Re: Account.

The representative from this office now at Tashme reports that you are not quite clear with regard to the position of your account with this office, we therefore give below an extract of this account.

Dec. 24, 1942	Cheque in your favour	$ 5.14
July 30, 1945	Proportionate share of liquidated assets of Royston Saving Assoc. as per footnote (see over)	$73.68

We are advised by the Royal Bank of Canada, Cumberland, that there is a credit balance of $17.15 in your Savings Account (No. K-263) with them. You may either draw this amount direct, or if you so desire, and will send us your Pass Book, we will obtain this money and add it to the credit balance in your account with this office.

Yours truly,

R. G. Bell,

Dear Sir:

Re: Shuichi KAWADA & Royston Savings Ass'n

Mr. Shuichi Kawada was the owner of 25 shares in the Royston Savings Association, and he has written to this office asking for his share of the distribution of assets of that organization.

However, he does not have the share certificates in his possession and has informed us that he left these with the treasurer when he went to road camp in February, 1942.

No certificates belonging to this man were among the documents belonging to the Royston Savings Association that were turned over to this office, and we are writing in the hope that you may be able to assist us in recovering these certificates so that we may remit to Mr. Kawada his share of the Association's assets.

If you know where these certificates may be, would you please let us know. We enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

Enclosure

F. Matheson,
Protection Department.
