at this date, is $14.17.

This sum was derived from the sale of a range and a bed, identified as your property, which were sold at auction for the net sum of $14.17.

On August 21, 1943, we remitted to you the sum of $6.17. This money had been received from the Provincial Government of British Columbia as refund of one per cent wage deductions for the period from January to June, 1941.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian and, in order that you may confirm this, we enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

Enclosure

F. Matheson,
Protection Department.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 12337

Gengo OKUI

Reg. No. 06190

This man was evacuated on March 15, 1942. It was not until July 20, 1943, however, that he signed a declaration to the Custodian.

On November 16, 1942, this man requested shipment of a carpenter's tool box. Instructions were given to Mr. Matt Brown to ship this. There is nothing further on the file and it is assumed that shipment was made as requested.

In his declaration to the Custodian, this man stated that he owned kitchen utensils, a double bed, a kitchen stove, a heater and 3 rolls of carpets and curtains left in a house of the Royston Lumber Co., Royston, B. C.

A complete bed and a McCleary Range, identified as the property of this man, were sold at Cumberland auction on October 25, 1944, for the net sum of $14.17, which was credited to his account.

On October 19, 1943, Gengo OKUI was informed that our agent, Mr. Matt Brown, had no information in regard to any of the chattels declared, and OKUI was asked for further particulars. The letter stated that unless we heard from him we would not be able to identify or protect his belongings. There was no reply to our letter, and on November 17, 1943, he was informed that in view of this we considered that there was nothing further to be done in regard to his goods.

The sum of $6.17 was received from the Provincial Government of British Columbia as refund of one per cent wage deduction for the period January to June, 1941. This was credited to the account of Gengo OKUI and was remitted to him on August 21, 1943.

This file reveals no other personal property of any kind whatsoever.

This file reveals no real property interest.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.
